OF Cash Box

August 11, 1962

Dear Friends:

In achieving its 20th birthday, Cash Box is proud to celebrate this most happy occasion with the largest, most comprehensive issue it has ever published.

This issue, Cash Box annual directory edition, which over the years, has become the foremost reference guide and an integral part of every firm in the industry, both as to editorial content and advertisements, is acknowledged as the most important single issue published during the year for the industry the world over.

That Cash Box has been able to attain the distinction as the World's Leading Publication in our industry is due only thru the fact that it serves the requirements of the trade . . . honest, fearless, progressive service, with understanding and awareness of the problems of its readers and advertisers.

We thank all of our many friends thruout the world for making it possible to reach this milestone, and we assure them we shall continue in the years ahead to serve them to our utmost.

Joe Orleck

We have a new way of plating at Audio Matrix

We use The Audiomatic Process*, a revolutionary new record plating system designed and built by our engineers.

We produce:

1. superior all nickel masters, mothers and stampers to precise specifications, with a minimum of handling. No copper. No pre-plating.
2. finer-grained, harder and more ductile matrices for higher fidelity and greater wear.
3. stampers with no thickness variations.
4. better plates at unprecedented speeds because we can use higher current densities.

SAVE MONEY (on every record you make) with the new Audiomatic extruder

Our new concept, low-temperature extruder revolutionizes the pre-plasticizing of all compounds, to produce consistently flawless records — at lower material cost and of a quality never before obtainable.

The Audiomatic Extruder, two years in development,

1. makes a homogeneous pre-form from any material — single resin or other dry blend, granular or reground — at lower temperatures than ever before.
2. controls temperature during extrusion automatically, by liquid-cooling of the screw. Compounding is always complete without overheating, regardless of variations in the vinyl, in the material formula or from batch-to-batch.
3. delivers, automatically, a pre-form of exact desired weight in less than 15 seconds, easily serving two LP presses. The pre-forms are of uniform size and shape, with a hole exactly in the center.
4. contains dual label drying ovens. Two drawers on each side, to serve two presses, save time and reduce the chance of label error.
5. is remarkably compact, measuring 60″ long, 54″ high and 20″ wide.

This money-saving, highly flexible, top quality extruding equipment is sensibly priced. You can't afford not to use it.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"RAMBLIN' SON-OF-A-GUN" (2:05) [Pamper BMI—Howard]
"I AIN'T GOT NOBODY" (2:27) [Mayfair ASCAP—Graham, Williams]
HARLAN HOWARD (Capitol 4813)

Ace country tunesmith Harlan Howard showcases the vocal side of multi-talented coin on this new destined-for-success Capitol outing. The top side here, "Ramblin' Son-Of-A-Gun," is catchy, hard-driving ditty with an effective pop-styled chorus sold with authority by Howard. Watch it zoom up the charts. "I Ain't Got Nobody" is a first-rate tradition-oriented, shuffle-beat, hillbilly lament. Merits a close look.

"ACROSS THE WIDE MISSOURI" (2:46)
[Jericho ASCAP—Drake, Shirl]
"I CAN HEAR MY HEART BREAK" (2:49)
[Acuff-Rose BMI—Howard]
GEORGE MORGAN (Columbia 42505)

Proof positive that good oldies never die, is this feelingful rendition of "Across The Wide Missouri" by George Morgan. The chanter dishes up the tune, culled from his "Golden Memories" LP with an impressive country style. The side could move up the hitsville path in no time flat. The other end, "I Can Hear My Heart Break," is a slow-paced, real tender ballad essayed with loads of poise by the songster.

"IF I CAN SLIP AWAY" (2:10)
[Pacific Coast & Metric BMI—Roby, Hilton]
"SEE ONE BROKEN HEART" (2:41) [Pamper BMI—Howard, Hart]
RAY SANDERS (Liberty 55486)

Ray Sanders could tear up the charts in weeks to come with this potent Liberty newie. In "If I Can Slip Away" the chanter unleashes his professional vocal abilities full-blast on a top-drawer uptempo, guitar-oriented, tear-jerker. The side has a good dual-market chance. The flip side, "See One Broken Heart," is a pleasant easy-goin' ballad with fine chorus assist. Wax could skyrocket.

Johnny Cash serves up another tempting pair of dual-mart pop-country Columbia dishes in "Bonanza!" and "Pick A Bale O' Cotton" (See Pop Reviews).

ARCHIE CAMPBELL (Starday 600)

(B+) "ROOT BEER" (2:28) [Starday & Glad BMI—Jones, Edwards] Archie Campbell could cause a real stir with appealing novelty-styled uptempo item all about his favorite non-alcoholic drink. The side is given a first-rate commercial send-off by the chanter. A natural for air-play.

(B) "FOOLS' SIDE OF TOWN" (2:31) [Starday & Window BMI—Davis, Davis] This end is a twangy, sentimental ballad on a traditional country theme.

DEL REEVES (Decca 31417)

(B+) "HE STANDS REAL TALL" (2:14) [Yonah & Champion BMI—Veale] Del Reeves could move up the hitsville path in no time flat with this catchy, real pleasing bluegrass-flavored item all about the effects of love. A fine showing.

(B) "EMPTY HOUSE" [Champion BMI—Veale] Infectious, dual-track opus which effectively showcases the artist's commercial vocal abilities.

SHELBY SMITH (Rebel 201)

(B) "ROCKING MAMA" (2:00) [Sandra & Pure Gold BMI—Smith] Here's a fast-paced rockabilly item essayed with loads of high spirits by the chanter. Smith effectively utilizes the dual-track technique on the side. Could get air play.

(B) "SINCE MY BABY SAID GOOD-BY" (2:15) [Sandra & Pure Gold BMI—Smith, Bass] This time out Smith renders a fine, sentimental lament with a feelingful, professional vocal style.

BOB JENNINGS (United Artists 446)

(B+) "ARE YOU FORGETTING" (2:07) [Tree BMI—Miller] Newcomer Bob Jennings could jump into the national limelight with this tender, shuffle-beat ballad penned by vet country songster Roger Miller. The songster has an impressive, wide-range style which is aptly showcased on the side. Should bring the spinners out in droves.

(B) "I KNOW THREE'S A CROWD" (2:20) [Four Star BMI—Belew] Easy-goin' slow-moving tradition-oriented hillbilly romantic opus read with poise by Jennings.

SAMMY MARSHALL (Show 2244)

(B) "LITTLE GIRL" (2:10) [Carrie Brigs BMI—Herron, Montgomery, Biggs] Sammy Marshall is teamed up with the Marsh-Mellows for this twangy, appealing folk-flavored ditty. Side boasts some top-drawer instrumental backing. With the proper exposure the wax could make some noise.

(C+) "SQUARE DANCE SHUFFLE" (2:29) [Carrie Biggs BMI—Herron, Montgomery, Biggs] On this side Marshall and crew dish up a lively hand-clapping hillbilly square dance item.

JIM FOSTER (Karen 1)

(B) "PITY POOR ME" (2:12) [Sandra & Pure Gold BMI — Foster] Jim Foster has a good chance with this uptempo, dual-track country tear-jerker. The chanter's professional approach coupled with some fine lyrics should pull some spins. The label is based in Waynesville, Missouri.

(C+) "WANDERING STAR" (2:50) [Sandra & Pure Gold BMI—Foster] Listenable, familiar-sounding, self-penned ballad. OK chanting.

Cash Box COUNTRY ROUND UP

Another Webb Pierce Day has been set. This time the day will come on August 8th, the chanter's birthday. The event last year was a sensational success with full participation from the country jockeys. Spinners are now being supplied with either segments or complete shows featuring the Decca releases by Pierce. The last year has been one of the most exciting in the songster's career. Currently, he is riding the charts with 'Crazy Wild Desire" and "Take Time." A new single is scheduled for release on August 15th.

RAY SANDERS

ROSE MADDOX

ERNEST ASHWORTH

A big weekend is coming up for country fans in the Salt Lake City area when Lefty Frizzell, Marvin Rainwater, Freddie Hart, Ray Sanders, Rosemary Forster, Candy Martin and the Golden Valley Boys will appear in a Grand Ole Opry show and dance at the Lagoon Resort on August 10 and 11.

Jack Stapp, topper of the Tree pubbery, infos that his firm has inked Victor hit-maker Roger Miller to an exclusive writing pact. The chanter-cleffer is currently on tour working clubs, TV shows and record hops. . . . Tree folks are mighty pleased to the reaction to Dottie West's initial wax for Atlantic, "Think I'll Pick Up My Heart" and "Go Home." The wax, which was penned by Roger Miller, spearheaded the label's entry in the country field. . . . Buddy Killen, executive veep of Tree, has finally taken a vacation. Buddy married his ex-secretary, Sue Wambles earlier this year but never had time to go on a honeymoon.

Tall Paul Charon, bluegrass artist and Opry musician, has joined Billy Monroe and the Bluegrass Boys as a regular member of the crew. Charon, who formerly was a deejay-spinner in California, has done professional work for some of the biggest names in the business.

Rex Allen has been signed to do the narration for Walt Disney's "Greta The Misfit Greyhound." The one hour network TV'er will be shown on NBC's "Wonderful World Of Color."

Johnny Cash and the Tennessee Three, accompanied by his manager Saul Holiff and June Carter will embark on a tour of the Far East on October 24th of this year, under the auspices of the USO. This jaunt is identical in nature to the tour that Danny Kaye undertook for the USO last year and marks the second time that a major artist has donated his services for an extensive trip, on behalf of the USO, to the Orient.

Jimmy Brogdon sent in word to kill the rumors that Rose Maddox is no longer in the business. Jimmy says the lark, who records for Capitol, has just come off the road where she played key dates in several states and has dates set well into September. Any promoter or booker interested in contacting Rose for engagements should contact Jimmy at P. O. Box 294, Oceanside, California.

Ernest Ashworth, telegrams from Huntsville, Ala., that he's very excited about the reaction to his Hickory newie, "Everybody But Me." The deck is currently riding the Cash Box Country Top 50.

Ferlin Husky has just completed an engagement at the Copa Club in Secaucus, New Jersey, where as per usual he knocked 'em dead. The chanter shared the bill with Shorty and Smokey Warren and their Country Music Revue.

Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs are proof positive of the rapidly rising star of country music. The bluegrass kings have some first-rate concert dates set for this fall. The duo will play Carnegie Hall Dec. 1; Jordan Hall Boston, Nov. 30 (their third straight year in the Hub); Town Hall Philadelphia, Dec. 2, and Studebaker Hall, Chicago Nov. 2.

Shorty Mason, program director on WTHT-Hazelton, Penna., asks to be put on all-mailing lists to get all the new country bluegrass releases. Mason can also use gospel platters.

Due to the success of their recent bluegrass spectacular, WKCW-Warrenton, Viriginia, held another bluegrass show last week. The package featured Jimmy Martin, Don Reno & Red Smiley and Earl Taylor all in one show.

Judy Steinberg, who promotes country sounds in and around Gotham, has moved from 215 Commonwealth Ave., Mt. Vernon, New York to 26 Stone Cavern Road, New Rochelle. In addition to her other chores Judy is the prexy of the Jimmy Martin fan club.

George Kent, who works out of Dallas, mentions that his first Dial release of "Little Wheels" and "Lonesome Is My Middle Name" is available to jockeys if they write to him on their letterhead's at P.O. Box 4913.

Pick of the Week

"LIE TO ME" (2:14)
[Ben Day BMI—Singleton, Benton]

"WITH THE TOUCH OF YOUR HAND" (2:08)
[Earl Barton & Ben Day BMI—Singleton, Kennedy]

BROOK BENTON (Mercury 72024)

The consistent chart warbler may have two-for-the-chart-money here. One end, "Lie To Me," is a fine, funky shuffle-beat session about a guy who'd rather have his cheating chick put one over on him rather than face the truth, while "With the Touch Of Your Hand" is an affectionate with a warm, Nashville waltz way.

"IF I DIDN'T HAVE A DIME" (2:25) [January BMI—Russell, Medley]

"ONLY LOVE CAN BREAK A HEART" (2:50)
[Arch ASCAP—David, Bacharach]

GENE PITNEY (Musicor 1022)

Pitney's big-hit chain (currently it's "Liberty Valance") is a cinch to remain intact with his latest Musicor effort. It's a captivating, cha-cha-with-strings romancer, tabbed "If I Didn't Have A Dime," that Gene and the ork-chorus put across with telling effect. Money-in-the-bank for all concerned. Lots of emotion's packed into the lovely beat-ballad weeper-lilter, "Only Love Can Break A Heart." Standout two-sider.

"I WOULDN'T KNOW" [E. B. Marks BMI—McCoy]

"FOR ALL WE KNOW" [Leo Feist ASCAP—Lewis, Coots]

DINAH WASHINGTON (Roulette 4444)

Lark, who's still collecting loads of dual-mart coin with her debut Roulette chart-maker, "Where Are You," can do even bigger business with both ends of her new release. Both portions, the bluesy, beat-ballad weeper newcomer, "I Wouldn't Know," and the lilting, sentimental old-timer, "For All We Know," are treated to superb readings by Dinah and the Don Costa instrumentalists.

"GOLDEN WINGS IN THE SUN" (2:45)
[Roosevelt & Gema BMI—Kaempfert, Ahlert]
"CINDERELLA AFTER MIDNIGHT" (2:30)
[Roosevelt & Gema BMI—Bruesewitz, Kaempfert, Scott]
BERT KAEMPFERT (Decca 31420)

Germany's strong U.S. sales maker should be in for further Top 100 action with "Golden Wings In The Sun," a lovely, inspirational flavored number that's done with Kaempfert's smooth, trumpet-led approach. Deck follows a click Kaempfert entry, "That Happy Feeling." Pretty flip has a nice shuffle-beat sound that could get some action.

"SEND FOR ME (If You Need Some Lovin')" (2:08)
[Saturn BMI—George]
"BLESS YOU" (2:15) [Saturn BMI—George]
BARBARA GEORGE (Sue 766)

The "I Know" artist can have a long chart stay with "Send For Me," a highly distinctive, infectious blues portrayal. Her meaningful upbeat pose is supported by persuasive percussion statements and an effective chorus. Looks like hot stuff. More intimate expression on "Bless You."

"LOLLIPOP AND ROSES" (2:21) [Garland ASCAP—Velona]
"PLEASE MR. SUN" (2:12) [Weiss & Barry BMI—Frank, Getzov]
PAUL PETERSEN (Colpix 649)

"Lollipops And Roses," the charmer that recently pushed Jack Jones into the national spotlite, can again develop into a news-maker as a result of this Paul Petersen Colpix outing. This tune, this time, finds an easy-beat cha cha format and a real pleasing choral-backed, multi-tracked effort by the actor-singer. Johnny Ray's while-back success receives an enticing beat-ballad up-dating on the flip.

"FIVE WEEKS IN A BALLOON" (1:55)
[Miller ASCAP—Desmond, Stephens]
"LAND OF THE MIDNIGHT SUN" (1:52)
[Randy Smith ASCAP—Smith, Lobuono]
THE BROTHERS FOUR (Columbia 42507)

The Brothers Four are sure to latch on to loads of airtime in the coming weeks as they serve up an ear-arresting reading of the title tune from the soon-due pic, "Five Weeks In A Balloon." It's a charming new adaptation of the tarantella melody (familiarly known as "Lucky Me") that the platter spinners'll love. Same goes for the inviting up tempo folk coupler, "Land Of The Midnight Sun."

"BONANZA!" (2:24) [Livingston & Evans ASCAP—Livingston, Evans]
"PICK A BALE O' COTTON" (1:65) [Johnny Cash BMI—Cash]
JOHNNY CASH (Columbia 42512)

"Bonanza!" the theme tune of the popular TV series (a short-while-back instrumental success for Al Caiola) can make the pop-country chart rounds, this time under the expert vocal guidance of Johnny Cash. It's an easy-on-the-ears session that can step way out in both fields. Also keep an eye on Johnny & chorus' charming up-dating of the folk-oldie, "Pick A Bale O' Cotton."

RAMONA KING (Eden 3)

(B+) "ORIENTAL GARDEN" (2:09) [Lee Hazlewood & Briarcliff BMI—King, King] Feeling-ful teen romantic is prettily portrayed by the lark. Supporting her statement is a sprightly combo backdrop that sometimes has an Oriental-like percussion effect. Date, from the Era Records affiliate, has solid teen-market value.

(B) "SOUL-MATE" (2:08) [Lee Hazelwood - Briarcliff BMI — King, King] Happy gospel-type stint.

THE VELVETS (Monument 464)

(B+) "THE LIGHTS GO ON, THE LIGHTS GO OFF" (2:32) [Arch ASCAP—Edwards, David] The pro vocal crew has given the kids a fine-sounding ballad date. Team's blend is backed by a sure-handled Latin-styled sound from the ork. Might step-out.

(B+) "LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL" (2:00) [Atlantic & Aladdin BMI—Lee] Yet another rock appearance for the blues standard. A version that catches the ditty's vitality.

ANITA BRYANT (Columbia 42515)

(B+) "MOONLIGHT MELODY" (2:35) [Leeds ASCAP—Stillman, Busch, Von Pinelli, Scharfenberger] Thrush is multi-tracked in a very attractive reading of a pretty sentimental. Nice easy foxtrot pose from the ork (chorus is also included). With enough station time, side could happen.

(B) "I'M NOT A CHILD ANYMORE" (2:00) [Pambill ASCAP—Jordan, Bass] More above-par ballad material for the lass.

MANTOVANI (London 9552)

(B+) "WHAT KIND OF FOOL AM I" (2:30) [Hollis BMI—Newley, Bricusse] The Mantovani strings make a strong case for the handsome ballad from the "Stop The World. . ." revue, a hit London offering that will bow soon on Broadway. Deck joins various other vocal & instrumental outings on the number.

(B) "SOMEONE NICE LIKE YOU" (2:15) [Hollis BMI — Newley, Bricusse] A keyboard is spotlighted in a pleasing foxtrot reading of another pretty opus from the same show's score.

MARV JOHNSON
(United Artists 483)

(B+) "(That's Where) I LOST MY BABY" (2:41) [Jobete BMI—Gordy] Guy lost his baby at a party, but you'd never know it from the happy rock spirits displayed by the artist and his accompaniment, including a femme group called The Love-Tones. A workout that could bring Johnson back to the charts.

(B) "LET YOURSELF GO" (2:38) [Jobete BMI — Stevenson] More rockin' cheer. Ditty is not the Irving Berlin favorite.

LITTLE HERBIE/THE SANDABS
(Bamboo 522)

(B+) "BEACH BALL" (2:15) [Pattern & Balladeer ASCAP — Howard, Van Winkle, Darian, DeLory] Little Herbie makes narrative statements now-and-then against a happy speedy-beat sound from the combo, The Sandabs, and chanting chorus. Good summertime novelty for the youngsters.

BURT FARBER (Felsted 8652)

(B+) "WHAT KIND OF FOOL AM I" (2:56) [Hollis BMI—Bricusse, Newley] The big ballad from "Stop The World. . ." score gets a striking arrangement, with pianist Farber reading the tune against an exotic backdrop from the full ork.

(B) "ONCE IN A LIFETIME" (2:54) [Hollis BMI—Newley, Bricusse] Another alluring go for another item from the hit London revue.

BERNADETTE (Julia 1106)

(B+) "MY HEART STOOD STILL" (2:00) [Harms ASCAP—Rogers, Hart] The label's Bernadette, not the same as the girl on Beach, dishes up a top-drawer, commercial dual-track version of the famous standard. Wax has that money-in-the-bank flavor. Watch it move fast.

(B) "SWEET SUGAR SWEET" (2:00) [Jersey BMI—Bailey] Fine, shuffle-beat, danceable blues item. Should bring out spinners in droves.

FOUR HITS & A MISS
(Flamingo 540)

(B+) "SHE WOBBLES (All Night Long)" (2:35) [Jersey & Top Ten BMI—Hartnett] The Four Hits & A Miss, accompanied by the Centuries, offer an effective power-packed blues-styled wobbler. The side has enough built-in success ingredients to pull fast loot. Top-notch teen dance wax.

(B) "DO IT" (2:45) [Jersey & Top Ten BMI—Falcone, Rodriguez] This time the gang renders an appealing, slow-paced tradition-oriented blueser with a potent attention-getting beat.

LLOYD MAYERS
(United Artists 497)

(B+) "TASTE OF HONEY" (3:06) [Song Fest ASCAP—Scott, Marlow] UA spearhead their entry into the jazz singles field with this swingin' hard-driving reading of the flick theme featuring Lloyd Mayers and the Oliver Nelson ork. Treatment here is straight-forward with plenty of impressive solos. Eye it.

(B) "MARINA" (3:30) [Paris ASCAP—Distil] The organist is spotlighted on this end in an interesting change-of-pace, slow-moving ballad entry.

FELIX SLATKIN (Liberty 55487)

(B+) "MY GEISHA" (2:27) [Famous ASCAP—Waxman] The Slatkin ork once again wears in big string section well, relaving a fine instrumental reading of the pretty flick ballad. Good-music and/or mood outlets have a solid entry here.

(B) "THEME SEARCHING FOR A PICTURE" (2:34) [Metric BMI—Slatkin, Prager] Nice foxtrot pose on a sentimental tune that will have to do without the exposure value of a flick.

SIMS, WOODS, CROW, LEWIS
(Colpix 648)

(B+) "THE SOCHI BOATMAN—PART ONE" (2:33) [Gower BMI—Cohn] Zoot Sims, Phil Woods, Bill Crow, Mel Lewis and others are effectively teamed on this easy, free-flowing jazz treatment of the oldie. The crew recently completed a successful tour of Russia and this excellent wax taken from their new LP marks their first recorded appearance since their return.

(B) "THE SOCHI BOATMAN—PART TWO" (2:46) [Gower BMI—Cohn] The side's in an impressive bass-oriented, low-key continuation of the above.

Pick of the Week

"I'LL NEVER BE LONELY AGAIN" (3:08) [Alamo ASCAP—Schroeder, Edwards]
"THAT'S THE WAY IT IS" (2:49) [Elm Drive ASCAP—Vance, Carr]
JOHNNY MATHIS (Columbia 42509)

Watch for both ends of the velvety-voiced performer to be filling the airwaves in no time flat. They're two haunting ballads that Johnny wraps up in ultra-lovely fashion. One half, "I'll Never Be Lonely Again," features a superb ork showcase from the Ralph Burns crew while the other, "That's The Way It Is," finds Pete King grabbing the ork-choral honors. Excellent two-sider.

"HEY BABY I'M DANCIN'" (2:10) [Aldon BMI—Mann, Anthony]
"LIKE I DON'T LOVE YOU" (2:04) [Aldon BMI—Mann, Weil]
BARRY MANN (ABC-Paramount 10356)

Teeners get exciting merchandise in a rockin' romp by the artist called "Hey Baby I'm Dancin'." Storyline is that a fella has gotten over losing the gal and is ready to live again on the teen dance floor. A deck loaded with sounds that could make it. Contagious flip has a strong blues heritage.

"THEY TELL ME IT'S SUMMER" (2:20) [Metric BMI—Newman]
"LOVERS BY NIGHT, STRANGERS BY DAY" (2:10) [January BMI—Nader, Gluck]
THE FLEETWOODS (Dolton 62)

The smooth vocal crew might be in for a late summer hit with "They Tell Me It's Summer," a pretty plaintive about a fella who is unable to take part in the laughter of summer because his gal is not around. Male lead's vocal is backed by the familiar soft chants of his other songmates. Second session is an interesting item with more teen theatrics. Can also be active.

"OH MY" (2:39) [M.W.B.—Ponderosa BMI—Madara, White]
"PEOPLE ARE TALKING" (2:47) [M.W.B.—Ponderosa BMI—Madara, White]
MAUREEN GRAY (Landa 692)

From a territorial success her last time out (date was "Dancin' The Strand") lark can go on to national recognition with "Oh My," a strong teen-ballad opus which gets a solid warble by the performer plus an attention-getting rock-a-cha backdrop. Keep up with this track. Flip is a teen dramatic.

Pick of the Week

Newcomers

In an effort to call D.J. attention to Pick records by "Newcomers" (artists never before on the Top 100) the editorial staff of Cash Box will list such records under this special heading.

"IT MIGHT AS WELL RAIN UNTIL SEPTEMBER" (2:19) [Aldon BMI—King, Goffin]
"NOBODY'S PERFECT" (2:18) [Aldon BMI—King, Goffin]
CAROLE KING (Dimension 2000)

The ace arranger-conductor-cleffer can make the vocal big time with her first-time-out on the red-hot new Dimension ("Loco-Motion") label. It's a tender, tear-compelling jumper, tagged "It Might As Well Rain Until September," that the lark wistfully multi-tracks in 'top-ten' style. Stellar Jerry Goffin arrangement. Lark does a warm, sincere job on the inviting undercut, "Nobody's Perfect."

"I REMEMBER YOU" [ASCAP—Mercer, Schertzinger]
"I LISTEN TO MY HEART" (ASCAP—Ifield]
FRANK IFIELD (VeeJay 2580)

A smash in England, Frank Ifield's off-beat reading of the lovely oldie, "I Remember You," can succeed in the U.S. in a smilar potent manner. Ifield employs a pseudo-hillbilly style—including yodel-like bits—against an infectious shuffle-beat sound (harmonica is also present) from the ork. This one has got to be eyed closely. Flipside's arrangement has touches of the top end.

"DON'T CHA CRY" (2:25) [Hill & Range BMI—Johnston]
"WIND-UP TOY" (2:06) [Trinity BMI—Barry, Resnick]
"BEAVER" JERRY MATHERS (Atlantic 2156)

Mathers, who plays the title role on the popular "Leave It To Beaver," can soon be making chart news via this Atlantic bow. Songster turns in a warm and appealing dual-tracked vocal job on a soft beat cha cha affair labeled "Don't Cha Cry." Tasty Jimmy Haskell-led choral-ork backdrop. Pairing's a colorful rock-a-twist'er, tagged "Wind-Up Toy," that also has that chart-contending look.

"BAD BOY" (2:12) [Brent BMI—Drapkin]
"DEVIL IN HIS HEART" (2:29) [Brent BMI—Drapkin]
THE DONAYS (Brent 7033)

Brent could have a summer sizzler with this, commercial platter served up by the Donays. It's a teen-appealing opus, tagged "Bad Boy" (not the same as the while back click) that the artists wax in tempting "Mashed Potatoes" style. Sock combo support. More top teen rock-a-cha-cha-like sounds on the flip.

JOHNNY SOUTHERN (Liberty 55482)

(B+) "IN THE MIDDLE OF A LONELY, LONELY NIGHT" (1:50) [Rumbalero BMI — Pomus, Shuman] Things move quickly in this catchy romantic stand by the performer, whose stint has qualities of various rock stars. String ork follows along brightly.

(C+) "I WILL GET BY" (1:50) [Hara BMI—McCracken] Another fast-beat entry with a somewhat more dramatic approach.

THE FOUR WINDS (Dial 3006)

(B+) "WOE IS ME" (2:06) [Tree BMI — Sherrill] Cute bouncy rock-romantic from the male song team, which has as its vehicle a ditty that sounds like the years-back hit, "26 Miles."

(B) "PROMISED LAND" (2:22) [Tree BMI — Arr. Sherrill] Boys perform in a warm folkish vein.

JACK COOK (Ramco 1771)

(B+) "THE LOVE YOU SAVE (May Be Your Own)" (2:28) [Renda BMI—Cook, Hart] Ditty, a romantic paraphrasing of the familiar traffic-safety slogan, is done with good bright-beat rockin' by the performer and his combo-chorus friends. Smash Records is the label's national distrib.

(B) "I STEPPED IN" (2:02) [Renda BMI—Cook] A shuffle-beat stint that has a country attitude.

NANCY CLAIRE (Warner Bros. 5298)

(C+) "Y-E-S!" (2:16) [Moreno ASCAP—Lloyd] Upbeat romantic novelty on this end.

CYNTHIA PEPPER (Felsted 8651)

(B+) "BABY BLUES" (1:33) [H. R. ASCAP—Leahy] This is an apt razz-ma-taz outing for the performer, who stars on the "Margie" TV'er, set in the 20's. It's hard to resist that infectious sound of the classic decade.

(B) "A FIRST-TIME LOVE" [H. R. Music ASCAP—Leahy] Catchy ditty has the quality of novelty continental material.

LES COOPER (Everlast 5019)

(B+) "WIGGLE WOBBLE" (2:04) [Bob - Dan BMI — Cooper] Teeners will gladly take to the dance floor with this infectious blues instrumental on the turntable. For those who want to sit-this one-out, the sound is mightly listenable. New York-based diskery could have something here.

(B) "DIG YOURSELF" (2:25) [Bob - Dan BMI — Cooper, Dunn] A blues romp including a vocal stand.

TIMMY WELCH (Reprise 20,101)

(B+) "HEY, MR. CLOWN" (2:56) [Gil BMI—Resnick, Clifford] Plaintive opus is displayed in haunting teen fashion by the pro teen-market warbler and lush, jungle-like ork-chorus setting. A sound that could show-up.

(B) "GYPSY WOMAN" (2:16) [Doral BMI—Burnett, Osborne] Intriguing blues-folk feel here.

NELSON DUPRE (Big "L" 501)

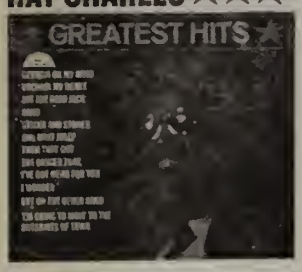
POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

RAY CHARLES ★★★



"GREATEST HITS"—Ray Charles—ABC-Paramount ABC 415
This year the "genius" has finally come into his own. His last LP, "Modern Sound In Country & Western Music," and the single from the album, "I Can't Stop Loving You," both met with tremendous success (the LP is still one of the biggest in the nation). In this new session the artist offers a dozen of his recent biggies with his distinctive, tender, pleading vocal style. The dominating Charles voice is superlative in "Georgia On My Mind," "Unchain My Heart" and "Hit The Road Jack." The disk should skyrocket.

"LET'S SIT THIS ONE OUT"—Paul Anka—RCA Victor LPM 2575
Paul Anka's disk career is comparatively short but impressive enough for a dozen careers. The young chanter has rolled up a list of hits that has made him one of the hottest names in the business today. For this his second Victor album, Anka directs his attention to evergreens and comes off, as per usual, in winning style. The songster turns in top-drawer Ray Ellis-arranged versions of "I Only Have Eyes For You," "Let's Fall In Love," and "Teach Me Tonight." Sure-fire chart item.

"THE BUTTON-DOWN MIND ON TV"—Bob Newhart—Warner Brothers WS 1467
This satirist has a propensity for turning out LP's which inevitably make it to chartville. This seems sure to go up the same success path. Ex-disk of bits taken from his last-season TV'er, tremely funny routines are tagged "Introducing Tobacco," "The Siamese Cat," and "General Chariot Corp." Newhart is still chipping away at the armor of the advertising biz—and doing it effectively. Many laughs to be had here.

"JIMMY SMITH PLAYS FATS WALLER"—Blue Note 4100
Jimmy Smith has, in recent months, become one of the few commercially successful jazz artists. His last Blue Note album, "Midnight Special," was a long chart-rider and he is currently pulling coin with an LP cut for another label. On this new session, Smith offers seven standards associated with the late Fats Waller. The impressive lyrical style of his organ coupled with professional control carry him in good stead on "Squeeze Me," "Ain't She Sweet," and "Honeysuckle Rose." The disk has enough built-in success ingredients to make a chart appearance in no time flat.

"A YOUNG MAN'S FANCY"—Johnny Crawford—Del-Fi DFLP 1223
The young actor-singer from the TV'er "The Rifleman," who recently rode the charts with "Cindy's Birthday," is doing it again with "Your Nose Is Gonna Grow," both of which are included on this LP routing. The lad also gives top-drawer readings of "Moon River" and "Young At Heart." Album is sure to be go-getter in sales and has strong chart potential.

"DID YOU EVER"—Dave Gardner—RCA Victor LSP 2498
No other laughman in the business has a delivery quite like Dave Gardner's—with a mile-wide Southern drawl, he hurls his laugh laden barbs at the North, the President, and Astronauts, Werner Von Braun, and Texas. His wit is as sharp as a rapier, and he uses it to puncture the spectrum of traditions and social groups, but does it so benignly that no one can seriously take umbrage. Powerful humor that could enlist a regiment of new fans for the comic.

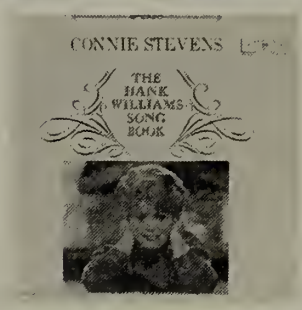
"COME WALTZ WITH ME!"—Steve Lawrence—Columbia CS 8670
Steve Lawrence kicks off this, his premiere album entry for Columbia, with a tender ballad, "Come Waltz With Me," written especially for him. The songster's wide-range, feelingful vocal abilities are aptly showcased on this carefully selected bag of evergreens. Best listening bets here include "Eternally," "Fascination" and "Till We Meet Again." A powerful package.

"OH YOU KID"—Dorothy Provine—Warner Brothers WS 1466
The big voice of the TV actress-singer is teamed with the honky tonker Joe "Fingers" Carr in this tune-laden outing on Warner Brothers. The songstress belts out two dozen biggies from the flapper era in an authoritative and entertaining manner. Some prime tracks here are "I Don't Care," "Frankie And Johnnie," and "Ta Ra Ra Bomm Der E." Excellent fare for adults.

"THE BEST OF JOLSON"—Decca DXA 169
Although Al Jolson has been dead almost 10 years, the magnetism of his unique talent has been eloquently preserved on his recordings. The universality of the Jolson style, is perfectly captured on this colorful two-disk set from Decca containing 28 of his most memorable performances. All the big ones are here including "Swanee," "April Showers," and "California, Here I Come." The package has enough good stuff in it to cause plenty of sales excitement.

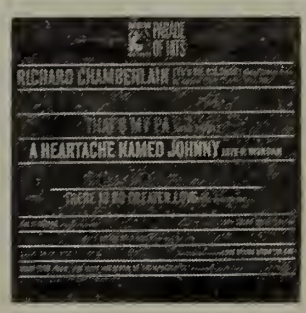
"IN PERSON"—Brothers Four—Columbia CS 8628
In recent years folk artists have taken to the campus to find what is one of the most appreciative of audiences. The Brothers Four offer a warm collection of pop-folk items on new session cut "live" at the Naval Academy and Vanderbilt University. The applause of the collegiates lends a spontaneous flavor as the boys render "The Midnight Special," "Across The Sea" and "Greenfields." The disk is attractively packaged in a colorful eye-catching sleeve which should help it score heavily in the coin department.

"GIFT OF LOVE"—Jack Jones—Kapp KL 1292
Jack Jones cashes in on the success of his recent chart-riding single of "Gift Of Love" to tag this session of eleven other melodic items. Plenty of choice ballads here as the baritone talents of the songster are showcased in "Time After Time," "Fly Me To The Moon," and "I Wish You Love." The chanter's voice and delivery have an appealing quality that should attract a wide variety of buyers.



"THE HANK WILLIAMS SONG BOOK"—Connie Stevens—Warner Brothers WS 1460
With several singles successes to her credit, the "Hawaiian Eye" lark could score again with this new entry from Warner Brothers. Her honest approach, and potent delivery of these fine Hank Williams tunes is evidenced in her readings of "Hey, Good Lookin'" "Your Cheatin' Heart," and "I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry." Disk should appeal to a host of country and pop fans.

"BARROOM GOLDEN FAVORITES"—'Big' Tiny Little—Coral CRL 757407
Big Tiny Little's coterie of loyal fans should beat a path to the counters for this package of goodies by the master of the tinkling piano. As an added plus, the 88'er is joined by Josephine, whose lively and lusty vocals are a solid contribution. Some spirited sides are "The Darktown Strutter's Ball," "There Is A Tavern In The Town," and "I Wish I Could Shimmy Like My Sister Kate." A swift-paced, happy offering destined to pull plenty of loot.



"PARADE OF HITS"—Various Artists—MGM E-4078
This talent-filled bag of recent and current hits from MGM boasts the talents of a host of top-notch performers singing and playing their best sellers. Heading the line-up is David Rose with "The Stripper," which soared to the top of the charts a few weeks ago. Also included are Elmer Bernstein's "Walk On The Wild Side," Richard Chamberlain's "Three Stars Will Shine Tonight," and Sheb Wooley's "That's My Pa." Disk has wide appeal.

"ALL STAR CAST"—Various Artists—ABC-Paramount ABC 423

"WE SPEAK THE SAME LANGUAGE"—James Shigeta—Choreo A-7
The actor-singer makes his debut on Choreo with this easy to listen to collection of standards. Shigeta kicks things off with a fine Dick Hazard-arranged rendition of "I Saw You Yesterday," which aptly displays his rich, wide-range vocal abilities. "THE AIRDALE WALK"—Doug Fowlkes & The Airdales"—Atco 33 145
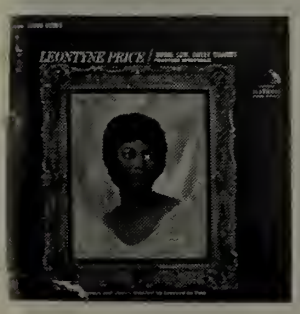
Although the twist has lost some of its former sales intensity, there is still an almost endless barrage of new twist albums released each month. On this Atco disk Doug Fowlkes and the Airdales offer an extremely danceable bag of hard-driving, rollicking twist items. The group's rousing instrumental talents and vocals make for many terpsichorean delights as they read "Airdale Walk," "Hey Let's Twist" and "I Can't Sit Down."



"SWING LOW, SWEET CHARIOT"—Leontyne Price—RCA Victor LSC-2600

The soprano displays a natural, emotion-packed feeling for these deep-roots songs which she delivers in a feelingful, moving manner. Included are "Let Us Break Bread Together On Our Knees," "Were You There," "He's Got The Whole World In His Hands," and "Ride On, King Jesus." The Metropolitan star's host of admirers will want to have this excellent disk.

"IN THE DUCHIN MANNER"—Peter Duchin—Decca DL 74 74291
The pianist, talented and versatile in his own right, is not just a carbon copy of his late father, Eddy Duchin. His style is sophisticated with a free-swinging freshness that is appealing. Backed by his own band, the 88'er is exceptionally good on "You're My Everything," "Too Close For Comfort," "No Strings," and nine other old and new stalwarts. Disk is sure to increase Duchin's stature as a performer.

Cash Box ALBUM REVIEWS

"THE ROMANTIC SOUNDS OF TOOTS THIELEMANS"—MGM E 4014
Backed up by a full orchestra with sweeping violins, soft reeds and piano, Toots Thielemans (a Belgian who began in America with George Shearing) solos expertly on the harmonica in this session of warhorses from some of this country's composing greats. Leading off with "Stairway To The Stars," he includes such goodies as "Love Walked In" and "A Pretty Girl Is Like A Melody." Excellent programming fare and late hours mood companion.

"DIXIELAND"—Pete Fountain—RCA Camden CAL-727
Dixieland jazz with an authentic New Orleans touch is the keynote of this top-rung LP by Pete Fountain on RCA Camden. The clarinetist joins forces with Tony Almerico (trumpeter), Jack Delaney (trombonist), Roy Zimmerman (pianist) and others to come up with some real low-down Dixie. Easy listening bands are "Darktown Strutters' Ball," "Muskrat Ramble," "12th Street Rag," and "Ballin' The Jack." Dixieland buffs and Fountains fans will like this one.

"ORGAN SOUNDS AND PERCUSSION"—Eddie Layton—Mercury PPS 6029
Too often, albums of organ music bow to the more commercial vocal and orchestral LP's because they lack the excitement and color that would make them a buyer's item. This entry by Eddie Layton on Mercury is an exception. The organist is masterful at the console and it reverberates with rhythm and melody in "Sugar Blues," "Ebbtide," and "March Of The Siamese Children." Could be a sleeper in the sales department.

"EVERYBODY'S DOIN' IT"—The Souvenirs—Reprise R-6027
A dozen contemporary rhythms are given an airing by the Souvenirs on this dance package from Reprise. In addition to the popular twist, the watusi, and the mashed potatoes, some new ones included are the roacheroo and the mop. A few rackin' tracks are "(Do) The New Continental," "The Bump," and "The Hully Gully." The disk could get sales action from the rock n' roll enthusiasts.

"SONGS OF PORTUGAL"—Os Bambinos—Request RLP 8046
This unusual offering from Request is devoted to the native melodies and rhythms of Portugal as played by Os Bambinos. The tunes are country and folk-flavored, some of them with pulse-quickening tempos that reflect a Moorish-like quality. Included are "Melodias de Portugal," "Rei Dos Corridinhos," "Ao Senhor Da Serra," and "Rabela Do Douro." LP could evoke response among folk music admirers.

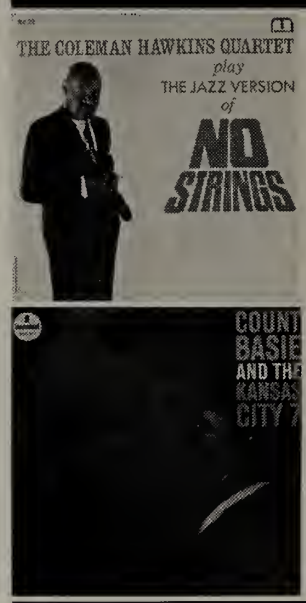
JAZZ PICKS OF THE WEEK

"GREATEST HITS"—Cannonball Adderley—Riverside 9416
The alto artistry of Cannonball Adderley has earned many laurels in the past and this new Riverside outing should win additional praise for the talented jazzman. On this set Adderley dishes up seven potent items, many of which have created pop attention. The wide appeal of the Adderley alto is evidenced in first-rate "soul" arrangements of "This Here," "Work Song" and "African Waltz." Loads of sales potential here.

"MILDRED BAILEY—HER GREATEST PERFORMANCES"—Columbia C3L 22
Mildred Bailey belonged to that select handful of artists known as "jazz singers." Her rich legacy of her recorded efforts is magnificently displayed on this special three-disk set from Columbia. The tunes cover the 1929-46 period and team the jazz lark up with the ork's of Red Norvo, Benny Goodman, Teddy Wilson and Eddie Sauter. A handsome booklet with candid photos and liners by people who knew her well is included in the package. A splendid album.

"BIRD SYMBOLS"—Charlie Parker—Charlie Parker PLP 407
The significance of Charlie Parker to the jazz world was never fully grasped during his lifetime. The Parker diskery, dedicated to the preservation of the "Bird's" sounds, has done a remarkable job in acquainting the public with the impressive efforts of the great alto saxist. This set includes sides cut when Parker was at the top of his profession and features such accomplished sideman as Miles Davis, Erroll Garner and Max Roach. Some first-rate tracks include "Moose The Mooche," "Cool Blues" and "Bird Of Paradise." A collector's item.

"JAZZ MISSION TO MOSCOW"—Various Artists—Colpix CP 433
Here's an all-star jazz package featuring such name artists, as Zoot Sims, Willoe Dennis, Phil Woods, Bill Crow and Mel Lewis in a collection of six Russian-flavored items. The crew, who accompanied Benny Goodman on his recent tour of the Soviet Union, cut this set upon their return. It is apparently why the Russians dug the U.S. jazzmen as they turn in first-rate performances of "Mission To Moscow," "Midnight In Moscow" and "Russian Lullaby." Superior listening enjoyment throughout.



"THE JAZZ VERSION OF NO STRINGS"—Coleman Hawkins—Moodsville 25
Jazz versions of Broadway musicals have become quite popular in recent years. With proper direction they can inject additional dimensions to the original tunes. On this Moodsville set Coleman Hawkins gives exactly the right touch to nine selections from Richard Rodgers' smash vehicle "No Strings." Hawkins' distinctive ballad style on the tenor sax effectively makes jazz statements of "Look No Further," "Maine" and "Be My Host." Set should score with all the artist's many admirers.

"COUNT BASIE AND THE KANSAS CITY 7"—Impulse A 15
Here's an interesting set presenting Count Basie in an off-beat small-band spotlight. The 88'er is given considerably greater freedom here to make his distinctive, personal rhythmic statements. The music is standards and Basie and crew wail effectively on "Oh, Lady Be Good," "Secrets" and "Shoe Shine Boy." One of the most impressive sets that the pianist has cut in quite a while. Disk should appeal to a host of jazzophiles.

CLASSICAL PICKS OF THE WEEK

A magnificent classical showing.

BEETHOVEN: Symphony No. 5 in C Minor, "Egmont Overture," Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra, Wilhelm Furtwangler—Deutsche Grammaphon LPM 18 724

Schooled in the German Classical-romantic tradition, interprets the composer's two immortal works with authority and a sensitivity that is felt in each movement. This memorable recording by one of the world's fine symphony orchestras merits the attention of all classical devotees.

CHICAGO:

Columbia Records introduced its new fall line to the local trade via an all day Open House, Sunday (7/29) in its local distrib's headquarters at 2240 N. Milwaukee Ave. A tremendous turnout of dealers, deejays, press, et al were on hand to view the label's powerful fall product and enjoy the event's "Show Boat" motif, complete with buffet lunch, supper—and mint julips! An added attraction for the kiddies was a well stocked Banana Split Bar. . . . Hugh Devlin, back at his Allstate Dist. post after a two week hitch with the Coast Guard Reserves, advised of stepped up activity on "Till There Was You" by Valjean (Carlton), "Do You Love Me" by new group, The Contours, (Gordy) and Johnny Crawford's "Your Nose Is Gonna Grow" (Delfi). . . . Center of excitement at Cosnat Dist. is Jubilee's recently purchased master "Under Cover Of The Night" waxed by Dave Dudley. As pointed out by Ed Walker and Paul Baio, the deck has already achieved top chart status in the Louisiana-Houston-Dallas-San Antonio areas and could go very big nationally. The boys are also mighty pleased with the sales results on "Come Back Into My Heart" by The Volumes (Chex), "Over There" by The Bobettes (Jubilee) and an item which is catching on in the juke boxes tagged "I'm Crying In My Beer" by Bobbejaan (Pallette).

Lovely Jane Darwyn, whose latest Ronko outing couples "I'm In A Daze" and "Ready To Go Steady," returns to the Playboy Club for a four weeks engagement. . . . Summit's Jack White happily notes that Peter Paul & Mary, riding high with their current WB package, have a singles sizzler in just out effort "If I Had A Hammer" (WB); and that Bobby Vinton is making his mark in the album picture with Epic LP "Roses Are Red" tagged after his smash single. . . . Glowing reports from Potter Dist. on spiritual effort "Hammer And Nails" by The Staple Singers (Riverside) and, in a more pop vein, David Thorne's "If You Should Ever Need Me" (Riverside). . . . Bob Newhart, doing a bang-up job at Mister Kelly's, could add another to his chain of album winners with latest entry "Button Down Mind On TV." . . . In last week's column the artists on the Columbia waxing of "Five Weeks In A Balloon" should have been the Brothers Four.

One of the happiest guys in Chi the past week was Smash's Charlie Fach who's celebratin' the fact that Dickey Lee's "Patches" deck, after breaking so big in Houston, is now copping "battle of sounds" honors on stations all over the country. This could be one of Smash's all time biggies. . . . Liberty Dist.'s Harvey Goldstein tops his list of sellers with Martin Denny's "Taste Of Honey," Gene McDaniels' "Point Of No Return" and Vic Dana's "To Love And Be Loved" (Dolton). Incidentally, Harv will be off the scene for a couple of weeks fulfilling his annual Army Reserve stretch.

One-derful Records' topper George Leaner, enjoying much success with his very fine workshop facilities for studio auditioning of talent and on location recording, advised that the label's current entry "The Flea" was waxed remote from a southside twistery and is really catching on with the teens. . . . Julie London is slated for an upcoming date at Mister Kelly's. . . . Big news from Big Town: Kent Beauchamp, elated over Jerry Butler's chart progress with "Make It Easy On Yourself" (Vee-Jay), is predicting much of the same for movers "The

GENE McDANIELS

FREDDIE HOUSTON

BOBBY BLAND

Birdman" by The Highwaymen (UA) and "Venus In Blue Jeans" by Jimmy Clanton on the Vee-Jay distributed Ace label. . . . Here's a first: On September 2 WSBC-FM will begin airing a Japanese language radio show, the first of its kind east of the Rockies, featuring recorded folk and classical Japanese music (8-9:00 PM Sundays). . . . Garlen's Jim Scully is racin' all over town with the new Ruth Brown offering "Mama" on the Phillips label. . . . Dorothy Donegan bows at the new Brandy Lounge of the Quid 8/1. . . . With promo man Marlie Waak of Midwest Mercury, the big deck to watch is Damita Jo's "Tennessee Waltz."

Jack Karey is being highly praised for his efforts as "commentator" of the Grant Park Concert series. . . . Ed Yalowitz of Garmisa has a slew of big ones going for him, namely, "I'm The One" by Gord Lightfoot (ABC), "Miracle' by Frankie Avalon (Chancellor), "Dance The Loco Motion" by Teddy Rendazzo and "There Goes A Girl" by Terry Noland (Apt). . . . Jack Benny helped swell Ravinia's fund to build a new stage by performing a benefit concert last weekend.

HOLLYWOOD:

A reception and testimonial dinner was held last week at the Ambassador Hotel, honoring Nat Cole on his twenty-fifth anniversary in show business. . . . Hank Levine set by Dolton Records topper, Bob Reisdorff to arrange-conduct single session for The Fleetwoods. . . . Ruth Olay currently breaking it up at Marshall Edson's Ye Little Club in Beverly Hills. . . . Pat Vegas' initial disk for Bob Bogle's Unity Records, "That Smile goes into national release on Tuesday. Flip side is "Best Girl In The World," both of which Vegas penned.

Jubilee Records releasing this week a new single by The Volumes titled "Come Back Into My Heart" on the Chex label to follow their big disking of "I Love You." . . . Los Angeles City Council has set plans to proclaim August 25 as "Gogi Grant Day" in Los Angeles. The resolution is part of Miss Grant's tenth anniversary in show business. The observance will be climaxed by the singer's appearance at the Hollywood Bowl on the same day. . . . Pianist George Greely, under pact to Warner Bros. diskery, signed by producer Harry Koplan to handle music director chores on KTTV's, "You're Never Old."

JAZZ MISSION TO MOSCOW
Various Artists—

This should be a big one for the label. The set comes hard on the heels of wide press coverage and controversy. The band is composed of musicians that toured Russia with Benny Goodman, and top flight men they are too. The album showcases the first-class soloists playing arrangements by Al Cohn that are touched with excitement and humor. Zoot Sims, Phil Woods, Willie Dennis, Markie Markowitz, Gene Allen and Eddie Costa all come in for kudos. The tunes out of the B. G. book, are refreshingly charted by Cohn: "Midnight in Moscow," "Mission to Moscow," "Let's Dance" and "Russian Lullaby" are top tracks.

Dion

Dion, who is currently riding high on the charts with "Little Diane." could have one of the biggest hits in his career as a solo performer. Previously he scored with "Runaround Sue" and "The Wanderer."

Dion's career has had many stages. Originally a single act, he was teamed with a group called the Timberlanes on the Mohawk label. Laurie then signed him and teamed him as lead singer with the Belmonts. This association produced such hits as "Teenager In Love," "I Wonder Why," "Where Or When" and "No One Knows."

When the group split, each going their separate disk ways, Dion came through as a solo with "Lonely Teenager." Later he extended his activities to include nitery work, earning plaudits for his club debut at New York's International.

He was born Dion DiMucci in The Bronx, New York, attended Theodore Roosevelt High School there and now lives with his parents and two younger sisters in Westchester County.

Eddie Hodges

Eddie Hodges' story is short in years but long in experience. Born on March 5, 1947 in Hattiesburgh, Miss., Eddie no sooner left kindergarten when he moved with his family to New York and immediately began his show biz career by winning an audition for the Jackie Gleason show. That was in 1953. Guest shots on other major TV shows followed. Then came the big break—an important role in the Meredith Willson Broadway musical, "Music Man"—which endeared the youngster to the entertainment world. After playing 405 performances (the show ran much longer), Eddie left to play Frank Sinatra's son in the film, "Hole In The Head," participating with Frank in the hit record from the film, "High Hopes." Then Eddie played "Huckleberry Finn" in the movie of that name, and then returned to Broadway in "Critic's Choice."

Cadence Records inked him last year and he quickly scored with "I'm Gonna Knock On Your Door." Currently, he is riding the charts with "(Girls, Girls, Girls) Made To Love."

Cash Box PLATTER SPINNER PATTER

An interesting development in broadcasting, which could have significant industry-wide implications came last week from the Twin City market. WMIN-St. Paul launched a new concept in radio when they dropped all music programming and began broadcasting nothing but news. The station now has a continuous all-news format from 6:00 AM to midnight. WMIN is the only station in the U.S. with an all-news format. The outlet broadcasts international, national and local news along with special on-the-spot reports from wherever the news is made.

Lin Renfrew recently interviewed chanter Gene McDaniels for an Armed Forces radio show which was aired last week. The two have been good friends since 1957 when McDaniels worked at a jazz club.

John F. Box, Jr., manager of WIL-St. Louis, announced last week that companion station WIL-FM took to the airwaves. The new facility operates with 38,000 watts of radiated power. The station is the only St. Louis FM outlet to broadcast 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Listeners to WHIH-Norfolk have a chance to win a "tropical paradise" in fact, their choice of "paradises." New audience contest will award winner a choice between a developed building lot near Florida's Gulf Coast, or a larger Ranchette investment tract near Daytona Beach. Winner will be the listener first identifying the location of mythical golden key that opens the door to the "tropical paradise." Clues to its location are broadcast hourly on the station. The contest is preluded with teaser spots billboarding the WHIH "tropical paradise," identifying it with a permanent summer of fun for station listeners.

Congrats are in order to WXYZ-Detroit's Fred Wolf who recently marked his twelfth year as the station's wake-up personality. A special anniversary program was aired in which the spinner spotlighted all the music he featured during his first year with WXYZ.

WWDC-Washington's current good will promotional campaign, known as "wonderful things happen to people who listen to WWDC," has taken a romantic twist. Last week the station played cupid by offering to pay for all marriage licenses issued throughout the greater Washington area. Only requirement was for applicants to send station a receipt, or a copy of license, or some other proof of performance. Irv Lichtenstein, WWDC veep, tried to have the court clerks bill the station direct, but the clerks said that they wouldn't go in for any "cooing and billing" system. WWDC turned down one listener who wanted to know if station would help pay for his divorce.

WGLI-New York deejay Joe Columbo is planning a summer spectacular record hop on August 17th starring Ersel Hickey, Linda Chanfer and other wax stars.

Finalist in the teen quartet talent search to be conducted by KYW-Cleveland personality Jim Stagg will be judged by Meredith Willson, creator of "The Music Man." The winning quartet will win a special audition for Warner Bros. Records. The talent search is being conducted by the station in co-operation with Warner Bros. Pictures, as part of a cross-promotion for Stagg and the soon-to-be-released flick, "The Music Man." The contest is based on the updating of the involvement of a barbershop quartet in the story. All vocal quartets composed entirely of teens (13 through 19 years of age) are eligible to participate. Each will prepare a modern presentation of a selection of their choosing from the score of the film. Entrants will be narrowed down to five for final judging by Willson.

Vet cleffer Jimmy McHugh recently guested on Paul Compton's KHJ-Hollywood one-hour interview stanza plugging his tunes and telling of his career. The spinner also spotlighted recordings penned by McHugh.

John Bennett, WNNJ-Newton, New Jersey spinner and program director, invites new performers and groups wishing to promote their records to go on one of his record hops held every Wednesday night in Lake Mohawk, N. J.

The impact of WSAI-Cincinnati on the city of Hamilton, which is 24 miles away, was very much in evidence recently when the station's "nutty nine" baseball team met the Hamilton Police Department team in a benefit game at Ford's Park. More than 7,400 people jammed the park to see the WSAI team, made up of air personalities and staff members, defeat the "law" by a score of 13-11.

Nat "King" Cole and his musical revue is coming to Salt Lake and Lagoon the first week in August. So, the wheels of promotion at KALL-Salt Lake City went to work and came up with a Nat "King" Cole day. On July 28th nothing but Cole records were played all day. The artist's LP's were given away every hour as were special reserved sets at the Lagoon concert. KALL advertised the occasion in newspapers and TV spots.

VITAL STATISTICS:

Mark Olds, formerly program manager of WNEW-New York, has been named general manager of WINS-New York. . . . Bob Brees is now spinning 'em on WINS. Another new member of the WINS staff is Clay Cole, formerly host of WNTA-TV-Newark's "Record Wagon." . . . William Paine exits the news department of WCKR-Miami to join WIP-Philadelphia in a similar spot. . . . Bill Clark given the green light as program director of WGKV-Charleston, W. Va. Clark previously held the program director chair on WTKM-Hartford. . . . Hal Raymond exits his spot as KAYO-Seattle program director to take over the program director duties on KBOX-Dallas.

New Singles Push At Columbia Leads To Staff Realignment

NEW YORK—There has been a major realignment of the singles merchandising and promotion organization at Columbia Records, according to Mort Hoffman, national sales manager.

Hoffman said that the organizational changes were part of a major program to establish the "same sales leadership in the singles market which Columbia has achieved and maintained in the LP market."

The realignment includes the assignment of additional responsibilities to W. Robert Thompson, national promotion manager of pop product; the promotion of Thomas Catalano to the newly established post of singles merchandising manager; and the promotion of David Rosner to succeed Catalano as singles product manager.

Thompson will continue to report to Hoffman, with the additional duties of liaison with national TV and radio outlets. Donald Curry, manager of radio station services, has been reassigned to report to Thompson.

As merchandising manager, Catalano will report to Hoffman for the merchandising of Columbia's singles product as well as for the development and coordination of singles trade advertising. He will also work closely with Thompson in co-ordinating the exposure of the label's large roster of major artists through all forms of national media. Catalano joined Columbia in Aug., 1961, as singles product manager after several years of promotion stints with other diskeries.

As Catalano's successor, Rosner will prepare merchandising communications to the field sales organization. He will report to Catalano and assist him in the development of special merchandising programs. Rosner joined Columbia last April under the label's management services trainee program. Previously, he had been assistant program director at WNTA radio.

Richmond Offers Its "Sound" LP's

NEW YORK—Richmond Records, the budget line division of London Records, has just marketed a regular-priced series of "persuasive stereo" albums.

Made and processed in England, the line bows with 12 LP's. They are: "Standards With A Latin Beat" by Miguelito; Ralph Kennedy's "A Big Band Goes Broadway"; Fred Hartley with "The Twin Pianos Of Fred Hartley"; "Swing Low Swing Easy" by Tony Crombie; Roger Ericson in "Disney Meets The Wizard"; Rawicz and Landuer's "Two Pianos Play Strauss"; "Ballin' The Jack" by Allen Rich; Ron Ayres in "Friendly Persuasion" Ian Fraser's "For The Young At Heart"; "Softly For Lovers" by Fela Sowande; Mark White's "5 Guitars 50 Fingers"; and "Band Concert" by Roland Shaw.

Atlantic Pacts TV's "Beaver"

NEW YORK—Jerry Mathers, star of TV's "Leave It To Beaver," has been inked to a long-term disk pact by Atlantic Records. First single by the 13-year-old performer, "Wind-Up Toy" and "Don't Cha Cry," was issued last week by the label. Mathers has played the role of "Beaver" since the show went on the air over six years ago.

Four In Nassau County Bootlegging Case Get $100 and $250 Fines

NEW YORK—Fines of $100 and $250 have been meted out to four men who pleaded guilty of being involved in disk bootlegging that police estimated was a $1 million a year profit racket.

The four plus a fifth party who pleaded innocent to bootlegging charges were arrested in May, 1961, after the now famous police raid in New York's Plaza Hotel, where the bootleggers gathered to plan the sale of counterfeit LP's taken from Command Records' product. An inspector posed as "Big Mike," a "racketeer" from Philadelphia who wanted to be in on the racket.

The men were later indicted by a Grand Jury in Nassau County. Last May, four of those arrested pleaded guilty to violating trademark laws, a misdemeanor.

The fifth, Richard L. Engel, head of Bibletone Records, who describes himself as an ordained Evangelical minister, pleaded innocent and is scheduled to go on trial sometime next month.

Fined $100 in Nassau County Court last week were Henry Arak, president of two plastics firms in Brooklyn, and Harold Zatal. Fines of $250 were levied against Norman Berman, a TV and radio productions operator, and Milton Rabuse, a real estate salesman.

The defendants faced a maximum penalty of a year in county jail and a $500 fine.

Close to passage is a Federal bill that provides criminal penalties for the manufacture of phony disks, up to 10 years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

William Cahn, Assistant District Attorney of Nassau County, directed the investigation of the Plaza Hotel case.

Mercury & Its Labels Bringing Distributors To Chicago Meet

CHICAGO—Mercury Records will host the distributors of its three labels—Mercury, Philips and Smash—at the firm's first national corporate meeting to be held here Aug. 30 and 31.

"Platform For Progress" will be the basic theme of the two-day meeting which will be held at the new Sahara Inn in suburban Schiller Park, prexy Irving Green pointed out.

"Due to vast changes in methods of marketing the basic purpose of the meeting will be to show the advantages of a solidly-built corporation and the needs for the distributor to be tuned to this type of operation," Green added.

The first morning session will be a combined meeting of Mercury, Philips and Smash distributors who will hear from Green and executive vice-president Irwin H. Steinberg. Robert Dettmer, vice-president and secretary of Consolidated Electronics Corporation, will describe the corporate structure, including the relationship with Philips' Phonographic Industries of Holland.

Other experts will deal with latest marketing views on national and industry levels and the distributor's role in these important functions. In addition, authorities in the financial area will discuss techniques to provide funds for the distributor in his new role. Also scheduled to appear are economists and experts on automation, who will outline the latest findings in their fields as they apply to record distribution.

Philips' Records will hold a meeting of its distributors on the afternoon of the first day where plans for fall will be discussed. Smash Records will host all distributors at a party that evening and will hold its distributor sales meeting the following morning. Mercury Records will hold its meeting and discussion of fall plans on the afternoon of that day.

Ambassador To Issue 75 LP's In Fall

NEW YORK—Ambassador Records (formerly Synthetic Plastics Corp.) plans to release 75 albums this fall from among its various lines.

The Peter Pan label is introducing a series of "deluxe" packaged $1.98 12" LP's presenting such TV kiddie favorites as Sonny Fox, Captain Kangaroo, Jimmy Nelson, Arnold Stang, the Magic Land of Allakazam, Deputy Dawg, Mighty Mouse, Popeye and others. Mrs. Selma Broady, A&R director of Peter Pan, will appear on 20 TV programs to promote the new line as well as the 7" disks available in either 78 or 45 rpm.

The Guest Star label will include dates by such top performers as Julie London, Sarah Vaughan, Steve Lawrence, The Platters, Jonah Jones and Billy Eckstine, while the Diplomat line also plans a heavy release.

The new Christmas line includes nine albums on the Diplomat label and 12 Peter Pan 7" disks.

S. Gordon Strenger, veep in charge of dealer sales, has just returned from a three states sales trip during which time he increased the firm's road sales force to 12 men.

A national sales meet was set in New York last week (3, 4) to kick-off the new fall and winter program. A sales-ad-promotion and publicity campaign is skedded to go into effect within the next 30 days.

Ralph Gould, veep in charge of special sales, jobber and distributor programs, has national jobber meetings planned during this month.

In a further development, Ira L. Moss, exec veep of the firm, announced that a west coast warehouse and offices have been set up in Los Angeles under the direction of Fred Levi, formerly national field sales head down south.

Granahan Gets Full Control Of Caprice

NEW YORK—Gerry Granahan, president of Caprice Records, has acquired full ownership of the label in an agreement with Neil Galligan and Hutch Davie.

Granahan will be sole owner and head of the label from now on and will retain Janie Grant and The Angels, while Galligan and Davie get James Ray for their Congress label.

Granahan said he will announce his new base of operations in the near future. No financial terms were revealed.

Caprice was formed a year and a half ago, and since that time has received chart action with such dates as James Ray's "If You Gotta Make A Fool Of Somebody" and "Itty Bitty Pieces" and "Till" and "Cry Baby, Cry" by The Angels and Janie Grant's "Triangle." Label also has LP product by Ray and The Angels.

Tony Bennett Stays At Columbia

NEW YORK—Tony Bennett will cut for Columbia Records under a new exclusive disk pact, according to an announcement last week by Goddard Lieberson, president of the label.

The announcement put an end to persistent rumors that the star songster would affiliate himself with a new label after more than a decade with Columbia.

Though details on the new pact were unavailable, it's believed that it runs a good number of years.

Bennett first gained disk prominence back in 1951 when he cut "Boulevard of Broken Dreams," a recording of a demo that had prompted Mitch Miller to sign the performer the year before.

Many singles and LP hits since that time have established Bennett as a solid draw in other fields, such as niteries, concerts and TV.

This month, Columbia will release a 2-LP set of his recent "Tony Bennett at Carnegie Hall" date. Since the Carnegie engagement, Bennett has repeated his concert before audiences throughout the country, including performances at the Hollywood Bowl in Los Angeles and the Forest Hills Stadium in Forest Hills, L.I. He will return to Carnegie Hall on Nov. 23.

See New Kapp LP's Leading To Top Fall Push

NEW YORK—Returning to New York last week after a visit to distribs on behalf of the label's Aug. LP release, Kapp Records' sales head Phil Skaff reported that reception to the nine new LP's marketed by the label was "the strongest and most accepted fall program in our history."

Skaff noted that "because of the program's strength and concept, the proposed goal was personally increased by each distributor."

The new albums—listed in the July 28 issue of Cash Box—consist of dates by Roger Williams, Kenny Ball, Jack Jones, Robertino, Freddy Martin, Pete King Orchestra & Chorale, The Temperance Seven, Vardi & His Orchestra and Roger Voisin.

One-Stop Execs Set Chicago Meet For Association Plans

NEW YORK—The first formal gathering of one-stop operators to form what will be tagged the One Stop Organization has been set for Chicago's Palmer House on Aug. 30, 31 and Sept. 1.

For the past several months, the drive to organize one-stop operators, led by Irv Perlman of I. J. Morgan Co. of Philadelphia, has been conducted by phone and through the mails. The Chicago meet will bring face-to-face about 35 one-stop operators, Perlman estimates.

Highlighting the gathering will be the election of officers. Each day will see panel discussions, designed to lay the groundwork for the association's by-laws and other organizational matters.

The first meeting will be held Thurs. (30), from 2 to 5 PM; the Fri. (31) meeting will be conducted at the same time, while the Sat. (1) meet is set for 9 AM to 12 noon.

Perlman said that rooms at the Palmer House have been reserved for the group at the rate of $20 a day for a double room. Those wishing to attend should send a check for $20 made payable to Globe Travel Agency to Perlman at I. J. Morgan Co., 511 N. Broad St., Philadelphia 23, so that Perlman can make personal reservations.

DG Sets 13 LP's For Aug. Release

NEW YORK—The Aug. release from Deutsche Grammophon, distributed by the classical division of MGM Records, consists of six new yellow label items and seven "Archive Production" albums. This is the first "Archive" release since MGM assumed the distributorship of Deutsche Grammophon product in April.

The "lead" item on the release is the first complete recording in stereo of Verdi's 'Don Carlos." The recording was made in cooperation with La Scala, Milan. The cast is headed by Antonietta Stella, Boris Christoff, Flaviano Labo and Attore Bastianini all of whom have had long associations with the roles they portray in this recording. Gabriele Santini conducts.

Shortly before the Berlin Wall went up Von Karajan and The Berlin Philharmonic moved into Christ Church in Dahlem, West Berlin to record an emotionally taut performance of the "Mozart Requiem." The Berlin Philharmonic also figures in a recording of "Beethoven's Fifth Symphony" conducted by Ferenc Fricsay which is available this month. Fricsay in company with Wolfgang Schneiderhan, Janos Starker, and the Berlin Radio Symphony perform the "Brahms Double Concerto"; Another LP is "Oratorio Arias" sung by Maria Stader and accompanied by the Munich Bach Orchestra, Karl Richter conducting. Last LP is three "Beethoven Piano Sonatas" performed by Andor Foldes.

Of the seven records on the August "Archive Production" release, three consist of music of J. S. Bach; one record each of Telemann, Palestrina and J. G. Goldberg; and the last a collection of French music from the 17th and 18th centuries. This is the first recording of any of the music of J. G. Goldberg who was immortalized by Bach when he dedicated his great variations to him, (e.g. The Goldberg Variations).

Sam Fox Buys BMI Firm; Reactivates Gallant Label

NEW YORK—Sam Fox Publishing, one of the oldest ASCAP pubbery firms, has become affiliated with BMI for the first time through the acquisition of Palisades Music.

The BMI firm is headed by Mahlon Merrick, cleffer and musical director of the Jack Benny Show, who has written background music for such top TV'ers as "The Donna Reed Show," "The Untouchables," "Checkmate," "Dragnet," "The Real McCoys," "The Robert Cummings Show" and many others. He has also written many solo pieces.

Merrick's compositions will be incorporated into the international Sam Fox Film Rights Library of Recorded Background Music and will be made available for theatrical, non-theatrical, radio and additional TV productions.

New writers will be sought for Palisades under the direction of Merrick himself, who will be on the lookout for such talent through his activities in schools, workshops, clinics and guest conducting appearances.

Sam Fox Publishing and its subsidiary, Sam Fox Film Rights have been providing background music for motion pictures, radio and TV and educational purposes for over 50 years. ASCAP copyrights will continue as heretofore.

News of Fox's BMI acquisition was annouced at a press conference last week (2) at the firm's New York offices, where it was also learned that Fox's Gallant label is being reactivated with album and singles releases scheduled for this month.

Mathews, recently national promotion director and A&R director of United Artists Records and its affiliate, Musicor, has been directed to strengthen and change Laurie's distribution where necessary and to initiate new promotion and programming activities.

Before joining UA, Mathews was associated with James H. Martin Distributors in Chicago and Mercury Records as artist relations manager and national promotion director for Wing Records, Mercury's low-priced LP line.

Included in the Laurie operation are the Rust and LeGrande labels. Laurie's current hit is Dion's "Little Diane," number 16 on this week's Top 100.

"Stop The World . . ." Kicks-Off New Show Season For Disks

NEW YORK—A hit London revue, "Stop The World I Want To Get Off," set for a bow on Broadway this fall, has initiated in a big way disk coverage of scores from the new crop of shows due next season.

First off, London Records—which has the original-cast LP—has released seven singles from the show's songs—co-authored by the production's star, writer and director, Anthony Newley—so far. They include four singles carrying the London tag itself, and three from the London-handled Felsted and Tarheel labels.

Newley warbles "What Kind Of Fool Am I" and "Gonna Build A Mountain" while Georgia Brown, star of another London hit, "Oliver," also being introduced this year to American audiences with the thrush repeating her role, sings "Gonna Build A Mountain" in vocal versions from London. London also has two instrumental singles of "Stop The World . ." melodies. They are Mantovani's "What Kind Of Fool Am I" and "Someone Nice Likes You" and pianist-maestro Ronnie Aldrich's "Once In A Lifetime" and "What Kind Of Fool Am I."

Two Felsted releases are: pianist Bert Farber's "Once In A Lifetime" and "What Kind Of Fool Am I" and The Cordials' vocal of "Once In A Lifetime" and "What Kind Of Fool Am I."

Other labels that have released "Stop The World . . ." material include Mercury with Bill Eckstine's reading of "What Kind Of Fool Am I," Reprise with Sammy Davis Jr.'s warble of the same tune, also done by Robert Goulet on Columbia, and Jubilee with Billy Daniels' vocal on "Gonna Build A Mountain."

5 Philips Albums Get Special Aug. Discount

NEW YORK—Philips Records is offering a 10% discount on five of its top-selling LP's in a special Aug. program tagged "Take 5." Included in the plan are: "Country Guitar" by the Cotton Pickers, "Along Comes Ruth," Ruth Brown, "Stowaway In The Sky," soundtrack from the French flick, "The Most Beautiful German Children's Songs" and "Sing Low, Sweet Clarinet," Woody Herman.

According to Lou Simon, sales manager, a re-emphasis is being made on merchandising of the albums through the use of additional point-of-purchase materials, ads and publicity.

NEW YORK—Raymond V. Pepe, president of the Institute Of High Fidelity Manufacturers, has announced that negotiations are underway to have the world's first "stereothon" take place at the 7th annual New York High Fidelity Music Show, Oct. 2-6.

They will include demonstrations by noted home decorators showing how hifi components can be used in furnishing typical rooms; a new line of "High Fidelity Fashions for Women" and clinics on how to assemble hifi components.

The manufacturers will display several million dollars worth of new hifi components.

The Institute predicts record attendance of more than 30,000 persons for the October show. The theme of the show will be "A New Dimension In Sound—FM Stereo."

New ASCAP Pubbery In Tannen Set-Up

NEW YORK—Natson Music, an ASCAP pubbery, has been formed here by Paul Tannen.

New firm is the only ASCAP firm in the Tannen set-up, which also includes Tannen Music, Ridge Music and Tanridge Music, all BMI firms. According to Tannen, Natson's catalog will be varied, covering pop, country and showtunes.

Additionally, Tannen said that he was on the lookout for writers who clear through either BMI or ASCAP.

Paul Tannen took over the operation of Tannen Music—which has one of the top country catalogs—after his dad, vet music man Nat Tannen, died in March, 1962.

Tanridge Music, formed last Jan., is currently hot with Johnny Tillotson's smash on Cadence, "It Keeps Right On A-Hurtin'."

All Tannen firms are located at 146 W. 54th St.

Delayed Inking Session

NASHVILLE—The Wilburn Brothers, who are currently pulling plenty of coin with their dual-market Decca click of "Trouble's Back In Town," recently signed an exclusive booking contract with the Wil-Helm Agency, this city. Inking new artists is not an unusual thing for the growing Music City talent stable but this particular case made it a little bit different. The Wilburns and Don Helms formed the agency primarily to handle their own booking but never got around to signing a contract themselves. With the success of "Trouble" everybody decided that it was about time to get the boys' names on the dotted line. Shown above (left to right) at the ceremonies are Bob Neal, Doyle Wilburn, Joe Taylor, Teddy Wilburn and Don Helms.

Victor Arden Dies

NEW YORK—Victor Arden, a top orchestra leader and pianist in many entertainment media, including disks, during the 20's, 30's and 40's, died here last week (31) at the age of 69.

Arden, whose real name was Lewis J. Fuilks, cut for such labels as Victor, Brunswick, Vocalion and Okeh.

With Phil Ohman, he formed a duo-piano act that performed in some of the most successful musicals of the 20's, including many by the Gershwin Bros., and was featured in the Roxy Theatre broadcasts.

He also conducted many radio shows, made movie shorts in the 30's and 40's and wrote arrangements for hundreds of player-piano rolls.

A wife and two sons survive.

Kapp "Reflects" Sunshine

NEW YORK—The newly formed merchandising division of Kapp Records has come up with a sales promotion idea which features a novelty LP bag and sun reflector. The bag, designed to hold six LP's, can be used as a sun reflector when opened.

The "reflector" is being shipped in quantity free to all Kapp distributors.

E.M.I.

VIEWS WORLD PROSPECTS FAVORABLY

The twelve months that have elapsed since the last issue of "The Cash Box" annual directory have been a year of continued progress for Electric & Musical Industries Limited (E.M.I.). Total Group turnover is expected once again to be up to the quarter-billion dollar mark. Records still represent a very big share of this though much of it comes from E.M.I.'s activities in the electronics and domestic appliances fields.

In a recent interview, E.M.I. executives disclosed that, world wide, E.M.I.'s sales of records for the year July 1961—June 1962 look like showing a satisfactory advance over the year 1960/61. In view of troubled conditions in many overseas territories, this continued over-all improvement is regarded as very satisfactory.

E.M.I.'s position has been exceptionally strong in Britain—on the official Government statistics for January/March 1962, the total U.K. industry showed an improvement of 10% over the previous year while, for the same period, E.M.I.'s sales increased by considerably more. For further details about E.M.I.'s U.K. record business, please see the separate article in this issue.

Other important territories where results have shown an exceptionally good improvement over the previous year's trading include Australia, New Zealand, Spain, France, India, Greece, and Chile. In certain other markets, the record business generally has taken a knock—usually because of the temporary set-back that occurs as television really gets into its stride. One such country is Sweden, but even there, E.M.I. has been able to show a considerable increase in its share of the market and from the latest official statistical information available for 1962, the E.M.I. company was holding a bigger share of the market than at any time in the past.

E.M.I. continues to expand by the establishment of its own manufacturing subsidiaries. The latest addition to the family is a company in Nigeria, with its own record plant and recording facilities. Headed by Mr. E. F. Wyngaard, it is expected that this new production centre will prove a very useful base for expanding sales in the newly created African States generally.

Another area where a considerable change in organisation has taken place is the Far East. E.M.I. have been building up very considerably the activities of their Hong Kong branch, which has taken over many of the functions handled previously by the branch in Singapore. The Hong Kong centre co-ordinates supplies from a variety of sources, particularly India, Australia, and the U.K., as well as direct from America, to distributors in Malaya, Singapore, Borneo, the Philippines and various other South East Asian countries.

On the continent of Europe, record business generally has continued to be very good indeed, to a large extent because of the general prosperity and the beneficial effects of the Common Market on the countries forming that Group. The interchange of finished product in the record field is increasing rapidly throughout the Common Market area and when this association is extended by the inclusion of Britain and the other European countries who are not yet members, this trend is likely to be intensified. Needless to say, the development presents many problems, and E.M.I. have appointed Mr. Roger Degoy, formerly head of their Italian company, to study and co-ordinate policy on Common Market questions (the top post in "Voce del Padrone," the Milan affiliate, has been taken over by Mr. Francois Minchin, well known to many American record men from his long association with Pathe Marconi in France).

American readers of "Cash Box" will be particularly interested to know how these various developments are going to affect the American record industry. One thing seems fairly certain: in Europe, with rapidly increasing interchange of product and movement of population from one country to another, the European recorded material is gaining ground at the expense, to some extent, of American pop product. This is not surprising, as more and more European musicians and performers generally are continually moving around and getting exposure through personal appearances, both live and on T.V. To some extent, the same tendency can be seen in certain overseas markets such as Australia, New Zealand and Latin America, and is attributed in those areas to the spread of T.V. which favours local performers.

This trend should not be interpreted as implying any catastrophic decline in the interest for American pop material. The enormous success enjoyed by "The Twist" is ample proof of this—backed up by highly successful personal appearances of Chubby Checker, it has swept like wild fire through many countries—but even so, some of the big selling twist recordings have been of European origin, in particular those made by Richard Anthony in France, and as regards American pop material generally, the public has undoubtedly been growing increasingly selective. The American recording which has appeal can still sell a million copies in Europe—but the run of the mill rock and roll or ballad recording is not going to make a fortune for anyone in Europe even though it may have achieved high ratings in the American charts.

Thanks to its world wide organisation, E.M.I. is in a particularly favourable position for keeping its finger on the pulse of the demand for American repertoire. The main American line handled by the E.M.I. companies is of course Capitol. E.M.I. companies are also handling Liberty in all important territories outside the U.S.A. and Canada. They are also distributing M.G.M. in a wide range of countries. In addition, the Group companies distribute many other American recordings, hitherto mainly under the E.M.I. trademarks "His Master's Voice," "Columbia," "Parlophone," "Odeon," Electrola," etc. However, to bring about a closer association in the mind of the purchasers with American material, the E.M.I. companies are now pressing much of this material on a newly-created Group label "Stateside" which has already been launched in England and is in the process of introduction in all other major markets.

Organisationally, the E.M.I. record business has not undergone any striking changes over the past year. Sir Joseph Lockwood, as Chairman of the parent company, E.M.I. Ltd., continues to direct the activities of the Group as a whole, seconded by Richard Dawes as head of the Records and International Division. Supervision of E.M.I.'s overseas subsidiaries outside the U.K. is now in the hands of Geoffrey Bridge as head of the Overseas Division, to whom the managers of the various overseas companies are responsible (his predecessor in the post, Graham Hurst, has moved on to a top executive post with Morphy-Richards, E.M.I.'s company in the household appliances field). Contact with the American record industry is maintained on the English side by Leonard G. Wood, managing director of E.M.I. Records Ltd., and on the international side by Peter Gardiner-Hill, head of the International Commercial and Repertoire Department, seconded for the pop repertoire by George Alexander.

The year ended June 30th 1962 was the biggest ever in the history of E.M.I. Records Limited.

During the year E.M.I. averaged over 40% of the Top Twenty Pop Charts, over 80% of the Top Ten E.P. Charts and almost 50% of the L.P. Charts.

In the "New Musical Express" poll for 1961 E.M.I. won 10 out of a possible 16 first positions and a total of 28 out of 49 of the top 3 positions.

In the "Melody Maker" poll for 1961 E.M.I. obtained 9 out of a possible 10 first positions and out of a possible 30 top three positions E.M.I. won 22.

In February 1962 The Gramophone Record Retailers' Association sponsored jointly with "Record Retailer" an award scheme for various classes of records. There were a total of 15 awards, of which E.M.I. won 9. A special award was made for the best promotion of the year and this was also given to E.M.I. Records Limited. A further special award was made to the most promising newcomer of the year and this went to Columbia's popular young singer Helen Shapiro.

E.M.I. were also fortunate in winning an Ivor Novello Award for the top selling British "A" side with their record of "Walkin' Back To Happiness" by Helen Shapiro.

During the year three Columbia artistes were awarded Gold Discs for sales exceeding one million copies—these were Cliff Richard for "The Young Ones," Acker Bilk for his single of "Stranger On The Shore" and The Shadows for their record of "Apache."

At the time of writing (May 1962) E.M.I. has been awarded 15 Silver Discs for sales exceeding a quarter of a million. This is higher than any other company's achievements in the year.

During the year under review 2 Silver L.P.'s were awarded to E.M.I. artistes for album sales exceeding a quarter of a million. These were to Cliff Richard and to George Mitchell's Black and White Minstrels.

In January 1962 Mr. Acker Bilk with his "Stranger On The Shore" was the first traditional jazz musician to win a Silver Disc for 250,000 sales in the history of the U.K. Charts.

Since July 1961 E.M.I.R.'s unit sales of 45 r.p.m. Singles have increased by almost one-fifth. Album sales have continued to enjoy the steady growth percentage of the past years. The strong repertoire of Capitol Records Inc. continues to secure a high percentage of E.M.I. Records Limited total album sales. Amongst the best selling Capitol albums are such favourites as "Carousel," "The King And I," "Oklahoma."

One of E.M.I. Records Limited greatest strengths is in its Radio Luxembourg shows. Radio Luxembourg is a commercial radio station which is widely heard in the U.K. E.M.I. Records Limited sponsor 17 programmes each week with a total air-time of 9 hours. This is an increase of 2 hours over 1960/61 and it is planned that a further 4 programmes will be taken within the next few weeks bringing the total air-time up to 10¼ hours. E.M.I.R. employ many of Britain's top disc jockeys and are achieving ever increasing listening figures. Many of their shows attract audiences of over two million. David Jacobs, who is an E.M.I.R. disc jockey, was awarded the Top Disc Jockey position in the "Melody Maker" and "New Musical Express" Awards this year.

The "Monday Spectacular" which was introduced last year has proved so successful that it has now been shifted to a peak time on Friday evenings and consists of an hour long show recorded live before a teenage audience. The majority of Britain's top recording stars contracted to E.M.I.R. make regular appearances on this show and many American visiting artistes have appeared on the show during the year.

The popularity of traditional jazz reached a new peak during the year under review and E.M.I.R. introduced a new show on Radio Luxembourg called "Trad Club." With the fantastic success of the Twist the show has now been changed to the "Twist And Trad Club." This is again a live show recorded before a twisting teenage audience at E.M.I.'s headquarters in London's Manchester Square.

During the year E.M.I.'s vast Exploitation Department was increased by two additional exploitation men and the British and American repertoires were split to enable greater concentration to be given to each of these two important sectors of E.M.I.R.'s business.

There can be no doubt that E.M.I.R.'s Promotion Department is still head and shoulders above all other companies' promotion departments in the U.K., employing many people who have close personal links with the entertainment industry—thus ensuring that E.M.I.R.'s records receive maximum radio, television and press exploitation.

The combined circulation of E.M.I.R.'s two monthly newspapers—"Record Mail" for pop repertoire and "Record Times" for classical repertoire—now exceeds 225,000.

On June 15th E.M.I. sponsored a new monthly magazine devoted entirely to jazz records. "Jazz Scene" is not an obvious advertising medium; it is edited independently by well-known jazz personality Peter Leslie. This paper consists of 32 pages and retails at 1/6d. E.M.I. feels that there is a very large untapped market for jazz in the U.K.

Exploitation and promotional "stunts" are one of the specialities of E.M.I.'s General Promotion Manager. During the year tie-ups were arranged with Interflora to promote "Say It With Flowers"; a camel was imported from the zoo for "Sahara" by The Temperance Seven and created quite a stir when it ambled through London's sedate Manchester Square; the Arthur Murray Dance School cooperated with E.M.I.R. to promote the Joe Loss record of "Twistin' The Mood" by providing all purchasers of the record with a free 5 guinea voucher to help customers to perfect the "Twist." E.M.I.'s full facilities were made available to the Rank Organisation to assist them to produce a film in their "Look At Life" series featuring Helen Shapiro singing "Walkin' Back To Happiness." This film was made in the E.M.I. Studios and at the Hayes factory. Some shots were filmed in the H.M.V. Retail Store in Oxford Street, London. The film traces the progress of a hit record from the recording session until the record is actually on sale in the retail shops.

In August 1961 a new label——"ENCORE"—was launched by E.M.I.R. to sell at the low price of 23/3d. for a 12" L.P. This series consists of re-issues of deleted material and includes a number of 'pop' artistes as well as certain classical repertoire. This was E.M.I.'s first venture into the low priced 'pop' L.P. market.

In October 1961 Mr. L. G. Wood, E.M.I.R.'s Managing Director, signed a long term contract with Liberty Records for the exclusive distribution of Liberty through the E.M.I.R. Organisation in most parts of the world excluding North America. A launching party was held and was attended by Bobby Vee together with top Executives of Liberty who flew to England specially for this important occasion. This was the first time that Liberty records had been on sale in the U.K. under their own trade mark.

In November 1961 E.M.I.R. signed a contract with Laurie Records.

In May 1962 E.M.I. made a deal with C.B.S. for E.M.I.R. to handle the "Epic" and "Okeh" repertoire in the U.K. and certain other territories.

The E.M.I.R. contract with the Rank Organisation which was signed in September 1960 came to an end on 30th April 1962. After that date no further Top Rank records were issued in the U.K. but manufacture of the existing repertoire continues for a further period.

In June 1962 a new label was launched on the British market by E.M.I. The label features non-classical repertoire primarily from the United States and is being heavily promoted under the new trade mark of "Stateside." The repertoire is drawn primarily from the many independent manufacturers in the U.S.A.

An era closed in March 1962 when E.M.I.R. finally decided to bury the 78 r.p.m. record. No further 78s are now being manufactured in the U.K. by E.M.I.

With almost one and a half million domestic tape recorders now in the homes of the British population E.M.I.R. decided to enter the 3¾ i.p.s. twin track mono tape record market. On June 15th they launched their first release of 18 tapes primarily of a 'pop' nature and including many of the proved disc best sellers emanating from the U.K. and from American labels. So far E.M.I.R. is the only major manufacturer to enter the recorded tape field. In 1954 they introduced the first twin track mono tape records at 7½ i.p.s. and in 1955 the U.K. heard stereo reproduction for the first time from E.M.I. 7½ i.p.s. stereo tapes which have proved steady sellers over the years.

E.M.I.'s reputation of supplying more point of sale material for dealers than any other company has been maintained during the year and a continuous flow of window displays, counter units, posters and other printed matter has been sent to dealers throughout the country.

Whilst the Company has over 60 years' experience of the record business in the U.K., its executive team is young in years accounting for the unbounded enthusiasm which results in a permanent place for E.M.I. Records Limited in the forefront of U.K. record companies.

England – The Past Twelve Months

Another highly successful and satisfying year for the British recording industry. Board of Trade figures show that both production and sales of disks at all speeds have increased, apart from 78 rpm records which are now virtually extinct. The slight but welcome purchase tax concessions contained in the April budget were at least a long awaited fillip to an industry whose expansion to its full sales potential is still inhibited by the punitive level of purchase tax which, at 45% although the lowest for many years, is still the highest on the continent of Europe.

Sales-wise the statistical spotlight of the past twelve months has been firmly focused on the LP where the greatest progress has been made. Rapidly gaining in popularity with all age groups, including the teenagers who still account for the major proportion of the singles market, there are signs that the album may one day dominate the selling scene in Britain as it already does in the States. Meantime however, single sales, up on last year, remain satisfactorily stable. EPs, too, sold in high quantities but a slackening in releases at this speed has been noticed in recent months and it seems likely that the EP is destined to play a very minor role in the disk business of the future.

The sales volume enjoyed by a chart topping single today is considerably lower than a few years ago. In the middle 50s (when 78 rpm's held sway) half a million was commonplace. Now, with EPs and LPs shaping the market, figures are lower. Today, with the exception of Elvis Presley and Cliff Richard, 100,000 plus, speedily notched up in one or two weeks, can take a disk to the top. By the same token 60,000 can make the Top 10 and it is possible to wag the tail with 15,000. Many disks which inhabit the lower regions of the charts without ever scaling the heights can, over a long period, achieve a very healthy volume of sales. Undoubtedly, the very excellent range of low priced LPs now issued by the major manufacturers has played an important part in stimulating album interest particularly in the classical field. LPs by 'pop' artistes are not generally the biggest sellers—again except for Presley and Richard. Show and film music LPs however, both enjoy high sales and chart status over long periods.

Despite a slight increase in stereo sales, particularly in the operatic field, progress generally continues to be slow and somewhat disappointing, mainly due to the high pricing of equipment and disks enforced by the amount of purchase tax levied. The biggest stereo boost came from Decca with the introduction, earlier this year, of Phase 4—the revolutionary four-track stereo recordings developed and perfected in London under the guidance of American A&R engineers first released in the States on London and earlier this year on Decca.

The increasing number of British artistes achieving chart success not only in this country, but on the continent and in America, first evidenced in 1960 has been maintained. British chart honours have been shared by the major companies notably from EMI with Cliff Richard, The Shadows, Acker Bilk, Matt Monro, Helen Shapiro whilst artistes like Billy Fury, Karl Denver, Anthony Newley and Eden Kane kept the Decca label constantly in the Top 10. Philips were represented by Frankie Vaughan and Cleo Laine while Pye further enhanced their chart reputation with a string of hits from established stars Lonnie Donegan, Kenny Ball, Petula Clark and are currently riding high with newcomer Jimmy Justice. Of these Kenny Ball, Acker Bilk and Lonnie Donegan have not only registered a high sales impact in the States but have emerged victorious with Gold disks for their transatlantic successes "Midnight In Moscow" (Kenny Ball); "Stranger On The Shore" (Acker Bilk) and "Does Your Chewing Gum Lose Its Flavour" (Lonnie Donegan) who, incidentally, also received a second Gold disk for "Rock Island Line"—a number he recorded whilst under contract to Decca several years ago.

Another British artiste to collect his second Gold disk was Cliff Richard —Britain's nearest equivalent in sales force to the phenomenal Elvis Presley—for "The Young Ones"; his accompanying group The Shadows, now equally famous in their own right collected their first Gold disk for "Apache" as did The Allisons for their own composition "Are You Sure" with which they tasted fame and fortune in 1961. Sir Joseph Lockwood, Chairman of EMI and Sir Edward Lewis, Chairman of Decca made special Gold disk awards to violinist Yehudi Menuhin and bandleader Stanley Black for LP sales exceeding 1,000,000. That there were Silver disks among the Gold is evidenced by the fact that in the last 12 months a total of 34 awards were made for sales exceeding 250,000—20 to British artistes and 14 to American. It is interesting to note that since the magazine Disc" introduced this award three years ago a total of 100 presentations have been made. Of these 55 have been won by British artistes.

Several artistes have made spectacular progress in the last twelve months. Of these Billy Fury (Decca), Frank Ifield (Parlophone), Joe Brown (Piccadilly) although by no means new to the disk scene have had to wait until now before achieving the chart rating they deserve. Having established himself with "Halfway To Paradise" the name of Billy Fury became a regular feature of the British charts; Frank Ifield is currently enjoying his first major success with "I Remember You" whilst Joe Brown hit the No. 1 spot with "Picture Of You." Topping the list of artistes to 'arrive' in 1962 is Helen Shapiro. This phenomenal teenage wonder has achieved international status and is in demand throughout the world. Helen has done for the beat in 1962 what Matt Monro did for the ballad in 1961. Both artistes have given the industry a welcome shot in the arm. Danny Williams sang his way into the limelight with the ballad "Moon River" and success was assured with his follow-up "Jeannie." Two newcomers made the charts at their first attempt and with comedy disks. Bernard Cribbins with "A Hole In The Ground" and Mike Sarne who went to No. 1 with "Come Outside" both on Parlophone.

Other artistes worthy of special mention are Jimmy Justice for his recordings of "When My Little Girl Is Smiling" and "Ain't That Funny" on Pye and Karl Denver who yodelled his way into the charts with "Wimoweh" and "Never Goodbye" on Decca. "Never Goodbye" was first aired in the British heats of the Eurovision Song Contest and although unplaced was the only number to subsequently make the Top 20.

The value placed on the British market by stateside stars became obvious during the year by the number of working visitors to these shores. Nation wide tours were undertaken by Johnny Burnette, U.S. Bonds, Gene McDaniels, Bobby Vee, Clarence 'Frogman' Henry, Bruce Channel, Jerry Lee Lewis and Nelson Riddle and many stars came across for major TV shows including Jo Stafford, Bing Crosby, Peggy Lee, Dorothy Provine, Jimmy Dean, Bobby Rydell, Neil Sedaka, Brenda Lee etc. Frank Sinatra's June concerts in London which climaxed his international charity tour created tremendous public interest and the demand for tickets far exceeded the supply.

Craze wise it has been a year of twist and of trad jazz. At first it looked as if the twist would slip more disks than it would sell and flop in the same way as its predecessor the Madison had done. But Chubby Checker's disks aided by personal appearances and promotional gimmicks in the national press started off a twisting snowball which is rolling still. The fad has not produced any new British stars and although a formidable flood of twist disks of all kinds and speeds gushed on to the market Chubby Checker and Sam Cooke have been the only ones to score substantially. The craze has, however, provoked a lot of activity in dance halls and ballrooms which has not been limited to the teenage generation.

Trad jazz—a music midway between the Stateside New Orleans and Dixieland styles had a bumper year spearheaded on disks and on tour by the bands of Acker Bilk, Kenny Ball, Dick Charlesworth, Terry Lightfoot, Alex Welsh and others. Indisputably Mr. Acker Bilk and Kenny Ball are the two exponents most deserving credit for the transatlantic chart success of trad jazz. First to climb the American Top 100 was Kenny Ball with "Midnight In Moscow" reaching the No. 2 position. A few weeks later Mr. Acker Bilk with "Stranger On The Shore" became the first British artiste of the decade to reach the No. 1 slot.

There was a considerable amount of label activity and changeover during the year between record companies. United Artists and Liberty Records passed from Decca to EMI where the UA repertoire now appears on HMV and Liberty material is marketed on its own label within the EMI organisation. Officially launched in February by the company's President Al Bennett the label is currently enjoying two chart entries with Bobby Vee's "Sharing You" and "Don't Ever Change" by The Crickets. EMI also took on the Epic and Okeh labels for issue on Columbia. Following the expiry of the contract between EMI Records Ltd. and the Rank Organisation the Top Rank label has now ceased to function and certain of the label's stars such as Dion, The Shirelles and local talent including Bert Weedon and John Leyton have transferred their activities to the HMV label. EMI Records also inaugurated the Stateside label to handle repertoire flowing from their tie ups with smaller American independents and similarly Decca started an international series called London-Globe as an outley for repertoire, both pop and classical, from their associates overseas. During the year Decca also renewed their contract with Dot Records released here on the London label. Another innovation of the Decca year was the formation of a new production team headed by A&R Manager Dick Rowe to handle the company's pop singles output.

Perhaps the most momentous change of the year has taken place within the Philips organisation. Following the merger earlier in the year between Philips and Mercury the Philips label was introduced to the American market. Three months after renewing their association with Columbia Records. Inc. plans were completed for the launching of the CBS label and Great Britain became the first European territory to handle CBS, chart success came early with Dave Brubeck's "Unsquare Dance" and Eydie Gorme's "Yes, My Darling Daughter." The next Philips move was the acquisition of Interdisc's American labels for distribution hree on Fontana. The fact that both CBS and Interdisc are distributed solely by Philips highlights the growing association between major labels and the wholesale trade. EMI, Decca and Philips have their own wholesale outlets whilst Pye also maintain a system of direct distribution to the trade. This linking of disk manufacturers with the main wholesale factors might well lead to the eventual introduction of the American method of rack jobbing in this country so far as our smaller independents are concerned.

Another American trend gaining favour with certain manufacturers here is the marketing and promotional tie up between disks and non allied products.

During the year under review, EMI, Decca and Philips have all introduced new series of low priced LPs. First came EMI's Encore—devoted to recordings both classical and popular by international artistes which have been deleted from the catalogues for at least a year. A few months later came Decca's Ace Of Hearts—comprising material from the U.S. Decca catalogue previously issued here on Brunswick. Philips contribution was the launching of the B.I.G. series of popular and classical recordings. Meantime Pye's Golden Guinea low priced LP series celebrates its third anniversary and on one of his visits to America London Manager, Louis Benjamin, presented Dave Miller of Somerset Records with a Gold disk to mark over 1,000,000 Golden Guinea sales. The crowning achievement in a year of accelerated progress for Pye was the acquisition last autumn of Sinatra's Reprise label. The company also launched three new domestic labels—Pfe-Plus Nonesuch spoken word recordings; Pye-Jazz with material drawn from American and England and Piccadilly, for the promotion of British artistes.

The seeds of Oriole's large scale expansion programme were sown with the appointment of John Schroeder as A&R singles manager leaving Reg Warburton, now in his fourth year with the company, to supervise LP production. Schroeder, formerly with EMI and closely associated with the success of Helen Shapiro, quickly got to work with a well sustained campaign of singles. Further expansion followed with releases from the American Time Catalogue on the new Time-Oriole label.

Among the new independents Leomark made a notable impression on the market with their first LP release of The New English Bible—New Testament nominated "The Best Spoken Word Recording of 1961." Produced under licence from the Oxford and Cambridge University Presses the recordings feature the voices of some of this country's leading actors and actresses; and are available in Eire, Australia, Tasmania, Malaya, Korea, Japan, Africa, India, The West Indies, Central America and Europe. Contracts have just been signed for their release in the U.S. and Canada on Columbia, South Africa (Gallo) and New Zealand (Delta).

Delyse, as well as enjoying continued success both at home at overseas with their "London" record further enhanced their reputation with a concert of Welsh Songs LP. They also entered the childrens market with "The Railway Engine" and "The Chestnut Man" EP series narrated by Johnny Morris. Philharmonic Records, specialists in classical recordings, completed new distribution deals in France, Sweden, Holland, Belgium and America. Recordings of authentic 18th century military band music were also added to their ever growing catalogue. Jazz-wise a long term renewal contract was signed by Esquire Records for the continued release, on an exclusive basis, of maters from the Prestige and New Jazz Records of America. Esquire also enjoy success with their subsidiary label, Starlite, which specialises in country & western, rhythm and blues and folk music. Another company in this category is, of course, Melodisc Records who, during the year, acquired the Jewish Tikva catalogue and launched three new labels Dice, Chet and Simca. Newcomer Island Records, specialists in rhythm and blues from masters imported from Jamaica and the U.S. set up business over here in May under the direction of Christopher Blackwell. To date six singles have been issued. Highlight of the year for Ember International was the first release of a new low priced Celebrity series of LPs. Label boss Jeff Jruger is one of the independents determined to forge ahead with rack jobbing plans and the sale of Ember disks alongside non-allied products. Transatlantic Records, who in the last two years, have released an extensive range of Conversaphone language disks imported from the States, had their biggest success with their own "Live With Love"—a series of sex educational talks. Following the Royal College of Physicians report linking lung cancer with smoking Transatlantic issued an EP "No Smoking" which has since been recommended for use in Health Departments throughout Britain. Less sensational but highly commendable are the Shakesperian records released by Argo featuring some of this country's finest actors and actresses. The label also revealed its versatility by issuing two collectors items "Trains In The Night" and "60 Years of Motoring" for railway and vintage car enthusiasts. Saga continued to release their low-priced classical recordings and are now issuing Dandy tapes for marketing alongside the Dandy childrens disks. It has been a year of change for Central Record Distributors, the Interdisc group of labels previously distributed by them having passed to Philips. However, CRD still retain exclusive distribution rights to Blue Note, 77, Storyville, Folklore and Tropical. Deutsche Grammophon (Great Britain) Ltd. report a substantial increase of all marks during the past twelve months. In April for the second year running a contingent of British record dealers were the guests of DGG on a two-day visit to their German factory.

North of the border Waverly Records continue to supply the demand for authentic recordings of Scottish music by native artistes. Since their first 12" LP "Festival Of Edinburgh" issued three years ago Waverly have built up a catalogue of over 50 releases. An indication of their success in the opening in August of new and modern studios. During the year Associated Recordings stepped up distribution and acquired exclusive rights to the American Savoy label. They also launched their Arc Record Club, the only one of its kind to be operated through dealers. New recruits among the ranks of smaller independents were Aral and Salvo. Salvo folded within a few months. Another casualty was Audio Fidelity whose London office was closed after three years of operation. However, negotiations are being completed for Philips to take over distribution of the Audio Fidelity lines here in the Autumn. Monty Lewis of Rainbow Records informs that a new company Pickwick International (Great Britain) Ltd. will commence operations in October.

Publishing wise several newcomers have energed in Tin Pan Alley. Dick James, after a long association with Sidney Bron, left to form his own company and Freddie Poser departed from Mills Music to branch out on his own. Joe Roncoroni dissolved his partnership with John Fields and opened Mistletoe Melodies. From America came Lee Pincus with the Gil Pincus catalogue now operating here as Ambassador Music. Established publishers report a year of continued progress, despite the fact that sheet music sales even for a number at the top of the charts are no longer comparable with a few years ago. However, with record sales on the increase what the publisher loses on the swings he gains on the roundabouts. The increasing popularity of British artistes and material has resulted in chart honours being more evenly divided between America and Britain.

Companies who have derived considerable benefit from British material in the past year include Francis Day & Hunter, Robbins and Feldman Group with "Wonderful Land," "A Girl Like You," "Kon Tiki," "Romeo" and "Softly As I Leave You." Others being Southern Music (Johnny Remember Me); Kassner (Jeannie); Filmusic (Walkin' Back To Happiness); Sidney Bron (My Friend The Sea); Lorna (You Don't Know); Sherwin (Stranger On The Shore); Essex (Well I Ask You & Midnight In Moscow) and Mills have a current hit with Guitar Tango. Appollo Music had a good year with Lionel Bart's score from Blitz. As far as musicals in general the Chappell Group handled The Music Man (Frank); Sail Away (Chappell) and had single hits with "Moon River," "Tower Of Strength" and "Yes My Darling Daughter."

Sid Coleman was named top man for Ardmore & Beechwood's chain throughout the world excluding America and the London office had two big hits with "Tell Me What He Said" and "Nut Rocker." Belinda London laid claim to a string of American hits headed by Elvis Presley's "Good Luck Charm," "Can't Help Falling In Love" etc. Noel Rogers had a good year including three American smashes "Run To Him." "When My Little Girl Is Smiling" and "Happy Birthday Sweet Sixteen." Burlington made history with two modern jazz hits "Take Five" and "Unsquare Dance"; Shapiro Bernstein had the Cleo Laine smash "You'll Answer To Me" and Lawrence Wright "Pasadena." One of the year's major continental hits "Sucu Sucu" was handled by K.P.M.

Important disk executive appointments and changes the naming of Louis Benjamin as sole General Manager of Pye Records following the move of Roger Threlfall to the Directors Board of Musak. W. Townsley joined the Decca Board of Directors after long service as Personal Assistant to Chairman Sir Edward Lewis.

L. G. Wood, Managing Director of EMI Records was appointed a Divisional Director of EMI Ltd. Harry Walters left EMI International to become European Director of Cameo-Parkway.

A major event of the year was the first large scale convention organised by the GRRA in London early this year. Although admirably supported by manufacturers, distributors and members of the trade press, dealers themselves responded poorly, despite many authoritative speakers engaged to address the meeting.

It has also been a year of progess and success for Britain's independent record producers. Pioneer Denis Preston of Record Supervision achieved signal success on both sides of the Atlantic with Mr. Acker Bilk's "Stranger On The Shore," first recorded for the Lansdowne Jazz Series and released on Columbia in Britain and Atco in America. Preston also came up with "Sucu Sucu" by Laurie Johnson issued on the Pye label. Bunny Lewis of Anglo American Enterprises Ltd. can claim three chart entries by Craig Douglas—"Hundred Pounds of Clay," "Time" and "Our Favourite Melodies"—all issued by EMI. Lewis is expected to announce large scale expansion plans in the very near future. Michael Barclay and Philip Waddilove of Audio Enterprise successfully followed up Eden Kane's first chart topper "Well I Ask You" with "Forget Me Not" and "I Don't Know Why." Kane and his Managers recently paid their first promotional visit to the United States. Another indie producer for whom the last twelve months have paid dividends is Joe Meek of R.G.M. Sound with no less than four chart entries by John Leyton "Johnny Remember Me," "Wild Wind," "Lonely City" and "Son This Is She." *Jack Good, now in the States seeking new talent, put Karl Denver on the ladder of fame with "Wimoweh" followed by "Never Goodbye" on Decca. His biggest success came a few weeks ago with Joe Brown's chart topping "Picture Of You" on Piccaddily. * culminating in his recent chart topper "Come Outside" by Mike Sarne—all issued by EMI.

Latest entrants into the British andependent recording field are Robert Stigwood who is also personal manager for Mike Sarne and John Leyton and top recording star Cliff Richard recently made the news when he formed his own production company Shad-Rich.

Total population as of June 30th, 1961 census 10,603,936
Australia consists of eight states (including Australian Capital Territory) with following areas and populations. Figures are supplied by the Commonwealth Statistician.

DISTRIBUTING & MANUFACTURING

It will be readily seen that our largest States by area carry close to our smallest (by State) populations; a fact that brings about tremendous distribution problems to the trade. New South Wales has a big area but fortunately the bulk of the population of this State is in the Capital City of Sydney and its metropolitan district; but it does have a big country area to cover from a distribution viewpoint. Victoria is our third smallest State in size but it has the second largest population. From a distribution angle Victoria is easier (by comparison) to cover than any other State in the nation. The States of Queensland and Western Australia present the biggest headaches to distributors. Western Australia is a huge State with a small population widely spread over a great deal of the territory; a similar situation exists in Queensland. South Australia is a small State compared to Western Australia, but is still larger than New South Wales, and the entire population of South Australia is less than ¼ that of New South Wales. Tasmania, the island State of Australia is fairly easy for distributors to handle. Some companies cover Tasmanian distribution from Victoria, whilst others have regular outlets in Tasmania. The Northern Territory area is so large with such a small population that there are no distributors in operation there; all record supplies are shipped there from other States.

All record manufacturing is confined to New South Wales and Victoria and records are shipped to distributors in other States. There are four major processing and pressing plants operating in New South Wales. they are Festival, RCA, EMI and ARC. In Victoria there are two major plants, these are W&G and Radio Corporation (Mercury). Outside of EMI, RCA and Philips, there aren't a great many company-owned distributor outlets around Australia; a large number of distribution points are independently handled. An almost identical situation exists in relation to music publishing and distribution.

RADIO STATIONS:

Unlike the situation in Great Britain, Australia has both National (Government operated) and Commercial radio stations. Australia has 110 Commercial and 60 National broadcasting stations spread over the entire nation. Most commercial stations are members of the Australian Federation of Commercial Broadcasting Stations.

All radio stations (National and Commercial) are subject to the broadcasting standards set out in the Broadcasting and Television Act; the standards are supervised by The Broadcasting Control Board. The Board is a five man group appointed by Government authority. The location of our Commercial Stations is as follows:—

STATE	CAPITAL CITY STATIONS	COUNTRY STATIONS
New South Wales	(Sydney) 6	32
Victoria	(Melbourne) 6	14
Queensland	(Brisbane) 4	17
South Australia	(Adelaide) 3	5
Western Australia	(Perth) 4	10
Tasmania	(Hobart) 2	6
Northern Territory	(Darwin) 1	—

Programming policies of our commercial stations are such that a great deal of total broadcasting time is alloted to recorded music—especially pop material. In the pre-television days many commercial stations had their own production units turning out feature programs which were sponsored by national accounts like Lever Bros., Colgate-Palmolive. With the introduction of television many big accounts swung across to the new medium leaving big slices of radio time vacant. New radio sponsors were reluctant to "pick up the tab" for production shows on radio, so many "vacant" spots were "sold" on recorded music.

This trend in radio has continued until today there is only a small percentage of radio time devoted to production features in comparison to the pre-television era. Many stations are (apart from a few off-peak hours) on a format of almost continuous disk programming.

There is great and healthy competition between commercial stations to win audiences in the big cities through disk-jockey sessions; this applies particularly to Melbourne and Sydney each with six commercial outlets. Disk-jockey programs appear to be gaining in popularity every day, and Cash Box knows of several prominent stations who plan to give more key hours over to DJ sessions quite soon. The days of the disk-jockey in Australian radio has never been stronger and there is still more to come.

Australia . . . . Last 12 Months

Twelve months have slipped by since the last Directory and Anniversary Issue of Cash Box and this twelve months has been notable for the lack of sparkle in the industry in Australia. Financially, it would be a doubtful twelve months for all record companies, as with a crippling twenty-five per cent Purchase Tax on all types of disks hanging like a millstone round the industry's neck and the spending power of the public restricted by such economic problems as lay-offs, strikes and virtually all overtime employment disappearing from the Australian scene, Mr. and Mrs. John Citizen and their teenage sons and daughters have been saving their hard-earned money in case it might be needed for emergencies.

The problems of these times have been faced fairly and squarely by the Australian record companies and it is especially gratifying to note that not one company has been forced to cease operation during this period. As sales volume slumps so the expenses of a company become subject to severe study and this has been apparent with all companies by reduction of staffs and also a much needed reduction in the volume of releases.

Forced to cut expenses, all companies have reduced the number of releases available to the public. You may recall that this column has been advocating this for some time with little or no success—however, during this recent period releases have been cut, not drastically but sufficient to show the companies that they can make as many sales with fewer releases and with the savings involved the profit margin must be greater.

The LP market in Australia is emerging in a strong position and recently it was pointed out that the entire production of LP's was running equal to—and even exceeding the production of single-play disks. This fact has been born out in recently released governmental statistics and it is lamentable that singles sales have fallen to such a pitiable level that the general topic when record men meet these days is "what is wrong with our singles sales?" In spite of all the talk and commotion, very few companies are attempting to experiment with the problem.

Mercury Records, with their low-priced Wing singles, were the first to try to hypo the kids' interest back to singles. This company slashed about 33⅓% off the retail price of its Wing singles. All the other companies watched closely, top artists were featured on the new "make it or break it" line but in spite of this drastic cut, very little action resulted so it was felt that perhaps price was not so vital but rather it was a case of just what "sound" was impressed in the wax.

Following closely upon Mercury's experiment came W & G. They decided that they would give the kids more music for their money and came out with what they called a "4 on 1 Super Disc." Virtually an EP in a flimsy jacket with four tracks for the price of a normal single. Results didn't bring the directors new cars but must have been of some use as the line is still being produced and with careful A&R could still pay off.

So it can be seen that there is varied action on some fronts by various types of companies as they endeavour to solve the problem of shrinking singles sales.

Radio exposure is under fire in some circles—some like it, some would like it when it suits them and some are noncommittal on radio exposure. Without doubt, radio exposure is the shop window of the record industry and the two groups must work closely together with mutual understanding, each one fostering the other's interests, for without records, whether they be Australian produced or imported, a radio station would be like a ship without a rudder. Recorded music is low in cost, is reliable and doesn't have any union problems to plague it from a station viewpoint.

It is gratifying to see that singles sales by Australian artists are least affected by the general fall-off in overall singles sales—rather to the contrary, as sales of singles by local artists are increasing monthly and this must be food for thought for some of the U.S. based operations that have swung so solidly to the far out R & B sound.

Never before have companies had records on Cash Box Top 100 that show so little action in this territory. This chart is being closely studied by leading authorities in this country—mainly through the experience of local companies having repeated disks on this chart but not being able to sell the music to the Australian market. It is regrettable that this has occurred for U.S. artists, but the local artist has benefitted tremendously and now not a week goes by without more than one local disk showing up on Austrialia's Top 10 in this journal.

Many Austrialian artists have followed a successful hit record with an album and have gained valuable sales and exposure in this manner so it seems to be the pattern in this country that if you get a hit moving then follow it smartly with an album of songs, so many companies have done this that it must be paying off. Artists like Patsy Ann Noble, Lucky Starr, Bryan Davies, Frankie Davidson, all have recently had hot singles and all have followed with a package of songs.

The publishing field in Australia remains very much the same during the twelve months period. Many publishers are very active in promoting the catalogue they represent in this area and in general the standard of publications in Australia is high in comparison with some overseas prints received by Cash Box Australian office.

Great interest is being shown by record companies, music publishers and book publishers in the proposed new Copyright Act but as yet not much has been disclosed and all parties are biding their time during the waiting months that have followed the official hearing or inquiry. Cash Box will keep you advised of action developing from this situation.

And so whilst it has been a frustrating twelve months in many respects, all record and publishing houses have gained experience and have used this period as a self-appraisal term, pruning the useless branches from the vine so that when conditions giving good sales return—and return they must in an expanding country like Australia—all companies will find themselves in a far better position than several years ago when most companies were over-staffed and indolent.

We are all looking forward to the next twelve months—in fact, to lift a phrase from Australia's largest retailers, "Operation Forward" is perhaps a good axiom for us all. Let us surge ahead with vigour, pursuing our profession with our utmost ability to restore the excitement and artistry that several years ago went hand in hand with the record industry in Australia.

Australia . . . .
Advances

Over the past couple of years particularly there has been a lot of trade talk in Australia about the advantages and/or disadvantages of paying advances for songs and records from overseas companies. It seems that the advance is almost as much a part of the industry now as the record and song; this applies especially in the case of negotiations for an individual song or disk. (In cases of entire catalogues being sought on a long-term deal the situation is different).

Many overseas companies, mainly the independents, are quite adamant that they will not assign rights to Australian companies unless an advance is paid. On the face of it this probably isn't an unreasonable demand since the originator of the product (song or record) has most likely been involved in a fair amount of capital outlay to get the product to the stage where it is being sought by an Australian company. We must all face the fact that arrangements, production, musicians, printing and promotion don't come cheap these days—it costs money, time and a great deal of effort to get a song and record to near the top of charts. So perhaps, there is a case for the original owner to seek an advance from an interested Australian company. But, unless the product is well suited to our market there is little chance of the Australian firm being able to square the advance let alone come out on top or to break even on the deal. Too often during the last few years we've had instances of local companies "dropping" good money as a result of paying out big advances for records and songs that have turned out to be real "dogs."

At times when the local company has refused to pay an advance the overseas company just doesn't get a release in this territory—who is the loser then?

The prime functions of the entire world industry are to produce, distribute, promote and market records and songs and many individuals and companies throughout the world are losing sight of this. Organizations dealing from one country to another are often so busy trying to pull big advances from each other that they are neglecting the real purpose of the buiness—which is to sell and promote!

To many record and publishing companies, especially those outside the United States, "advance" is almost a dirty word, and in countries such as Australia where the local disk artist and song is growing in popularity every day, there is a good basis for their objection to paying out advances for overseas material.

The general run of advances asked of Australian companies for an overseas disk or song ranges from $100 to around $500, depending usually on the American rating of the item in question. For the sake of this article let's strike an average of say $250 advance for a disk that has done some business in the United States. As has happened so often of late it could be that this disk is one of the R&B that isn't very well suited for the Australian market. Now, rather than pay $250 advance for one "doubtful" single the local company is far better off by investing this money in a local disk session that will most likely produce a minimum of four sides. Sides over which the local company has 100% control and can be tailor-made for our conditions; and if ONE of these singles gets off-the-ground here (and it has an excellent chance of doing so) it will far outsell the "doubtful" product from overseas. To sum this angle up, the local company can confidently expect to produce two singles; ideally produced to capture our market, for the cost of an advance for an overseas record that wasn't originally produced with the Australian market in mind.

Some Australian companies just refuse to part with much-needed capital for advances maintaining that they (the local companies) are ir business to produce and sell—NOT to play international financiers.

Australia . . . . Advances

With the almost total removal of licensing control throughout Australia some eighteen months ago, the various problems associated with the importation of whole records, tapes, mothers, covers and cover slicks into Australia from overseas companies by Australian representatives have in most cases disappeared.

Perhaps a brief glance at Australian Customs Duty and Primage will prove of interest to the readers of The Cash Box and could help to explain why some companies do not import larger quantities of disks than are at present entering the country.

WHOLE RECORDS FOR RESALE (From the U.S.A.) These records are subject to several charges besides the costly freight across the Pacific. Upon arrival in Australia they are subject to inspection by the Publications Censorship Branch of Her Majesty's Customs in order to control the entry into Australia of questionable, "blue" or obscene material. After a clearance by this Branch, the disks are then subject to a duty of 1/6 per disk if the size of the record exceeds 6" or 10d per disk for 6" and under, both sizes are subject to a 10% Primage Duty based on the F.O.B. value converted to Australian currency.

It is also vital to remember that any records shown as "no charge samples" "audition samples" etc are not only subject to the above duties but also are hit with a 25% Sales Tax as an additional item.

Records entering Australia from England are subject to a lower rate which is . . . for records of six inches and under (in diameter) 4½ pence plus 5% Primage Duty and for records over 6" the rate is 9 pence plus 5% Primage. As with American imports, the primage is based on the original cost F.O.B.

COPYRIGHT ON RECORDS FOR RESALE: The Copyright Act of Australia obliges the payment of copyright based on the percentage of 5% of the retail price and is to be paid to the copyright owner in the country of that retail sale. Therefore it is not necessary for the company exporting the records to Australia to pay copyright on the records leaving the country of exportation, If copyright is paid by the exporting company, then when the Australian company pays their copyright, two payments will have been made and this is contrary to the Act. Some attention to this point should be given.

RECORDED TAPES, METAL MOTHERS ETC. From the USA, these items are subject to 7½% Duty only and are exempt from Primage Duty. From England, the above items enter Australia completely exempt from Duty.

EMPTY RECORD COVERS AND SLICKS (From U.S.A.) Many Australian companies import expensive covers only when the production and sales of same could not possibly warrant block-making and various specialty techniques associated with specialised jackets that are possible in a country of large population such as the United States. It would seem that as a tariff protection the duty on such jackets and printed slicks is quite high as it amounts to a duty of 1/4½ (16½ cents) per pound weight—or SPAIN....

Last 12 Months

The Spanish record industry has recently undergone modifications, which makes one foresee a possible change in its structure. Apart from the birth of some new foreign labels in distribution, a general tendency is seen in all the recording companies to modernize their procedures, techniques and merchandising. Worldwide discophile news, which was previously scarce, now arrives quickly.

In the year 1961 some new labels appeared: Cubalegre—distributor of Spanish-American music; Vergara who have Ariola and Ricordi Licenses and their own Spanish artists, Pax and Cor; Mercury, previously distributed in Spain by Zafiro recently changed over to Philips; Warner Bros. records which until lately have not been exploited in this country, are now being distributed by RCA Espanola. RCA Espanola are also in charge of the Telefunken catalogue and are negotiating the license of two other world known labels. Iberofon will be pressing the French Ducretet-Thompson records in Spain.

From the technical point of view, the improvements are considerable. Philips and Gramofono-Odeon now have a modern recording studio; Hispavox are building a new studio; RCA have completely modernised their studio and have installed in it the most up-to-date equipment in Europe.

"Belter S.L. has recently amalgamated with the SAEF (Sociedad Anonima de Ediciones Fonograficas) which has a small pressing plant that is now to be modernized." All these improvements are without doubt due to a current trend for modernization which some firms have initiated and are also brought about, to a certain extent, by the demands of the public —a public which is becoming more and more informed on the subject of the record.

However, the Spanish record market continues to come up against some difficulties in its development. There are various problems and the smoothing out of these depends on a series of diverse factors. It is interesting to mention the small number of juke boxes which exist in the national territory. Statistics show that the possibilities of spreading coin machines are enormous and that they give satisfactory results. Even so, the number of automatic machines is not over 1,000 but it is possible that the number will increase in the near future because there are rumours that an Italian firm proposes to distribute about 2,000 over the whole territory. This naturally means an increase in the demand for new records, with the resultant increase in production.

BRAZIL . . . . Last 12 Months

The past twelve months were marked by great record activity and constant raising in the prices of all kind of records. In one year, the standard record, which costs Cr.-$160,00, had three raises and now costs Cr.$300,00. The LP's are in the same conditions. Last year they were in our retail stores by Cr.$1000,00. Now you couldn't buy one with less than Cr.$1.350,00, and in many cases, with less than Cr.$1.450,00. The fact is that these constant raisings, are causing an inevitable retraction on the sales. Last year we said that could "kill the hen with the golden eggs" and that's what will happen very soon, if our companies continue with this "higher prices" policy.

The great record event of these twelve months, was the appearance of Silvana & Rinaldo Calheiros, a very lucky couple, since their first record Amor, beat all previous records and stayed for eighteen weeks on the top of Sao Paulo's chart. Now, another record of the same couple reached the top too: "Onde Estas Coracao (Where Are You, My Heart)". The LP they waxed for Copacabana Records, "Ouvindo-Te Con Amor (Listening To You With Love)" was very well received by the public, too. Undoubtedly, Silvana & Rinaldo Calheiros are the artists of the year.

Once more, Miltinho has been in our charts, with two smash hits: "Lembrancas" and later "Confidencia," both composed by Raul Sampaio and Benil Santos.

Among the foreign artists, Ray Conniff proved once again to be the most popular foreign Orchestra and Ray Charles, specially in the past two months, the most promising songster of the season. The Twist made his debut, through the records of Chubby Checker, a consistent chartrider in Brazil.

Twelve months ago we said that double-compact records would surpass the popularity of EP's and 45 Rpm singles and that's what happened. Now only Philips is still releasing 45 records. All other companies are producing only compacts in 7 inches. But 78 Rpm is still the most popular standards, by the reasons exposed one year ago.

Among the publishers, two deserve special mention: Vitale and Fermata, responsible for the most important hits of the season.

The past twelve months were very profitable for RGE Records, which proved to be in excellent situation with its very consistent Brazilian cast and no less excellent International representations. The surprise of the year was Fermata, which released several hits, specially in 1962, including the smash hits of Chubby Checker. RCA Victor had a great deal of responsibility concerning the successes of RGE and Fermata, since these marks are distributed by RCA

These were the most important facts concerning our Record Industry in the past twelve months.

Australia . . . Advances

57½% of the F.O.B. value—whichever is the greater, plus 5% Primage Duty.

IMPORTING PRINTED COVERS FROM ENGLAND, one is charged with the following duty: 9d per lb or 22½% of the F.O.B. value, whichever is the higher. There is no Primage Duty on Covers Etc. from England.
This is but a brief outline of the procedure and charges associated with the importation of recorded material and production items into Australia, and it will be readily seen that for anyone to bypass a recognised company and import from a one-stop etc would not be a proposition at all in competition with the regular outlets. This is a great controlling factor at the moment—although there have been cases of dumping of low priced material on this market it has not assumed major proportions.

Spain—Last 12 Months

The capacity for absorption of new records depends upon the number of phonographs in existence (around 700,000) and the economic status of the buyers. The demand for phonographs is increasing and so is the number of types and models produced by different manufacturers. However, the teenagers, who are without doubt the sector most interested in records, do not have sufficient means to make large purchases, especially bearing in mind the fact that most of the Spanish production consists of E.P.'s, the price of which almost consumes the weekly pocket money of a young person of the middle class. Some companies already have a good production of singles which are enjoying more and more success. Exploitation of the single, however, is difficult as there are very few suitable radio programmes and most stations are located in Madrid and Barcelona. Up to the present publicity in the press has been practically nil and few companies run an organised department for promotion although there are some, such as RCA, who are pioneering in this respect.

The great mass of the public is beginning to demand melodies sung in Spanish and for this reason some American and European artists have made recordings in this language with the Spanish and Spanish-American market in mind.

At present there is an extensive inclination towards American music. In all the big cities a multitude of orchestras have been formed, mostly by students, which are being contracted by the main companies. One of the infinite number of junior groups, the ones which stand out are "Los Sonor" who have already recorded three albums for RCA: "Los Estudiantes" (Philips) is another group of youngsters which is also successful. The main radio stations, with several talent-scout programmes, is contributing to the spreading of what has become known as "The New Spanish Wave."

The preference of the Spanish public leans towards Elvis Presley—indisputable King in the record market—Paul Anka, Cliff Richard, Johnny Hallyday, Sacha Distel, Connie Francis; Italian artists Mina, Milva, Celentano, Fidenco, Modugno and Dallara; Mexican Miguel Aceves Mejia, Chilean Antonio Prieto whose recording of "La Novia" was the hit of 1961 in Spain and a considerable part of Europe and Spanish artists Alfredo Kraus, Duo Dinamico, Lolita Garrido, Joselito, Jose Guardiola, Elia Fleta, Sara Montiel, Marisol, Paquito Jerez, Manolo Escobar and Dolores Vargas.

In recent years the Spanish record industry has experienced a number of innovations including the introduction of the Compact 33⅓rd by RCA which failed to make sufficient impact on the market to justify its continuance. Equally unsuccessful was the introduction by Hispavox of "Discoflex"—a two-selection record pressed on paper bound plastic. Despite its low price and curiosity value the public soon lost interest. Another development has been the launching of the Readers Digest Record Library by RCA who report that distributors, after a period of opposition, now realise that it constitutes a very powerful promotion drive for the record business in general.

The future seems hopeful. The three largest companies, RCA, Philips and Gramofono-Odeon, have thrown themselves energetically into the task of promoting their records and increasing the overall national figures. Also, the increase in tourism and the popularity in Europe of everything that is Spanish have aroused international interest in the folkloric music and there is a good level of sales and distribution for records of this type abroad.

THE HOUSE OF GURTLER

Walter Gurtler, one of the most active record producers in Italy, expanded his Italian record operation this year with a new building including office facilities, a recording stage and a record molding factory. The new addition adjoins the building he erected two years ago to house his hot Italian disk firm Red Records.

The new Gutler house is located at Pero, a section on the outskirts of Milan. When completed in 1963, Gurtler plans to move all his companies into the new building and will also merge his two current firms, Saar and Gurtler, at that time.

The current executive staff of the two firms includes: Walter Gurtler, vice-president; Maestro Leoni, A & R manager; Maestro Libano, A & R manager; Mr. Prandin, director; Mr. Balloni, sales manager; and Mr. de Gioia, advertising-promotion manager.

The start of Gurtler's activity on the Italian market goes back to the years following World War II. But it was in 1950 that he established Saar as a record pressing factory and the house of Gurtler as a record company. Saar had been operating in this fashion until 1958 when it took over representation of the Verve label in Italy. The biggest record Gurtler had was Mercury's "Only You" by the Platters. It was a significant record event in Italy since it played an important role in changing Italy's music tastes toward rock and roll tempos. In addition to Verve, Gurtler had the Atlantic line in Italy and enjoyed considerable success with it, especially so with Bobby Darin's "Mack The Knife."

In April, 1960, the company signed a contract with Warner Bros. for Italian representation. Through the WB catalog, the company had a number of money making disks including George Greely's "Lucy's Theme;" "So Sad" and "Ebony Eyes" by the Everlys; and others by Don Ralke, Bob Luman and Sir Chancey.

From the catalog of Barclay, which Gurtler has distributed in Italy for quite some time, came the name of Dalida to Italy—a songstress who sold well with "Les Gitans," "Never On Sunday," "Milord," and her current hit "Et Maintenant." Another Barclay name to hit in Italy is Charles Aznavour, who clicked with "Il Faut Savoir."

On the domestic front, Gurtler has two hot names in Adriano Celentano and Tony Dallara, both continually on the Italian best seller lists. Celentano, a home grown discovery of Gurtler's had a number of records which topped the 100,000 mark in Italy, including "Il Tuo Bacio E' Come Un Rock (Your Kiss Is Like A Rock)", "Impazzivo Per Te (I Was Crazy For You)," "Non Esiste L'Amor (Love Does Not Exist)." "24,000 Baci (24,000 Kisses)," and "Nata Per Me (Born For Me)" which recently topped the 400,000 in Italy—and amazing figure for this country.

Tony Dallara is consistently one of Italy's best selling artists. Last year he had one of Italy's biggest hits in "La Novia" and later won the Canzonissima contest with "Bambina Bambina." This year he has hit the charts with "Alla Mamma" and is currently selling well with "Caterina." Others in the Gurtler roster include Anita Traversi, I Campioni, Caterina Villalba, and the recently pacted Remo Germani.

Gurtler continues to represent Warner Bros., Atlantic and Barclay in Italy.

ITALY . . . . The Last 12 Months

The general impression of the first six months of 1962 on the Italian disk scence is that there were too few big hits and too many smaller ones.

Five titles rank as big successes. They were "Let's Twist Again" by Peppino Di Capri (Carisch), over 400,000 in sales, "Nata Per Me (Born For Me)" by Adriano Celentano (Gurtler), over 400,000 in sales, "La Ballata Della Tromba" by Nini Rosso (Titanus-Durium), over 300,000 in sales, "Quando Quando Quando" by Tony Renis (VCM), over 300,000 in sales, and "Wheels" by Billy Vaughn Decca), over 200,000 in sales.

Beyond these, the sales average of many releases is considered far too low, Cash Box learned upon getting impressions from disks execs.

The six months period also saw a continued decrease in the importance of American product. It's noted that rock 'n roll was introduced to Italy via American disks, while the twist craze was spurred in Italy by an Italian artist, Peppino Di Capri, with his "Let's Twist Again," which he introduced on TV last Dec. with dramatic results—a great twist fad in Italy.

The Italian charts over the past two years has included more domestic hits and less foreign. Such previous hit artists in Italy as Connie Francis, Paul Anka and Elvis Presley are less effective in Italy than they were several years ago.

A great event here March 1 was the opening of RCA Italiana's studios in Rome, the largest recording facilities in the world. Over 500 people attended the formal opening that day.

Walter Gurtler this year purchased a new building featuring offices, a recording studio and moulding factory.

All of Gurtler's activities will be housed in the building, located at Pero, a section near Milan, within a year.

1962 brought from Paris to Milan Francois Minchin as new director of La Voce Del Padrone-Columbia-Marconiphone (VCM). When Minchin joined VCM in Jan., the firm's catalog was enriched by the addition of Liberty Records, which VCM has been promoting very well in Italy.

In a sense it was VCM that won this year's San Remo festival. "Addio Addio" may have been the winner, but two VCM recordings of runners-up, "Tango Italiano" and "Quando Quando Quando" by Tony Renis, did far better in disk sales. VCM had a similar experience last year with "24,000 Kisses" by Adriano Celentano and "Like A Symphony" by Pino Donaggio. Both San Remo entries placed after "Al Di La," the number one tune, but not a big disk success that year.

"Al Di La," however, became a big hit in the U.S. this year via Emilio Pericoli's waxing on Warner Bros. (from the soundtrack of "Rome Adventure"). This surprised everyone in the Italian disk business. It was the biggest Italian-made success in the U.S. since Domenico Modugno's "Volare" in 1958.

The question of Columbia Records representation in Italy is still left unanswered. The label recently ended its ties with Philips in Italy, and has left everyone guessing as to what will be its move.

Durium this year no longer handled the Top Rank label, which ceased operations. Last winter, the label had a big success with "La Ballata Della Tromba." Durium took over the foreign distribution of Clan, the label of Adriano Celentano, except for Switzerland and South America.

There were big changes at Melodicon (Philips Italiana) during the first half of 1962, losing Columbia, but getting Mercury and Interdisc.

Unexpected daily radio and TV exposure on "Wheels" by Billy Vaughn gave Decca Italia a big hit, as did the label's version by Caterina Valente, whose disks, including her "Twisting The Twist," have been receiving a sales impetus thanks to her many appearances on Italian TV. Other good Decca Italia sellers are Pat Boone, the Machucambos and The Champs.

Big news at Rifi so far this year was its taking over of the distribution of Adriano Celentano's label, Clan, in Italy. Clan's first release, "Stai Lontana Da Me (Tower of Strength)," was an immediate success.

Giannini Talks of "Success"

About two years ago, Joe Giannini, executive manager of CGD and GC records, stated from these columns that to be completely successful, the two companies had to reach an overall record sale of 2 million per year. This anticipation seemed to be rather venturous and even the optimistic people of the record field thought that the indicated figure was very difficult to be reached. Today it can be stated that Giannini was right. As a matter of fact, the two companies have had such a number of disk successes in the past two years, that the figure has been surpassed.

"We have been able to see these top sales," Giannini states today, "for a lot of reasons. First of all, the high quality of the product marketed. I seize this opportunity to thank from these columns all the American companies which we represent, for giving us such good records constantly, as well as our Italian artists who have completed our success.

"Besides this, there have been important factors which helped the companies to be successful. One of these is undoubtedly the closer relationship with Italian TV which, through an official co-operation, has permitted GC and CGD to present on television artists as: Connie Francis, Nancy Sinatra, Gene Pitney, Bobby Rydell, Tony Williams, Lou Monte, Digno Garcia, Sammy Davis Jr., Dick Caruso.

"I hope," Giannini adds, "I'll have the chance, with the help of the American companies, of their artists and their managers, to continue with this Television policy which has given such good results.

"As a matter of fact, the successes of the following records:

"La Paloma," "Luna Caprese," "Violino Tzigano" by Connie Francis.

"Like I Do" by Nancy Sinatra.

"Town Without Pity" by Gene Pitney.

"Sway" by Bobby Rydell.

"It's So Easy To Surrender" by Tony Williams.

"Twist Italiano" by Lou Monte.

"Moliendo Café" by Digno Garcia.

"Everybody Calls Me Joe" by Sammy Davis.

must be attributed primarily to the fact that the related artists have exhibited themselves on Italian TV. As it is known, this is the most important way to promote sales in Italy.

"Besides the above records, other labels' top sellers have been:

"Montecarlo" by Johnny Dorelli.

"Tango Del Mare," "Midi-Midnette," by Betty Curtis.

"Abat Jour" by Henry Wright.

"Granada" by Frank Sinatra.

"Dream Concerto," "Exodus," "Le Piace Brahms?" by Ferrante & Teicher.

"Let's Twist Again," "Twist" by Chubby Checker.

"As far as the future is concerned," Giannini states, "we'll try to attain these top sales again and we'll do our utmost to make our Italian artists very popular abroad and especially in the United States. The deal we have just concluded with London Records for exploitation of our catalogue in USA, gives us the certainty that our artists will have the best promotion possible over there."

The Recording Scene in Italy Today

(Written expressly for Cash Box by Bruno Pozza of Ricordi)

Immediately after the war every American song was a sure hit in all Europe, and, on the contrary, quite a few European songs had chance to become hits in the States. From that time many things and events have occurred, and the situation has greatly changed, with a remarkable advantage for the European music. Of course, the situation is very far from capsizing, but, instead of 8 songs out of 10, the European charts present 3-4 American songs, and in many cases the European recording is the cause of the success (Italy: TOWER OF STRENGTH, Germany: JOHNNY WILL, France: THE LION SLEEPS TONIGHT, etc.), while, few years ago, the European recording was secured only to fulfill a clause of contract, and the songs were acquired in consideration of their original records. Now an American singer cannot reach in Italy the figures of Adriano Celentano or Tony Renis, and in the last four years many European songs have entered the American charts, and even some European recordings have done it: we remember VOLARE by Modugno, TORERO by Carosone, SEEMAN by Lolita and in the last weeks STRANGER ON THE SHORE by Mr. Acker Bilk and AL DI LA' by Emilio Pericoli.

As to Italy, an important reason for such changement is the new way for the Italian lyrics. Many years ago the Italian words, with few exceptions, were so bad that people preferred not to hear them, and the difficulty of the language, therefore, was nonexistent for foreign artists. In the last few years (1958, Modugno), the lyrics have been prepared with much care and with new style, avoiding all the old phrases which have now lost any meaning, without forced rhymes, following exactly with the verse accents the music rhythm. The best examples are: VOLARE, AL DI LA', IL CIELO IN UNA STANZA, COME SINFONIA, QUANDO . . . QUANDO . . . QUANDO . . ., ROMANTICO AMORE. In fact few young writers (Chiosso, Migliacci, Mogol, Pallavicini, Testa, etc.) have started a "new way," and giving to the Italian singers good Italian words, have given them greater possibilities of becoming popular in their country.

Italians inclination for music has a great name all over the world; often, during their voyages abroad, Italians are asked to sing, since it is a general understanding that Italians sing always well, and Italian music (both classical and popular) is known everywhere music is played. Notwithstanding that, Italian popular singers are rather unknown abroad, and this is because of the language. For pop songs, indeed, lyrics are very important, and the Italian language is understood in few countries. Some Italian artists have broken this problem by force, as Emilio Pericoli and Modugno, but they are two exceptions. Now an important step is being taken by Italian artists, Tony Renis, who has just recorded his last success, "QUANDO . . . QUANDO . . . QUANDO . . .", in English, and MINA who got the number one slot in Germany with HEISSER SAND sung by her in German language and not yet released in Italy. Tony is not the first singer to do so, others have done it before: Caterina Valente, Connie Francis, Marino Marini and many others, but Tony Renis is starting a new way. Valente, Connie Francis, etc. recorded in languages of other countries after having had a certain success in these countries with records in their original language. Tony Renis, on the contrary, tries to have his first success in the different countries with the local languages. If he has success, no doubt, he shall have many imitators. He would open a period of exportation of masters from Italy.

How The Common Market Affects Record Sales

(Written expressly for Cash Box by Mr. R. Degoy, EMI liaison officer in the common market)

We are pleased to publish this article on The Common Market written specially for Cash Box by Mr. R. Degoy. EMI Liaison Officer in the Common Market.

"The European Economic Community is the biggest single invention of the post-war. It has in its scope the gradual integration of the free people of Europe in all their spheres of activity, not only commercial as the simpler name of "Common Market" under which it is more widely known would seem to indicate, but a complete union of 170,000,000 people and more to come.

Great Britain, Denmark, Norway and several other countries are expected to join the European Economic Community very soon (Greece is coming as an Associate), and the prospects are for a Common Market of 250,000,000 people any time now.

But with its present six members, Belgium, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, and Luxembourg alone, the Community is already the biggest importer and the biggest exporter of the world. One does not usually realize for example that a member country like Holland is importing 49% of all it consumes and exporting 51% of all it produces. As a point of reference the United States imports 4% of their needs and exports 5% of their production.

In three years since its inception the binding together of the six countries has seen a very large progress in this trend: a 28% increase of Trade with the outside world—a balanced trade by the way where importations equal exportations. The community's imports from the USA alone increasing 40%, whilst in the same period the USA imports from other countries increased only by 19% and that of Great Britain by 17%.

At the same time the internal trade between member states has increased a whopping 78% and the standards of living inside each member state have made more progress than ever before.

Such are the results. But what is the secret of the community's success? The answer seems incredible but it is "faith": faith in pooling all efforts and all resources—including men—faith in avoiding conflicts, poverty, war and misery. Faith in the program of the community as written in its charter:

Unite the people of Europe
Promote their economic and social progress
Eliminate the barriers which divide them
Improve their standards of living and reach full employment
Help the depressed area and pool all resources
Defend peace and liberty

The beneficial climate of the community extends quite naturally to the gramophone record. This climate fosters the exchange of compositions, artistes and muscians, a special regulation having just liberated their passing from state to state without labor permits. It has increased and will continue to spread the recordings of one country into the other.

It does not mean that this will be done at the detriment of the outside countries—on the contrary: the pattern of record imports and exports with "third countries" is developing along the usual line of larger exchange and more diffusion which characterizes the life of the community.

And, by the way, the community has already planned to lower the tariff barrier on the finished records."

Mexico . . . . The Last 12 Months

The record scene in México in the past twelve months has been dominated by the artists of "the new wave" as it was demonstrated by The Best Sellers every week. Young singers as Enríque Guzmán, César Costa, Mayte, Angélica María, Los Rebeldes del Rock, Los Teen Tops, Los Crazy Boys, Paco Cañedo and many others have registered wonderful sales and their records have been played constantly on every radio station. The most popular rhythms have been the ballad, the twist and the bolero-ranchero. The bolero-ranchero, a combination of our folk music with the latin rhythm named bolero, is meeting a wonderful acceptance and artists like Javier Solís, Jose Alfredo Jiménez, Juan Mendoza, Alvaro Zermeño, Amalia Mendoza and some others are on the top now. The pure bolero rhythm, the same as the songs sung by trios have almost disappeared from the Mexican musical scene. However, we think that both will return some day. As to the tropical rhythm, things are so-so but is earning more popularity again in recent weeks. The American music has earned much popularity but sung in Spanish and by Mexican artists of the "new wave." People like Nat 'King' Cole, Frank Sinatra, Elvis Presley, Paul Anka, Chubby Checker, Doris Day and many others, are not as popular as they used to be. The only one who is still considered an idol is Ray Conniff, who increases his sales every day.

The most popular artists we have had in the last twelve months are more or less in this order: Javier Solís, Enríque Guzmán, Los Locos del Rítmo, Los Teen Tops, Ray Conniff, Mayte, César Costa, Angélica María, Los Rebeldes del Rock, Jose Alfredo Jiménez, Hermanos Carrión, Marco Antonio Muñíz, Paco Cañedo, Bill Haley, Los Crazy Boys, Connie Francis, Amalia Mendoza, Hnas. Jiménez, etc.

Foreign artists visiting the last months were very prolific. First came Louis Armstrong and the Hi-Lo's in August. Then TV actor Mike Connors who was a tremendous success. From Argentina Roberto Yanés; in November in theater and records Bill Haley; from England, returned to his country after many years, pianist Pepe Jaramillo; in January, conductor Shep Fields spent his vacation in this country; in March Nat 'King' Cole, Gloria Lasso, Bing Crosby was here on vacations and Frankie Avalon had the opportunity to see Frank Sinatra perform in the Mexican capital. In April again in town was Bill Haley; in May, the Mexican public was entertained by the sensational Sammy Davis. Also in May came Chubby Checker. And in June, European singer Caterina Valente surprised very nicely with her performance.

Also of note was that record importation was forbidden by the Mexican government unless the record companies pay very elevated taxes. Now all foreign records are pressed in México.

The Mexican record industry has a wonderful future. The recording quality has improved a hundred per cent and México has become an important record area.

ARGENTINA....The Last 12 Months

The 1961-1962 period has been a difficult year for the Argentine record industry. Along these months, several troubles appeared, regarding—in general—the commercialization of the products. It started with the appearance of special discounts given by several companies to those dealers who bought a huge quantity; these discounts amounted from 5% to 20%, and enabled some dealers to send their records to the customers nearly at the same price as the official factory-to-retailer price. This was ended in December, when most companies decided to cut these discounts, after a meeting of the Chamber of Record Producers.

The second big trouble was the fall of the market, in March. After having two soft summer months, January and February, March showed a general sales reduction that continued in April and May, and is still in force. Some diskeries consider that there has been a 40 to 60% sales cut. This has obliged everybody to cut costs, with a reduction in releases, too. The big companies have been the most affected by these changes, because of their huge employee expenses.

Nobody knows when will the reaction come, although it is supposed that October or November may show it. In any case, almost everybody is now prepared for the storm, and expects to pass through it without harm. One thing that many have in mind are the royalty payments that have to be made effective yet, since the dollar has jumped from 83 to 130 pesos in the last three months. The record price, has jumped too, from 360 pesos to 455, but its cost in dollars has been reduced, due to the exchange change. However, it is supposed that all payments will be made in time, as most companies are working on a serious base and foreign recordings are proving to be good sellers.

In fact, several representations have been arranged during these past twelve months. One of the most important ones was the arrangement between Tonodisc (new company with former members of Music Hall) and Hickory, Jubilee and Time Records. Besides, Odeon (EMI representative) arranged the representation of Liberty. RCA is already planning the first Warner Bros. releases, while Disc Jockey arranged with Artone of Holland and Continental of Brazil. Music Hall started Reprise of the US and Copacabana of Brazil, which was previously held by Surco. The DGG lines (Deutsche Grammophon, and Polydor) changed their representative: now it is Philips, who's also with Mercury, and (through Polydor) is enabled to release Peerless of Mexico.

Three new companies started operating since July 1961: Producciones Fermata, representing Cameo, Parkway, Jamie and Ricordi, Producciones 10 and Tonodisc. One closed: Discofonia.

One of the interesting points in the market evolution is the appearance of several high fidelity and stereo good music records. The movement was probably started by Microfon, with the Audio Fidelity releases, which met surprising success. Now, Tonodisc is trying its Time and Series 70 records, while United Artists reports the first Ultra Audio records. In general, these releases are priced higher than regular LP's, but this doesn't seem to affect them very much. Musidisc records are also running very well.

The low price market has also continued growing: several Selection LP's have appeared, with good success. RCA put to sale three Explosivos albums, with American and local artists. Columbia hit the charts some months ago with "Burbujas Musicales," an album with good selection and Coca-Cola cooperation. Disc Jockey released several Compact 33's at 130 pesos, and reports good success, too. On these days, Music Hall is also putting to sale a "Promotional" album.

The musical comedy field showed its force when, some weeks ago, Columbia put to sale its "West Side Story" LP, with extraordinary success. There are few musical comedy records, but all of them sell well. Of course, Columbia's "My Fair Lady" is a standard. There are two more versions of this play, one also at Columbia (the Mexican version, sung in Spanish) and another one at Odeon Pops, recorded at the National theatre, in Buenos Aires.

There is one fact that makes everyone wonder about music business: the Reader's Digest Classical Music Set reports a sale of 120,000 sets up to date, at the price of 2400 pesos each. This should mean 1,200,000 LP's in one year! This fact should indicate that regular record companies aren't still in touch with all the potential customers. To solve this, Audio Fidelity has started an advertising campaign in magazines and newspapers, and it is supposed that several other diskeries will do the same. Now, Reader's Digest is planning a new Set. If it becomes a success, there will probably be others in the market soon. Up to now, the only company to offer sets is RCA, who has the "Spectacular Concert" box, and a deluxe seven record Beethoven set, which sells very well, in spite of its high price.

On the publishers side, there is a movement towards local music. There are two reasons: a) Local music has proved to be commercially suitable for other markets. b) In some cases, American publishers ask too much for the license of their tunes. It's very difficult for a tune to produce more than $200 or $300 in royalties; thus, if an American pubbery asks more than that for a tune, the local pubbery will have to think a lot about it before taking it. If this trouble was softened, there surely would be much more American music published here, with better results.

Folk music has increased its force even more during this period. Many new groups have appeared. The most important ones are Los Huanca Hua, Los de Salta, Los Paranaseros and Los Litoreños. Los Fronterizos, Los Chalchaleros, Los Cantores de Quilla Huasi, Atahualpa Yupanqui and Eduardo Falu have maintained their force, increasing it in some cases.

Many local vocal groups have started trips to Europe and Latin American countries. Los Cinco Latinos started this with a two-year long tour. Los Santos, Los TNT and now Los Tres Sudamericanos have also tried, with success. These tours start in Spain and then continue in France, Italy and sometimes Germany. It may be supposed that, in the next twelve months, many other artists will do the same.

Television has become very important in the last year. The growing competition between Channels 7, 9, 11 and 13 has resulted in very good programs that attract big audiences. There are approximately 900,000 TV sets in Buenos Aires, and about 60,000 more in Cordoba, Mendoza and Mar del Plata, the other cities with TV plants. Recently, the University of Cordoba started the second TV station in that city. Channel 10. The other one, Channel 12, belongs to the Goar Mestre net, as does Channel 13 of Buenos Aires. Television is now a major factor in an artist's popularity, and is a must in every visit.

Regarding the language in which tunes must be sung, the charts show a majority of Spanish-sung songs. This is not necessary when the tunes are recorded by internationally famed artists (Neil Sedaka, Paul Anka, Adriano Celentano and now Bryan Hyland) but Spanish lyrics are now always done. In the past twelve months, there have been few instrumental hits (Wheels, Midnight in Moscow, Come September and Mexico) and three twist hits, two of them by Chubby Checker. There have been several Italian hits, showing this type of music doesn't lose its popularity. Twelve of the biggest smashes have been produced locally, and at least two of them have good International possibilities.

Another important news in the publishers field have been the arrangement between SADAIC (Argentine Society of Composers) and the diskeries, regarding royalties for composers, which were raised from 3.33% to 4%. Other big news is the possibility of an arrangement between SADAIC and Brazilian record producers. Some years ago, SADIAC gave its representation in Brazil to BIEM, and the diskeries in that country practically stopped recording Argentine music, with a great damage to our composers. Now, it seems that a complete arrangement is near.

Before writing this column, this Cash Box representative visited the diskeries, asking their toppers for comments about the record scene in Argentina. Some of them criticized the record distribution organization in the country, saying that there are many dealers that are losing interest in records, because they find little earning in it. Thus, the music business has concentrated into three or four big stores, in Buenos Aires, and several others that are still working hard. In the opinion of one interviewed, the record companies should encourage people to get into the record business and this would mean a big maket expansion. Another topper stated that there are few good music records, while still too many records are released without a good artistic background.

Regarding stereo, the market is becoming interesting. The main trouble —as in many other countries—is that the equipment is still too expensive. However, many people are turning to stereo and this type of record always sells well. The top mark for stereo LP's is, up to now, 8,000, and was reached by Peter Appleyard's "Percussive Jazz." Louis Armstrong's "Five Pennies," a couple of years ago also sold pretty well.

Another of the industry's main troubles (the recording equipment) is also being solved. Both Columbia and Sicamericana are finishing new stereo recording studios, with up to date equipment, which will allow good records. Up to now, when good sound was needed, some diskeries had to record in Brazil, make the stampers there, and then press the records in Argentina. With the new machinery, this will not be necessary.

Manuel Villareal, general manager of Discos Columbia de Mexico, was a visitor in Buenos Aires recently. Villareal spent several days in Argentina discussing the future action of Columbia in the Latin American markets, Europe and Japan with his label's people in this country and Peter de Rougemont, Columbia's vice-president for Latin America.

Mauricio Brenner, head of Fermata Publishers, unveiled several titles of the tunes recorded in Spanish by Neil Sedaka for RCA Argentina. The songs are "Soy El Amor," local product composed by Ben Molar and Tavarola, "Recuerdos de Ipacaraí," Paraguayan tune also copyrighted originally by Fermata Argentina and "My Yiddishe Momme." As Fermata represents Aldon Music in Argentina, it has the rights to the Greenfield-Sedaka productions, too.

Jose Ruzo of Edami Publishers (Southern Music Representative) expects very much from "Cuando Calienta El Sol," the Hermanos Rigual hit climbing the charts in Italy. Microfon is releasing the Marcellos Ferial version, recorded by Durium, and several local versions are expected. Ruzo also reported to Cash Box that his pubbery has received several inquiries from other countries, regarding "la Guanta," the rhythm created by Marco Marco and presented at the last Mar del Plata Film Festival. Columbia has released the first "guanta" in the Frank Ferrar version, and Ruzo was very satisfied with the arrangement made by Ferrar. Several other recordings are due soon.

The recording companies arrived to an arrangement with the musicians' union, raising their payment from 700 to 850 pesos for every two hour session. This arrangement ended a long strike that obliged diskeries to release exclusively foreign recordings, except those local products that had been recorded before the strike.

Philips has started a daily-hour radio program on Radio Libertad, presenting the latest Philips releases. The title is "Casino Philips del Aire," and it is performed by Nicolas Mancera and Teresa Gutierrez.

Roberto Lambertucci reports that his pubbery, Neumann, has two new titles to work on: "Sao Salvador" and "Marcha do Paredao." Both originated in Brazil, and have several recordings in that country. Spanish lyrics are being prepared, and local version will be arranged.

Gigi Gallo of Fortissimo Americana continues his work with "El Celo in Una Stanza," known here as "Un Cielo Para Los Dos." Up to now there are nine available recordings of this tune, including one in tango rhythm by Francisco Canaro and his orchestra, and other versions by Siro San Roman (Music Hall), Violeta Rivas (RCA), Leda Devi (Tonodisc), Ambar La Fox (Odeon Pops) and others.

Michael Davis reports that the releases of Steve Lawrence on the Ariel label are finding a very good market. The diskery has recently released his second LP and a Compact 33 with "I Don't Care," a new version of "Angelina," a tune that hit the charts a couple of years ago in the Eddie Calvert version.

More about Ariel: the label has put to sale an album recorded by Mito Garcia, with Paraguayan music (guaranias). Some of the titles are "Recuerdos del Paraguay," "Tus Lagrimas," "Mis Noches sin Ti" and "Muy Cerca de Ti."

News from RCA: The Label has released several new singles by Perez Prado ("El Burro"), Esquivel ("Natural Boy"), Jolly Land ("Cuando Cuando Cuando"), Floyd Cramer ("On The Rebound"), The Rocklands ("Peppermint Twist") and two waxings of "Aria di Neve," one in Italian by Sergio Endrigo and another in Spanish by Antonio Prieto b/w by "A Que No Sabes A Quien Vi," penned by Joaquin Prieto. On the LP side, there is a new LP by Mercedes Sosa, modern folk songstress, with several new tunes: "La Zafrera," "Los Hombres Del Rio," and others.

Romiglio Giacompol of Smart Publishers reports that "Poema," the Brazilian hit controlled by his organization, will be published in Italy. Giacompol is also seeking the way of promoting "When The Cats Come Twistin' In," a twist version of "When The Saints . . .." The tune has been waxed by the Mike Pedicin group for ABC-Paramount in the States. Giacompol went to Sao Paulo, Brazil, Aug. 4. He plans to spend several weeks there before returning to Buenos Aires.

Julio Korn Publishers preparing the Spanish lyrics for "I Can't Stop Loving You," the big Ray Charles hit. Another good JK item is "No la Dejes Irse," the tune penned by Dean Reed. The waxing by Tony Vilar (Columbia) has entered the charts, and this may mean a lot for the song.

Columbia is planning a campaign to introduce the "CBS" trade mark in Argentina. In a few weeks, it will start legal actions to change the "Orfeo ICFSA" name to "Discos CBS. SA." In the next months, its records will be labeled CBS Columbia, and then turned gradually to CBS. This is being done —according to the diskery—to use only one name for Columbia records all through the world.

More about Columbia: Los Dango Twins are continuing their series of appearances on TV Channel 13, in Buenos Aires. Now they are performing on the "Show Del Mediodia" TV'er. Julio Sosa has been inked by Channel 11 for the "Yo Te Canto Buenos Aires" program, while the Quinteto Real is already appearing in that program.

Rodriguez Luque, head of Disc Jockey, reports about a new release by Romana Farres, with two local tunes. One of them is titled "Cartas De Ayer," and was penned by two composers from Mar Del Plata, which is becoming a good city for authors (Roberto Cambaré with "Angelica," Argentina's latest big hit, and Marco Marco, composer of "La Guanta" are also from there). Disc Jockey's promotional LP, according to Luque, is running very well. Its title is "Golosinas Musicales" and it has been released in cooperation with Suchard.

Surco has added a folkloric group to its artists: Los Cantores de la Huella. First releases by them are two single 33 records with "Nostalgias," "Siempre Machada," "La Romantica" and "Sapo Cancionero," a good folk success. The diskery expects very much from these artists, as they are doing good promotion to their waxings via personal appearances at dance parties, and on radio and TV.

Odeon has released the third LP of Nat "King" Cole in Spanish. As it has previously been informed, this album was recorded in Mexico, and contains standards as "A Media Luz," "Las Chapanecas," "Piel Canela" and "Platicame." Los Wawanco, Odeon Pops artists, have recorded "Juana Juanete," which is expected to run well; there is a new single by Los Huanca Hua, too: "Chacarera De Mi Pago."

Producciones Fermata has released the second album of the International Pop Orchestra Series. The record belongs to Cameo and is titled "Twelve Great Songs."

Anibal Alverdi of Music Hall reports that his label is making big promotion around the visit of Brazilian songstress Elizete Cardoso. Music Hall has released an LP by Elizete, "El Encanto De Elizete," a couple of weeks ago. The lark records for Copacabana Records of Brazil.

Two Songs — 2 Million

FRANKFURT—Two wax millionaires met recently in the office of publisher Johann Michel, this city. At right is Karl Goetz composer of "Tanze Mit Mir In Den Morgen" which, through the recording of Gerhard Wendland on Philips, sold over a million copies in Germany alone. In the middle is cleffer Norman Petty whose tune "Wheels" was awarded a gold record for reaching the million mark through the Billy Vaughn recording. Publisher Johann Michel (left) of Melodie Der Welt-Progress Music Francis Day & Hunter has the rights on both songs.

SWITZERLAND ....

In Switzerland, a small country of some 5½ million inhabitants, there are three officially spoken languages; German in the northern, eastern and central part; French in the western region and Italian in the south. In the pop field the record market varies from territory to territory with each area demanding hit records and stars in its own language. EP's and LP's are the strongest sellers. Instrumental recordings, acceptable in all territories, enjoy a large slice of the market and local Swiss folk records are always in demand. The latter, besides enjoying a sales boom during the tourist season, are much favored by the Swiss themselves.

Musikvertrieb A.G. of Zurich, headed by Mr. M. A. Rosengarten, carefully plan new folklore recordings every year. These are available on the European Decca label and during the past season the biggest hit in this category has been "Steiner Chilbi." Besides being the exclusive Swiss representative for Decca London, RCA, Warner Brothers, Capitol, Dot, Imperial and Barclay, the activities of Musikvertrieb include the wholesale distribution of TV and radio sets; tape recorders and juke boxes together with their own publishing company. Pop wise the company's biggest sellers in 1961-1962 have been "Good Luck Charm" by Elvis Presley (RCA); Le Petit Gonzales" by Dalida (Barclay); "Geld wie Heu" by Gerd Boettcher (Decca); "Legata a un Granello di Sabbia" by Nico Fidenco (RCA) and "Pepito" by Los Machucambos (Decca). In the classical field Musikvertrieb had a top seller with celebrated pianist Van Cliburn and the outstanding success of the Orchestre de la Suisse Romande under the leadership of Ernest Ansermet is further proof of the importance of classical music in Switzerland. Soundtrack recordings from stage and screen are popular—recent top sellers being "High Society," "The King And I," "Oklahoma," "South Pacific" and "Breakfast at Tiffinay's."

Approximately 75% of the records sold in Switzerland are imported and over 170 labels are represented. There is, in fact, only one pressing plant in Switzerland, that of Turicaphon. Established over 30 years ago Turicaphon undertake pressings for all international marks including HMV, Columbia, Decca, RCA, London and Polydor. They also have their own labels—Elite-Special and Austroton—represented in Switzerland by Musikvertrieb and exported to many international markets. Last year saw not only the modernisation of their factory but also a considerable extension of the Turicaphon repertoire. As well as an established sales organisation in Germany they have recently set up a new company, Centrocord in Austria for the exploitation of not only their own Elite-Special label but many other marks including Sonet, Storyville, Triola and Vogue.

American and British artistes are also popular in Skitzerland. Jecklin & Co. of Switzerland, who besides their record and publishing activities have one of the finest record shops, report that the highly successful concert tour by Ray Charles and The Modern Jazz Quartet recently brought very good sales for their respective disks. The Ray Charles "Twist" L.P. on Atlantic was the first twist disk to hit the market. It was flown in direct from the States late last year and sold almost like a single. Cliff Richard with his first German single won many new Swiss admirers as did Sweden's Siw Malmkvist with her German record of "Danke fur die Blumen." One of the biggest sellers of the past year was "Baby Sitting Boogie" by Ralph Bendix whilst Edith Piaf hit the packpot in the French part of Switzerland with "Je ne Regrette Rein." With the many Italians now working in Switzerland (there are some 300,000 in the German area alone) Italian disks and singers are in demand. Tony Dallara made a come-back with "La Novia" and Adriano Celentano further established his reputation in the Swiss market.

Philips Records had a notable success with "Lettera D'Amore by Italian star Wilma de Angelis which was awarded first prize at the 1961 Zurich Song Festival. Pop wise the highlight of the Philips year was the launching in Switzerland of France's No. 1 teenage start Johnny Hallyday. His million selling disks "Viens Danser Le Twist" and "Retiens La Buit" were backed by personal appearances in Lausanne, Geneva and Biene. Philips have also enjoyed success with established French artistes such as Georges Brassens, Yves Montand, Henri Salvador, Patachou, and Les Freres Jacques.

The Finsterwald and Cantacuzene, Vogue S.A. and Editions de Belmont Group of Companies also report a successful year which included the acquisition of Sinatra's Reprise label for the Swiss market. The first two companies, whose principal activities are the production and distribution of records, have enjoyed chart success with numbers such as "Ballata della Tromba," "Clair de lune a Maubeuge," "Midnight In Moscow," "The Peppermint Twist" and "Romeo." Many foreign recording stars have found popularity in Switzerland through these companies notably Britain's Petula Clark and Kenny Ball; Joey Dee (USA); Pape Bue (Denmark); The Violents (Sweden); Les Copains (France); Nini Rosso (Italy) and The Cave Stompers (Germany). Besides a healthy increase in turnover for the year the Group report the growing success of their low-priced series of L.Ps which are becoming popular with dealers. Editions de Belmont was the sub-publisher of the best selling "Sucu Sucu."

Siemens (Deutsche-Grammophon) is another company whose list of best sellers represents a big tendency to favour foreign stars with an accent. The young American ex-GI Gus Backus established himself in Switzerland with his chart topping "Der Mann Im Mond." On the distaff side the ability of Connie Francis to sing in many languages has brought her chart success in the German speaking part of Switzerland with "Schoner Fremder Mann" (Someone Elses Baby); and in Southern Switzerland with her Italian Waxing of "Tango Della Gelosia" (Jealous Of You). Another notable success for D.G.G. came from Freddy with the evergreen "La Paloma."

EMI's interests in Switzerland are represented by an affiliated company EMIAG, Zurich, headed by Jean Claude Reymond, a well-known figure on the Swiss record scene.

EMIAG arranges the importation and local manufacture of records but does not itself directly engage in wholesale distribution. This is entrusted to three distributors all based in Zurich. Jecklin & Co. handle Columbia and the newly launched EMI label Stateside. HMV and Liberty lines are distributed by Hug & Co. whilst Parlophone, Odeon and Mercury are distributed by Titan A.G. EMI report a steady increase in their share of the Swiss market over the last five years or so. In relation to size and population they regard it as a very satisfactory outlet for records; the per capita consumption being regarded as amongst the highest in Europe and only slightly behind that of the U.K. and Germany.

Cedric Dumont "Mr. Music Man of Switzerland" reports a highly successful 12 months for his publishing company Edition Coda with three of the year's best sellers "Wheels," "Ramona" and "Hello Mary Lou." As the craze broke out in Switzerland, Edition Coda had success with "Twist Twist" recorded by the Chakachas on R.C.A.; The Twist Boys on Polydor and on Ariola by the Jochen Brauer Sextet etc. Dumont also arranged for the Ex Libras diskery to release several records from Oriole Records London. Ex Libras also successfully introduced "the little L.P." with six titles on a 7" 33⅓ rpm disk.

BENELUX....

Last 12 Months

The Benelux Record Scene during season 1961/62 showed a rather serious fall in Belgium of single records sales, which was not the case in Holland. It was Chubby Checker (Let's Twist Again!) in particular and the sudden popularity of the Twist in general, who saved this dangerous position somewhat. Since January it was Joey Dee who had to be considered as King Of Twist in the Belgian area.

All-time bestselling artists remained Paul Anka, Elvis Presley, Cliff Richard, Helen Shapiro, Brenda Lee, Conny Froboess, Freddy Quinn, just to mention some.

The Belgian Hit Parade was still strongly influenced by the U.S. pop market, especially in the Flemish part of the country. Apart from the (Dutch sung) number one hit "Och Was Ik Maar," not one original Flemish song or a Flemish cover-version of a foreign hit made the Top Three. U.S. repertoire however has strong competition in the Walloon part of Belgium from French and home-made products. German artists like Conny Froboess, Peter Kraus, Rex Gildo and Freddy Quinn are still popular, but only in Flanders. On the other hand there are a number of Belgian artists who became very popular abroad, such as The Cousins, Les Chakachas, Louis Neefs, Jacques Brel.

There was a considerable increase of LP-sales in Benelux, in both classical and popular fields, and the general education goes in the direction of stereo LP's, but rather slowly.

Singles are still solid sellers in Holland, with sure signs of decrease of interest for the American product and an increase of interest for European artists (Cliff Richard, Shadows, Helen Shapiro, Robertino, Conny Froboess . . .). Home-made products, such as those of the Blue Diamonds, Anneke Grönloh, Ria Valk, Dutch Swing College Band, Malando, Johnny Hoes and New Orleans Syncopators are very popular, not only in Holland but also in many countries of the world.

Returning to the Belgian record-scene, we have to point out that the cheap (single) records (sold at $0.80) did harm to the normally priced records of the well-known labels, which are sold at $1.30. This is absolutely too high. In fact, Belgium is the European country with the highest record-prices. This must be a result of the very high taxes, a.o. There's, at first, 16% turnover tax on the duties of the record (Holland: 4%). Import-duties are: 16% on the invoice-price (Holland: 13.6%; for countries, united in the E.E.G. even: 8.4%), plus 13% turnovertax also on the invoice-price (Holland: 5%). There are no export-duties. For sheet-music there are the same duties. All countries except America are connected with the Berner Convention, and this means that import-duties have to be paid by the country of receipt. For the U.S., the invoice-price must be increased with the copyrights and on this amount, import-duties and turnover taxes must be paid.

For season 1962/63 we predict an increasing activity in the Benelux record-market. Rock 'n' Roll and Twist will lose interest more and more, but there will be an increasing demand for good ballads, classical music, pop music of higher standards than we were used to in past years, jazz and very probably Country & Western.

WHAT PHONOGRAM MEANS TO HOLLAND'S RECORD INDUSTRY

Five Facts

worth considering if the matter of your representation in Holland should come up:

✓ The selling operation

For each label it represents, Phonogram keeps a separate sales force on its toes. Each group has its own merchandising manager, directing eighteen field men.

✓ Streamlined Service

Phonogram has the know-how and the equipment to get records, with accompanying invoice, on their way to dealers less than 20 minutes after an order comes in.

✓ Dealer Cultivation

Phonogram appreciates the position of the dealer, values the rôle he plays in selling the consumer and is always in close touch with this vital link in the Dutch merchandising chain.

✓ Promotion and Publicity

Phonogram backs up its sales and service operations by all the promotion and publicity techniques familiar to its counterparts in the U.S.—plus some of its own.

✓ Ever-growing margins

In Holland's growing disk market, Phonogram (top labels Decca, Philips, London, Mercury and Fontana) can boast faster increases in their shares than competitors.

PHILIPS . . .

A FLEXIBLE STRUCTURE

Philips' Phonographic Industries consist of an international organization, located in Baarn (the Netherlands), and of various national organizations, each of which takes care of Philips' phonographic interests in its own country. The selling of records

THEO VAN DER MEER
General Manager
N. V. Phonogram—Amsterdam

under Philips' labels is carried out by these national organisations in their respective markets. The international organisation functions over matters connected with such subjects as general policy, international repertoire (e.g. classical music), research, techniques, legal problems of a universal nature, communications in the Philips' Record Group, etc. It gives services of various kinds to the national organizations and coordinates international operations.

Besides acting as the Philips' sales organisations inside national territories, the national organisations produce popular recordings featuring local talent, in many cases manage their own pressing plants, adopt international policies and rules to local condtions, and so on. The belief in Philips' Phonographic Industries that the men on the spot, the men who handle a specific national market, know best about this market has for long been a basic principle of operation.

PHILIPS IN HOLLAND

The national Philips' sales organisation in the Dutch market is N.V. Phonogram, Amsterdam. Mr. Theo van der Meer joined this company as its General Manager in 1961. He thinks that what he calls the "flexible structure" of Philips' Phonographic Industries "results in a fine balance between the requirements of national markets and the unifying effect offered by the Baarn international organization."

On the Common Market prospects in Europe Mr. Van der Meer's views are optimistic. His company has succeeded in promoting Dutch recording talent, so far as its success is not entirely dependent on the Dutch language, in other countries by way of the national Philips' organisations. The European Common Market will in his opinion extend the possibilities for the exchange of recording talent between the participating nations. Mr. Van der Meer sees immense advantages in the "flexible structure" of the Philips Record Group, which is clearly well suited to make a rapid exploitation of the European trends of economic integration.

Mr. Van der Meer remains firm in the belief that the growing economic unity of Europe will not result in something comparable to the vast, unified market of the United States. Between the European countries, working together in economic affairs, considerable differences caused by language barriers, national outlooks, and national mentalities will persist. One has to recognise this and then to understand thoroughly the mosaïc of European attitudes: this will eventually prove the key to good business results.

There is, moreover, another significant difference between the United States and Europe, in particular vis-à-vis the promotion of records. "The European TV and radio," Mr. Van deer Meer points out, "is largely non-commercial." Promotion of and publicity for records in Europe call for different methods. I sometimes have the feeling that American people concerned in the record industry do not always fully recognise that in their dealings with Europe."

There are a thousand record shops in the Netherlands (population 11.5 million). Contacts between manufacturers, importers and dealers are intensive. "Dutch dealers, who sell other electrical and electronic commodities too, have discovered the value of their record departments as a means of attracting a consistently large flow of potential customers," says Mr. Van der Meer. "Since buying records in the Netherlands (as in the other European countries) entails a far bigger investment for most people than it does for Americans, due to differences in wage-levels, the Dutch prefer to scrutinize, undisturbed, the record stocks in a dealer's shop before carefully making their final choice. There are at least a hundred Dutch shops selling records only."

The General Manager of N.V. Phonogram is proud of his market. "Dutch buying interest in the classical repertoire is still growing. We have loyal collectors of American pops, French chansons, old and new jazz. But the Dutch popular artists themselves draw many followers, a fact which explains the big turnover in the teenager type of music. At the same time, this turnover is symptomatic of the good economic conditions at present prevailing in the Netherlands."

THE BRITISH PHILIPS ORGANISATION

It all started with PB.100. This heavy 78 rpm shellac was the first record ever made and issued by Philips Records Ltd., the British national organisation.

That was in January 1953, and the release for that month totalled 8 records! In January, 1962 this same company issued 33 LP's, 10 EP's and 21 singles.

The staff numbered 25 in 1953 and records were pressed by an independent company. But things have changed in the intervening 9 years. The staff now numbers over a 100. The factory is no longer independent but a fully integrated part of Philips Records Limited employing over 300 people and making millions of records per year in the most modern conditions. It has one of the most modern electroplating processes in Europe. In fact, today, Philips Records Limited is one of Britain's major record companies, releasing records on five individual labels.

The facade of Philips Records Limited's London headquarters, Stanhope House, is cream and calm, a 19th century building humming with 20th century activity.

LESLIE GOULD
General Manager
Philips Records Ltd.—London

Here records are planned and produced, contracts are signed, sleeves are designed and ideas become recorded realities. Stanhope House is the headquarters of a nationwide selling force responsible for distribution of hundreds of new recordings each month. It houses a busy Advertising and Publicity Department, an Export Department that distributes British-made recordings throughout the world, Exploitation and Sales Promotion Departments, as well as a modern studio where some of the greatest artists of our time have put their talent on record.

Stanhope House also boasts a splendid conference room with a spectacular view over Hyde Park. This lovely room is the scene of receptions and press parties for visiting recording celebrities.

In 1959 a new decentralized system of distribution was introduced and the company now has one of the most efficient services to dealers in the country. Four depots—at Croydon, Leeds, Birmingham and Manchester—provide a positive link with retail outlets and a consequent link with the record buying public. Southern England, the Midlands, Northern Ireland, Northern England and Scotland are serviced from these local depots and representatives and salesmen based at these depots operate locally. This system of direct distribution affords a speedy supply of record stocks, information, and promotion material to retailers.

Speaking of the success of Philips Records Ltd. and its growth from a small company to a major force in the British record industry, the General Manager, Mr. Leslie Gould, said:

"Our policy was to grow slowly but surely, we knew what we wanted to do and we are doing it, growing steadily each year without over-stretching our resources. This has paid off, especially in our distribution policy and quest for new recording talent, we feel that with the experience we have gained, we can now be confident that our expansion will be considerable in the next five years."

Originally issuing records only on the Philips' label, Philips Records Limited is now responsible for distribution on no fewer than five labels—Philips, Fontana, CBS, the Caedmon series of Spoken Word and the famed Riverside Jazz recordings—these in themselves incorporating other small labels—and the average number of LP's, EP's and singles issued annually is round about a thousand. A far cry from the modest first issue of eight!

PHILIPS

MAKE RECORDS IN MORE WAYS THAN ONE

Philips records are made right round the globe and distributed in as many as fifty-five countries. And they are records to which the world's greatest performers, the world's most successful entertainers, eagerly entrust their artistry. Here, indeed, are records labelled for success. They come from Philips, which means: superlative quality and sales appeal.

SWEDEN . . . . Last 12 Months

1962 has been a very bad year, it is the general feeling here. January started unusually good and record people expected 1962 to be a very good year, but February to May saw a down period such as never before. In June, biz looked like it was going up a little again, but if it will be permanent or not remains to be seen when the new season starts in middle of August.

Now, in the middle of July, Sweden is a "closed" country. Offices still opening, run with an absolute minimum of people, factories who could, have closed during the last three weeks of July, and thousands and thousands of Swedes on vacation are complaining about the daily rain.

In exchange, one can hear more foreign languages than Swedish on the street and in the shops in Stockholm and one or two other big cities in Sweden these days. The record industry is aware of the invasion of foreign tourists, and the number of so called souvenir records grows bigger and bigger every year. No doubt, there is a good market for those records, but on the other hand, only a few cities get the advantage of any great number of tourists, which limits the sale.

There is no cooperation between government radio or TV in Sweden and the record companies. An evening paper, with great sympathies for the ruling social democratic party, has a columnist who has got the word "promotion" on his brain, and this on the other hand, has frightened the government non-commercial station so much that they have found it necessary to start censoring show programs, to make sure that an artist is not singing a song he/she just recorded. Due to this, visiting foreign artists have nothing to do in Swedish TV, unless they agree not to sing their most recent recordings. This situation, which makes things a little chaotic, has kept the Swedish TV viewers from seeing visiting artists such as Bobby Vee, Connie Francis, Paul Anka, etc., etc.

Sweden is a country not limited to its own language. In fact, judging from the opinion of today's young record buyers, it rather hurts than helps a record if it is in Swedish language. However, there are almost regularly at least one, sometimes two Swedish songs among the Top Ten in the Charts.

It might not be of particular interest to the music trade, but it very well shows the tendencies during 1962 when studying a report from Stockholm, showing how much or little money people spent on entertainment during the first three months of the year. It was reported that the number of admission tickets to cinemas, show theatres, dance and sport events during January-March 1962 was 2,417,000 against 2,643,000 during the same period 1961. The worst month was February when 773,000 tickets were sold against 880,000 in February 1961. All these figures are from Stockholm only, and have nothing to do with record biz, but the general tendencies can be seen, and it is obvious that if there had been available statistics from the record companies, the result would have been about the same.

THE VIOLENTS

This instrumental group was formed two years ago. Their lucky break came when a Swedish DJ played their first record, "ALPENS ROS," an old folk song. Since then THE VIOLENTS are considered the number one rock group in Scandinavia. Among their latest releases are "TRINK, BRÜDERLEIN TRINK," "ANACONDA," "LIEBESTWIST," "GHIA" and "BANDIDO."

SONET

JERRY WILLIAMS

JERRY WILLIAMS is the featured singer with THE VIOLENTS. He began singing in 1957, working together with Little Gerhard. He formed his own band three years later and joined The Violents this year. He has recorded with The Violents and is now touring with this group. He has appeared on TV in Sweden and Finland. This spring he smashed with "DARLING NELLY GREY" and his latest recording is "HELLO GOODBYE."

SONET

BORIS

BORIS started out as a rock and roll singer and was regarded as the King of Rock in Sweden in the fifties. He is now Sweden's number one jazz singer and this year won the male vocal poll in Orkester Journalen. He often appears on TV and radio and has toured the whole of Scandinavia. Ray Charles is one of his favourites. His latest recordings are "HELLO AMERICA" and "CHATTANOOGA CHOO CHOO."

SONET

CAVE STOMPERS

During the past three years, critics and musicians all over Europe have really begun to pay attention to CAVE STOMPERS. Last year they appeared in Germany together with Muggsy Spanier and George Lewis. This year they made a tour of England. They were voted Scandinavia's top trad band this year by the readers of the jazz magazine Orkester Journalen. Their recordings of "GIPSY LAMENT" and "CAN CAN" were on the charts in Scandinavia and Germany.

STORYVILLE

ERNIE ENGLUND

ERNIE ENGLUND of Swedish ancestry grew up in the U.S. He started his career as a trumpeter with the Les Brown Band. Before moving to Sweden he also played with, among others, Randy Brooks, Herbie Fields and Art Mooney. He has had a long row of big hits. His latest hit was "SUMMERNIGHT IN GOTHLAND" ("HOMESICK FOR NEW ENGLAND"). Ernie is one of Scandinavia's top entertainers and he is enjoying tremendous success with his own band.

GAZELL

RUNE ÖFWERMAN

RUNE ÖFWERMAN is one of Sweden's top jazz pianists and his jazz records with his own trio are selling like pop records in Sweden. Among his biggest jazz record sellers are "OLD SPICE" and "FUNKY FESTIVAL," both released in the U.S. under the Pacific Jazz label. Rune Öfwerman is now entering the pop field with an original instrumental recording of "ANTON'S TWIST" and "BIG BASS BOOGIE."

Knappupp — Sweden's Show Business Empire

From A Novelty Act And An Acrobatic Act Came Sweden's Multi-Million Dollar Show Business And Record Empire.

STOCKHOLM — AB Knäppupp, a leading Swedish showbusiness organization, celebrates its 10th birthday this year, after a decade of enormous progress.

On October 10, 1952, Knäppupp started its activity with a small show, which was the first "crazy-entertainment" in Sweden. The show cost $10,000 to produce and went on to set new records in Swedish theatre business. And yet, this was only the start. Today every seventh Swede sees one of Knäppupp's shows or musicals, and the company sells more than half a million records every year, a huge figure for a country with a population of only seven million. It means that every 14th Swede buys a Knäppupp record every year. Comparing figures with a record company in the U.S. this would mean an annual sale of approximately 13 million records a year.

In addition to their own recordings, Knäppupp distributes such American labels as Dot, Imperial, Kapp and Request, and the Danish Triola label. The music taste in Sweden is somewhat similar to that in the States, which means that Pat Boone, Fats Domino, Billy Vaughn, Rick Nelson, Brian Hyland, Roger Williams, and others, are very popular in Sweden.

Knäppupp also has its own booking agency, and is looking forward to booking its American recording artists to the Swedish audiences. The propaganda value in such a personal appearance was shown very well in 1960 when Pat Boone visited Sweden and gave a couple of concerts arranged by Knäppupp. The great success during his visit raised the sales figures of his records tremendously.

2400 spectators every night watch the shows at this tent theatre, which during the five month summer season tours all of Sweden, visiting 67 cities. It means great publicity for Knäppupp's phonograph records, declares Felix Alvo, president of the company, also the owner of Stockholm's second biggest independent theatre where the walls are covered with publicity material about Knäppupp's Swedish and American record stars.

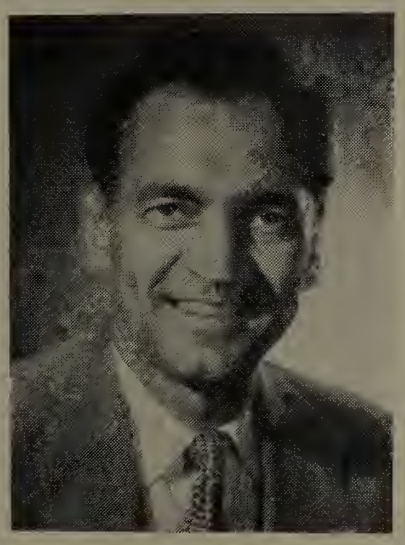
MEET FELIX ALVO

Felix Alvo, president of AB Knäppupp was born in Njurunda, northern Sweden, on February 9, 1918. He entered this world as Felix Alvar Johansson, a name he continued to use during many years when he worked at factories but had secret dreams about joining a touring circus.

In the early 40's, he started a trapeze act with his brother, and the two began to get small engagements as The Red Devils, in smaller spots in northern Sweden. But in 1944 his brother was hurt in an accident during the act, and Felix began looking for a new act.

When the swinging mast artist Captain Willners was killed in Arboga, Alvo bought his 115 ft. swinging mast for $300. With this move, the name Alvar was terminated.

Alvo, when he was known as Felix Alvar, the daring young man on the 115 ft. mast



FELIX ALVO
President, Knappupp

In his place came "the King of the Swinging Mast, Captain Felix Alvo" —"the most daring act you've ever seen; you don't believe your eyes," the advertisement said. Felix Alvo soon became one of the busiest artists in Sweden, and the whole theatre world of Europe tried to get his signature on a contract.

After five years, in 1950, he returned from a six months tour of England. His risky act had given him a "nice" Bank account, and a desire to make more money in show biz, but in a less risky way.

The swinging mast business had mainly been a summer season job. The Swedish winter is no ideal time for such events. However, Felix Alvo had been busy in show biz in winters as well. Every New Year's Eve he would hire amusement halls and arrange New Year Shows around midnight. At one of those shows, he had hired a young pianist and singer named Povel Ramel.

Ramel and Alvo soon began discussing business ideas. Ramel had his own group of artists and a style of his own. A stage show with this group was planned. With Alvo's $10,000 the show opened at Lorensberg Theatre in Gothenburg on October 10, 1952. And the rest is history. Sweden had a new show style, which had come to stay. The show was so different that all its artists became famous overnight.

Felix Alvo gave up his swinging mast act, but his reputation had flown all over the world. He still receives letters from show biz people in the United States, who would like to hire Captain Felix Alvo and his act. But he no longer takes such bookings. Handling Sweden's biggest show biz organization and always looking for new contracts from abroad is more than a full time job. And in addition he no longer has the mast. He did keep it during the first years with Knäppupp, in the event things didn't turn out the way he had expected. But it wasn't long before he realized that Knäppupp had become the kind of organization that would survive. Then and only then did he sell the mast. The former factory worker had established himself as a show biz king, running theatres, tent shows, record companies, a booking agency, film company, juke box dept., etc.

It is well worth noting that Knäppupp came up with new ideas, thanks to the young people behind it when it started. Povel Ramel was 30, Felix Alvo was 34, when the whole thing started. Today they are ten years older, but as Povel Ramel recently put it: "Building up this organization has kept us young, as we have not had much time to celebrate birthdays."

MEET POVEL RAMEL

Presenting Knäppupp means presenting Povel Ramel, the blue-blooded Baron of Swedish nobility, who showed very little interest in following in father's footsteps and becoming a lawyer. He found music and composing too interesting.

To start from the beginning, Povel Ramel was born in Stockholm on June 1, 1922. During the forties, while still in college, he found the way to the college jazz band, where he soon became a popular pianist. As a side-

Gold For Pat Boone

When Stig Wallgren, publicity man of AB Knäppupp, visited Hollywood in July 1959, he had the pleasure of presenting Pat Boone with a Gold Disk for the sale of his "Love Letters In the Sand," which sold over 100,000 copies in Sweden.

Knäppupp engaged itself in several campaigns to make Pat Boone one of the most popular record artists in Sweden. Among others, there was a Pat Boone fan-club formed in cooperation with a weekly magazine. The fan-club got several thousand members in almost no time at all.

line, he also wrote his own songs, not the conventional type of pop songs, "but very good numbers," his friends said. They advised him to contact a record company.

Young Povel had a song, "Johansson's Boogie Woogie Waltz," an old-fashioned waltz with a boogie woogie beat and comedy lyrics. He went to a record company, presented the song and wondered. Since most companies felt his material was not commercial, he had to keep on trying new companies.

Three years later, EMI recorded the song on its His Master's Voice label, sung by Povel himself. The boogie woogie waltz quickly became one of the milestones in the Swedish record biz history.

A Povel Ramel song was considered "different," but at the same time it had hit possibilities.

Back in the days when only 78 rpm records existed, it was understood that a 10" record was the only type of release with which to get a top seller. A 12" record was considered more difficult, and no one tried it. Until Povel made his "The Gräsänklingsblues" (The Grass Widower's Blues). The lyric, half in English, half in Swedish was "typically Ramel" but music specialists agreed that the composition could just as well been signed W. C. Handy or any other of the famous blues composers. And it was recorded as a 12" record. It became a top seller in no time at all.

Povel Ramel was often heard on radio, in fact so often that SBC decided to give him a full-time job. He got his own room, his own desk and, since SBC was a government company, he got himself a life-time job. However, six months later, he left SBC, officially to make a trip to the Pacific. The result of the trip was new songs in which Ramel in his own way described such places as Ceylon and Bangkok and the Pacific Islands.

After starting Knäppupp with Felix Alvo, Povel has been a star in the stage shows, in films and in many tent tours. New songs, new records, mainly from the shows, had hit big in Sweden. One of them deserves special mention. It was "Naturbarn" (Nature Boy) and it came from a show at a time when the world had just began to take to calypso music. At the opening show, "Naturbarn" was a typical song of around three minutes in length. But during each performance, Povel added new gags to the song, and when the show closed, the song took about 15 minutes. Everybody agreed that with this song Povel Ramel had managed to "kill" calypso music in one of the most outstanding performances ever seen on a Swedish stage.

The vice-president in AB Knäppupp is also a very busy man, even if he does not personally appear in every new Knäppupp show. But he is the author of most of the numbers, which is the best guarantee of the "genuine Knäppupp style" which is a tradition in today's show biz life in Sweden.

The Motion Picture Adventures Of Knappupp

AB Knäppupp went into film production at an early stage of its existence. So far, the company has made seven feature films, all of which have been great successes and Knäppupp has since become a well established name in the film biz as well as in music trade.

However, with the Knäppupp films being made primarily with Knäppupp's own artists, they have all been a mixture of comedies and musicals. The top success was "Ra-Ta-Taa" (hard to translate but the title refers to the sound of the trumpet blowing before the battle starts). Many critics considered this film one of the funniest ever made in Sweden, and based on its great success, the audience must have felt the same way.

For the last two years, Knäppupp has not made any new films. Cash Box asked Felix Alvo: Is it because of the much criticized entertainment taxes or because of the competition from other media such as TV?

"Not at all. The audience always appreciates a good film. But we have been too busy in other areas of showbusiness and as a result have not had time for films. But at the moment we are planning to return to the film biz again."

Besides their own film production, Knäppupp is also importing films to Sweden, among others, they have been very successful with several Italian imports during recent years.

Stig Wallgren, publicity man for Knappupp, with Fats Domino when they met in California a few years ago during one of Wallgren's visits to the United States.

Knappupp In The Record Biz

Window display of Rick Nelson's record in Sweden.

Successful in so many other fields of showbusiness, it was no surprise when it was announced that the Knappupp organization was forming its own record department and was calling it Knappupp Records.

Almost from the very start, Knäppupp began to press and distribute the American Dot label in Sweden. Kapp followed shortly thereafter and later Imperial. The latter, however, was called California Records here, since the German label Imperial already had the name registered. Close cooperation with Morks Musikforlag in Copenhagen (handling the above American labels in Denmark), added the Danish Triola label to those handled by Knäppupp. A couple of German labels, Bella Musica and Jupiter, were also added to the list, in addition to the American Request Records.

Knäppupp always tried to use new and fresh ideas. And of course, they also tried new ways to sell records. If a weekly magazine could have "resalers," working on a commission basis at working places such as factories, etc., why not sell records the same way. Knäppupp tried it, and discovered it was a very good idea. Many people, who for one or another reason considered a visit to a record shop inconvenient, had nothing against buying a record where they worked. Knäppupp noticed growing sales not only for the Swedish Knäppupp label, but also for those American and European labels they handled.

It is no doubt that these "new methods" were unusual. For some reasons, there is a feeling that records sale should be limited to record shops by specialists who know the trade, but on the other hand, it is also obvious that every trade has to find new ways in stimulating public interest. The present situation in the record trade in Sweden makes it necessary for record people to do their best to meet competition, and the step taken by Knäppupp might only be one of many ways which has to be taken sooner or later.

Rack sales, record clubs offering records via mail order sale to members, and many other things have been tried during the past 12 months. More advertising than before, use of commercial radio stations, are other new methods tried.

Felix Alvo has explained Knäppupp's search for new ways to stimulate the interest in records by saying: "In these days, when modern developments have made it easier and more comfortable for people to go from one continent to another, it seems necessary to have every other industry following. There might be plenty of record shops, but it is still an effort for people to stop at a retail shop. Naturally, it is more convenient if they can be offered the new record releases at their doorsteps, more or less. And I think our use of 'resalers' at factories is something like that. They get the new records just as easy and regularly as they get their salary checks, and I have discovered that it is a method that pays. We have increased our sales figures even in a time when there is a general recession all over the record trade. But Knäppupp is of course not satisfied with using these methods only. Like everything else, we have to improve and we will certainly keep our eyes open for any new ideas that can be of use."

So far, AB Knäppupp has been able to present its artists with three Gold Disks. Pat Boone got one for "Love Letters In the Sand" (Dot) in 1959, Martin Ljung one for his satirical "Rock-Fnykis" (Knäppupp) in 1960 and Robertino one for his "O Sole Mio" (Triola) in 1961. All those for the sale of 100,000. Knäppupp looks for every opportunity possible to add humor to a situation. When in 1961 the company discovered that one of its recordings had sold 50,000, and since this record had Martin Ljung on one side and Povel Ramel at the back side, they said: "Martin has sold 50,000, actually Povel must also have sold 50,000," so Knäppupp pressed a Gold Disk, and gave one half to each of the two artists.

Jimmy Bailey of Dot Records, distributed in Sweden by Knappupp, visited Stockholm last Spring and found that Jack Ross' Dot recording of "Ching Ching" was a top seller in Sweden. Above he is seen with Alvo.

Legit Theatre:

Knappupp's Next Area For Expansion

During the winter of 1961-62 Felix Alvo and Knäppupp entered the more serious stage of the show world by presenting "My Fair Lady" at the Circus Theatre in Gothenburg. Another success was added to the many others Knäppupp has achieved since its inception.

When "My Fair Lady" had closed, Felix Alvo packed his trunks and went to New York. However, people in record business did not see too much of him during his stay, since he was spending most of his time on Broadway trying to see as many plays and shows as possible.

Will this be the next department of the Knäppupp concern? Cash Box asked Felix Alvo.

"The Swedish people are by tradition very theatre conscious. They appreciate a good play, and when such a play is presented, nothing can keep them away from the theatre. Our experiment with "My Fair Lady" convinced me that here is something well worth every possible attention. A good play, a good musical, a good show . . . why shouldn't Knäppupp do its best to give the audience exactly what it likes most?"

To this can be added that "Carnival" is next on Knäppupp's schedules. When and where the musical will be presented, is not yet known.

SWEDEN'S TOP SELLERS OF 1962

1	Walk On By (Ivan Mogull Music/Sweden Music)	128 points
2	Zwei kleine Italiener (Sweden Music)	125 points
3	Good Luck Charm (Belinda (Scandinavia) AB)	122 points
4	Let's Twist Again (Belinda (Scandinavia) AB)	110 points
5	Don't Read the Letter (Robert Mellin (Scandinavia) AB)	101 points
6	*Sol och vår (Europa-Produktion)	84 points
7	Chattanooga Choo Choo (Reuter & Reuter)	83 points
8	*Te' dans mä' Karlstatösera (Nordiska Musikförlaget)	79 points
9	Ching Ching (Happy José) (Sonet Music)	77 points
10	You Can Have Her (Ivan Mogull Music/Sweden Music)	76 points

The Swedish charts had 49 songs among the Top Ten during the first 26 weeks of the year. Only few of them continued as top sellers for more than a month, very many appeared in the charts only one week, after which they disappeared from the charts as well as record shops.

"Walk On By" started selling in Sweden in beginning of March, and continued at the charts for 15 weeks, of which it held the No. 1 spot for four weeks. It was the Leroy Van Dyke recording on Mercury who made the money in Sweden. Publisher: Ivan Mogull & Sweden Music.

"Zwei kleine Italiener" or "Tina and Marina," Germany's contribution to the Luxembourg song festival this year did very well for 11 weeks. Most of the money went to the original German version with Conny on Columbia, but a local recording with two newcomers who called themselves Tina and Marina (on Karusell) shared in very well. Publisher: Sweden Music.

"Good Luck Charm," the Elvis Presley record was No. 1 for eight weeks, and still among the top sellers when the first half year ended. Publisher: Belinda (Scandinavia) AB.

"Let's Twist Again" appeared among the top ten for 16 weeks, which is the most any song managed during 1962. The record as well as the dance got plenty of promotion by Twist competitions arranged all over Sweden, among others by the publisher of this Chubby Checker recording, Belinda (Scandinavia) AB.

"Don't Read the Letter..." is an American song which is more or less unknown in its original versions. A Swedish recording titled "Läs inte brevet jag skrev dej" by Siv Malmquist on Metronome became the top seller in beginning of 1962. Publisher: Robert Mellin (Scandinavia) AB.

"Sol och vår" (Sun and spring), Sweden's contribution to the Luxembourg song Festival made well enough to end up among the top sellers of the year. Inger Berggren, who sang the song in Luxembourg, made the top selling version on His Master's Voice. Publisher: Europa-Produktion.

"Chattanooga Choo Choo" with Floyd Cramer on RCA is still doing very good in Sweden and seems to have all chances to survive the summer period. Publisher: Reuter & Reuter.

"Te' dans mä' Karlstatösera" is a Swedish oldie, made by a local west-Swedish teenage group who became internationally well-known by this song. Sven Ingvars' Quartet on Philips was on the top of the charts when 1962 began with this recording. Publisher: Nordiska Musikförlaget.

"Ching Ching" or "Happy José" was on the top of the charts in March and April. Jack Ross on Dot was top selling version, but also some other versions did very well here. Publisher: Sonet Music.

"You Can Have Her" was unknown in its original version, but the Swedish version titled "Sån't är livet" (Such is life) with Anita Lindblom on Fontana topped the charts when 1962 began and did it so well that it got a Gold Disk after the sale of 100,000 records. Swedish publisher: Ivan Mogull and Sweden Music.

NORWAY . . .

Norway is different from the other Scandinavian countries as far as the sources for the pop music taste is concerned. Local radio stations or TV has very little to do with the records the Norwegian asks for. On the other hand, the continental commercial Radio Luxembourg plays a great part as almost everybody listens to the stations, and particularly the "Top Twenty" program. A record on Luxembourg's Hit Parade almost automatically becomes a top seller also in Norway. This on the other hand, gives records from other parts of the world, including Norwegian records, very little chance to become top sellers. And since German and French records, only occasionally are played over the Luxembourg station, those records also find Norway a difficult market.

In 1962, a record company, Egil Monn Iversen A/S, decided to break this influence from Luxembourg. The company started a series of Norwegian recordings, planning to do its best to present Norwegian recordings of almost every song that is translated into Norwegian. This might be a daring step as any local recording costs money to make, but if nobody buys it, due to the Luxembourg station, it might be a bad affair. However, the more Norwegian recordings there are at the market, the more local records the local radio and TV stations have to choose from, and this might very well create a new interest among the teenage record buyers.

Naturally, Egil Monn Iversen A/S is not the first company to make local recordings. There are more than 20 labels making pop records in Norwegian, and if they are lucky, this might help to get more local songs on the charts, and perhaps also help to make the Norwegian charts more individual than they are now, when the Norwegian Top Ten looks more or less as a carbon copy of Radio Luxembourg's.

ICELAND . . .

Iceland is the smallest of the Scandinavian countries. There is a very active record trade, with not less than three companies making domestic recordings on five different labels. A fourth company deals with imported labels only.

Iceland has no TV, but the sale of TVs is very good, it is reported. The American military camp at Keflavik, south of Reykjavik, has its own TV station serving the American forces. The programs might not be made for the Icelandic audiences, but there is no law against watching them. In the Icelandic Parliament there have been heard voices, particularly from the communists, asking for such a law, declaring that "those programs hurt our old Icelandic culture."

The number of Icelandic records made every year can be estimated to around 30 to 50 records released. Most active is Islenzkir Tónar, a label being on the local charts regularly with usually several records among the Top Ten.

Icelandic record companies and music publishers cooperate very closely with record companies and publishers in Oslo and Copenhagen. There have been attempts to start some cooperation between Reykjavik and Stockholm, but so far, this has failed, perhaps mainly because of language problems. Icelandic might be a Scandinavian language, but at least Swedes find it very difficult if not impossible to understand.

NORWAY'S BEST SELLERS DURING 1962

1	You Can Have Her (Ivan Mogull Music & Sweden Music)	163 points
2	Let's Twist Again (Belinda (Scandinavia) AB)	121 points
3	Wings of a Dove (Belinda (Scandinavia) AB)	107 points
4	Walk On By (Ivan Mogull Music & Sweden Music)	101 points
5	Good Luck Charm (Belinda (Scandinavia) AB)	98 points
6	The Young Ones (Musikk-Huset A/S)	94 points
7	Zwei kleine Italiener (Sweden Music)	86 points
8	You're the Only Good Thing (Egil Monn Iversen A/S)	68 points
9	Multiplication (Belinda (Scandinavia) AB)	61 points
10	*Æille så ner som a Ingebjörg (Musikk-Huset A/S)	59 points

"You Can Have Her" or in Swedish "Sån't är livet" was a recording not promoted over the continental commercial radio station Radio Luxembourg, and therefore it was surprising that Anita Lindblom on Fontana managed to top the charts for not less than seven weeks and become the real top seller of 1962. Publisher: Ivan Mogull and Sweden Music, Stockholm.

"Let's Twist Again" with Chubby Checker on Columbia was on the charts for 19 weeks. It never reached the No. One spot, but it managed to make Twist very popular all over Norway. Published by Belinda (Scandinavia) AB in Stockholm.

"Wings of a Dove," or in Norwegian, "Det var du som sa' nei," was Grynet Molvig's debut in the charts. Her RCA recording topped the charts for three weeks. Publisher: Belinda (Scandinavia) AB, Stockholm.

"Walk On By" with Leroy Van Dyke on Mercury has been an all-Scandinavian Hit during 1962. Topped the charts in Norway for four weeks in February-March. Publisher: Ivan Mogull and Sweden Music, Stockholm.

"Good Luck Charm" was the No. One on the charts when second half year started. The Elvis Presley record seems to have all chances to survive the summer season, and so far it has been on the top for six weeks, and on the charts for 12 weeks. Publisher: Belinda (Scandinavia) AB.

"The Young Ones" with Cliff Richard on Columbia has been on the charts for 20 weeks during the year, but never managed to get up at the top. Publisher: Musikk-Huset A/S.

"Zwei kleine Italiener," the German Song Festival contribution, is still on the charts and seems to do well for several more weeks. The Conny Froboess recording on Columbia has been an all-Scandinavian top seller. Publisher: Sweden Music, Stockholm.

"You're the Only Good Thing" with Jim Reeves on RCA is one of those songs who had plenty of appeals to Norwegian record buyers. It did not make any noise in the other Scandinavian countries, where, after all, the music taste is not too far from each other. Publisher: Egil Monn Iversen A/S.

"Multiplication," the Bobby Darin (Atlantic) recording which originally was not supposed to be made. Darin sang the song in a film, and many in Europe believed it had sales possibilities. Atlantic finally agreed to release the record, and the success followed. Publisher: Belinda (Scandinavia) AB in Stockholm.

"Æille så ner som a Ingebjörg," the only Norwegian song among the top ten during the first six months of 1962. It is a chanson-like song, not too much like today's hits on records, but it has something that stays in the ears after the record has been played. Still among the top sellers when the second half year started. Publisher: Musikk-Huset A/S.

Comments: Norway is more or less bound to the Continental commercial radio station, Radio Luxembourg, and a song played in the Top Twenty program in Luxembourg almost immediately becomes a Hit in Norway. That's what makes it so difficult for domestic songs and, usually, songs from neighborhood countries to become top sellers in Norway.

Record sale in Norway is comparatively small. A Silver Disk is awarded for the sale of 25,000 and a Gold Disk for 50,000 records. There are many Silver Disk winners while Gold Disks appear very seldom.

Norwegian radio and TV is government non-commercial stations, and Norway has never had any problems with commercial stations operating from outside territorial water. However, Norwegian government is also planning a law similar to Denmark and Sweden against such stations.

FINLAND . . .

The general feeling is that 1962 has been a year with just as good sales results as any other year, according to record executives in Helsinki.

There is at least one remarkable difference between Finland and the other Scandinavian countries. A record with good sales possibilities must be in Finnish language. On the other hand, the song could be from almost anywhere in the world, but generally, a good Finnish-language version has better sales possibilities than any foreign record. However, there are some American artists with top popularity, as Elvis Presley and Paul Anka, but looking at the Finnish charts, these and a few others seem to be the only exceptions. There have been months when all ten records in the Top Ten chart has been either Finnish songs or Finnish versions of foreign songs.

Finland has three different TV stations, one government non-commercial, one private commercial and one government commercial. The commercial stations have done much to help record trade. Since it is a commercial station, they can offer better payment to foreign artists than the non-commercial ones, and despite the fact that Finland is a comparatively small country, the Finnish TV has been presenting several very expensive international artists. Record companies have their own programs over the commercial stations. "At the start it cost us a lot of money, but now we can see how it has begun to pay," it has been said.

There is no commercial radio in Finland at the moment, but it is believed that there will be so in the near future. In Finland, everybody, including the government, has had good experiences from the commercial TV stations, which might help very much, it is believed.

The record sale in Finland cannot show any imposing figures. A Gold Disk is awarded after the sale of 35.000. Since 1945 only three Gold Disks have been awarded.

Finland is a two language country, with Finnish as main language in most parts of the country and Swedish in many parts of southwestern Finland. However, records are made almost only in Finnish, while Swedish language records are imported from Sweden.

With one exception, all music publishers in Finland are also record companies. On the contrary, there are three or four record comapnies who are not active in publishing biz.

Except for the Finnish TV, people in southern Finland, including Helsinki, can easily watch Russian TV from Tallin in Estonia. Estonian language is not too difficult to understand for Finns.

As Finland is a two-language country (Finnish and Swedish), most companies have their names in both Finnish and Swedish, as well as all street addresses exists in both languages. Listed here, however, are names and addresses in Finnish only. Recent development in Finnish Parliament points at Finnish being the sole language in near future. A law guarantees certain big cities a continuing two-language structure, was recently rejected by the Parliament.

DENMARK . . .

1962 has not been as good as other years, but on the other hand, there is no reason to panic. Danish record companies, particularly those with American contacts, are complaining about the difficulties of competing with European artists these days. Denmark is a good sales possibility for records, and European recording artists know it. However, government non-commercial stations (radio and TV) depend on licenses, and they offer comparatively small sums to artists appearing there. European artists, however, have long ago discovered that what they might lose on a p.a. in Danish TV, they will get back twice on the sale of their records. Actually, Danish TV is able to present top European names almost regularly, and the sales charts (for records) has almost 90 per cent European artists on the top. Only American artist managing to get among the top ten during first half of 1962 was Chubby Checker who came sixth with "Let's Twist Again."

Radio and TV is government controlled and non-commercial. The commercial station Radio Merkur has been stopped by a new law, forced upon Denmark by Sweden who could not face competition from a commercial station and decided to stop it by a new law. However, as often before, it was considered better that the suggestions came from Denmark, and actually. Danish government was the first in Scandinavia to present such a law to its Parliament. However, all this happened when Denmark has had such commercial stations for many years, and the Prime Minister himself had been using the commercial station, among others for charity programs. But on the other hand, Sweden had just got its commercial problems, which makes this Danish "law" so difficult to understand, for the Danes. This, together with other things like the one year old "Danish" law that prohibits tax free sale of alcohol and tobacco in any quantity on the ferries between Denmark and Sweden, certain different ideas of how to run an air-line (Scandinavian Airlines System), etc., has not made Swedes too popular among Danes. One can see it from daily papers, from stage shows where every chance is taken to 'say how we feel about our beloved neighbour,' as a Dane put it. However, officially, the cooperation is the very best between the two countries.

TV-wise, there is an inter-Scandinavian cooperation known as Nordvision. Denmark, however, has nothing against an artist singing the songs he/she just recorded, while this is considered one of the deadliest sins in Swedish TV, where there is a censorship of the artists' repertoire. The fact that Swedish record companies have taken advantage of Danish TV shows over Nordvision, advertising the release of the record and song heard in a certain program, has been considered "promotion" by the Swedes, who think such promotion belongs in a commercial station and not on a government station. This has resulted in very few Danish show programs being accepted by Swedish TV in recent months, while, in the name of the cooperation, more and more so called cultural programs from Denmark has found its way to Sweden.

DENMARK'S TOP TEN OF 1962

1	Schwarze Rose, Rosemarie (Multitone)	157 points
2	Elisabeth-Serenade (Imudico)	154 points
3	Walk On By (Ivan Mogull & Sweden Music)	96 points
4	The Young Ones (Dacapo Musikforlag)	91 points
5	Mandalay (No Publisher)	85 points
6	Let's Twist Again (Belinda (Scandinavia) AB)	77 points
7	You Can Have Her (Ivan Mogull & Sweden Music)	74 points
8	*Django (Multitone)	70 points
9	Zwei kleine Italiener (Sweden Music)	69 points
10	La Novia (Stockholms Musikproduktion)	63 points

"Schwarze Rose, Rosemarie" topping the charts during the first six months with 22 weeks on the charts. A German recording with Peter Kraus on Polydor was the best selling version, but a local recording with Gustav Winckler on Tono helped a lot. Danish publisher: Multitone.

"Elisabeth-Serenade," again a German recording (Günter Kallman-Choir/Polydor) became a top seller. The song originates from England, but it started with the German version. Made 21 weeks on the charts, of them it spent nine weeks as No. 1. Danish publisher: Imudico A/S.

"Walk On By" started with Leroy Van Dyke on Mercury, but a recording with popular Danish teenage group The Clifters on Philips came out and took over the sale. When June ended, this was second on the charts, and one can expect it to be a good seller for several weeks more. Danish publishing rights held by Ivan Mogull Music/Sweden Music in Stockholm.

"The Young Ones" has been Cliff Richard's (Columbia) top seller of 1962, and it was still topping the charts when the first half year ended. So far, the record has been on the charts for 20 weeks. Danish publisher: Dacapo Musikforlag.

"Mandalay," yes, it is Kipling's poem "On the Road to Mandalay," here a little 'modernized' for today's ears, was the top seller when 1962 started in a local recording with Four Jacks on Odeon. No publisher has claimed the rights for this version.

"Let's Twist Again" came with Chubby Checker on Columbia and one can say it really introduced Twist in Denmark, Appeared at the charts for 12 weeks and was used by dance-schools in Denmark for lessons in the new dance. Publisher for Denmark: Belinda (Scandinavia) AB.

"You Can Have Her" started in Sweden in a recording with Anita Lindblom on Fontana. Swedish-language records, by tradition, have difficulties to become top sellers in Denmark, but here was one of these rare exceptions. Anita's Swedish version of this American song sold so well that it got Gold Disks in both Sweden and Denmark. Danish publishing rights controlled by Ivan Mogull Music and Sweden music in Stockholm.

"Django" is the only Danish song which has been successful enough to appear among the top ten of the year. The song was composed by one of the members of the popular group, The Clifters, who recorded it on Philips, so well that it appeared on the charts for eleven weeks. Publisher: Multitone.

"Zwei kleine Italiener" was Germany's entry at this year's Eurovision Song Festival at Luxembourg last March. It was one of the few songs with appeal to the pop market, and has also became a top seller in most European countries. Conny Froboess, who sang it in Luxembourg, recorded it for Columbia, and so far the record has been on the charts for 12 weeks and still seems to do good. Danish publisher: Sweden Music, Stockholm.

"La Novia" or "Dybt i min dröm" in Danish, is a song originating from Brazil. It has been on charts for 10 weeks when June ended, best sellers are two domestic recordings, Lis Bjornholt on Odeon and Poul Bundgaard on Polyphon. Danish publisher: Stockholms Musikproduktion, Stockholm.

It is no surprise that there are only one American recording among those Top Ten during the first six months of 1962. In Denmark, compared with other European countries, p.a.'s of the recording artists plays a great part in the sales statistics. A recording artist coming to Denmark, appearing in local TV shows, etc., can expect a good record sale, while those not coming has to accept that their versions are beaten by recordings with local artists. In Europe, most of the artists have began to realize this fact, and Danish TV can get almost any high-paid artist for almost nothing as they know that whatever they loose on the TV show, they'll get it back on the sale of the records. As seen from above statistics, not even Elvis Presley managed to get any of his recordings among the top ten throughout the first six months, while he might be able to get his "Good Luck Charm" there before the year is over. This record held the third place on the charts as when June ended.

The points listed above is the result of a survey of the Danish best selling charts week by week since the start of 1962. The song holding the first place got ten points, nine points for a second place down to one point for a 10th spot. Adding together the points, the result above appeared.

This survey deals with the best selling songs, not with the artists.

SALES

The general consensus of opinion expressed by Canadian record industry chiefs concerning the past twelve months is that the period has been comparatively successful. Sales of singles maintained a satisfactory level throughout the period.

It should be pointed out that a "hit" in Canada, where singles are concerned, averages about 35,000 sales. By comparison with the market in the United States this figure represents about the same level of a city the size of Detroit. In the past twelve months the average sales mark has been surpassed frequently, supporting the contention that the period was a comparatively successful one. "PEPPERMINT TWIST" by JOEY DEE on ROULETTE; "I CAN'T STOP LOVING YOU" by RAY CHARLES on SPARTON (Sparton's HAROLD POUNDS calls the Charles disk the biggest item his firm has handled since "DIANA" by PAUL ANKA) "BIG BAD JOHN on COLUMBIA by JIMMY DEAN and "LITTLE BITTY TEAR" by BURL IVES on DECCA all soared well over the average sales mark. These and many other items showed tremendous staying power, turning up near the top of sales figures for their respective companies month after month. Seasonal slumps were not nearly as serious over the past twelve months as they had been in time past.

PROMOTION

The smaller volume of business on the overall scene in Canada dictates that promotion and sampling programs must also be operated on a smaller scale. The number one channel of exposure for the manufacturers and distributors in Canada, as most everywhere else, are the broadcasters. For the most part excellent relations exist between the two. There are some minor points of difference. On one hand some of the broadcasters claim that the manufacturers and distributors should supply their products absolutely free of charge to the stations. They contend that by playing the disks they create a demand for them. This leads to increased sales and profit for the manufacturer and distributor, and it should then follow that the disks be made available free of charge in the first place. On the other hand the manufacturers and distributors point out that their total sales—even on a smash hit—are not great enough to warrant the supplying of free disks to the broadcasters. They do supply the disks, or at least most of the manufacturers and distributors do, at cost or lower. They further point out that the vast majority of programming on Canadian stations originates from records. If the broadcaster had to pay the talent involved directly, the cost would be prohibitive, therefore, the broadcasters are getting a big break in the expense column as it is. The objective point of view is that both points are well taken. However, the entire procedure is operating on a two way street, with room for give and take on both parts. Compromise would seem to be the solution. Canadian broadcasters appreciate receiving sample singles from the original American manufacturer. Canadian record men frown on this practice, complaining that the disks in question are over-exposed before they have a chance to manufacture them in quantity for the Canadian market, and as a result of air play too early and too often, the demand for the disks on the retail level is destroyed. The answer here would seem to be an agreement whereby the stations would continue to receive the disks from the States, perhaps in even greater quantities than at present, but limit their exposure until such time as the Canadian product is available. Distribs and manufacturers contend that Canadian stations rely far too heavily on American produced hit charts. The result is that a good Canadian produced record, or an International release is not played simply because it does not appear on any American chart. In such cases broadcasters would be well advised to listen closely to the material in question, not because it's a Canadian disk, but because it just might be a good record. Properly exposed a good domestic disk can become as popular as any import, and perhaps go on to become a best seller in the U.S. as well.

PRODUCTION

Easily the highlight of the past twelve months in this Country has been the rapid expansion of Canadian production. More good Canadian records and artists have made their appearance in the period than at any time in the past. In many cases the actual recording sessions took place in the United States, but original manufacture and distribution took place in Canada. In some cases the circle was completed as material recorded by Canadian talent in the U.S., and distributed at the outset only in Canada was picked up by U.S. firms and returned to the U.S. for distribution and sales. BOBBY CURTOLA, handsome young singer from Port Arthur, Ontario, is a prime example of the above procedure. He originally recorded in his home town for limited distribution and sales in Canada only. This was followed by a session Nashville, resulting in greatly increased Canadian sales on the Tartan label. This in turn lead to a deal being signed with Del Fi Records in Hollywood for American distribution. First Curtola item handled by the American firm, "Fortune Teller" became a chart click. In another instance, the procedure was reversed. A Canadian artist, PIERRE LE BON, cut a session—"SH BOOM" —for AMY Records in Detroit. It eventually was picked up for distribution in Canada by QUALITY Records. One of the prime movers in the development of Canadian record talent has been COLUMBIA's FRANK JONES. A Canuck himself, Jones has been responsible for several good Columbia sessions, most of which have been released both in Canada and the U.S. Sessions in question were the SANDY SELSIE and STU DAVIS singles, done in Nashville, and the LP session with THE ROMEOS, conducted by Frank in Toronto. RONN METCALF, R. DEAN TAYLOR, PAT HERVEY, GORD LIGHTFOOT, MARK LONDON, THE BEAU MARKS, THE COURIERS and THE COUNT VICTORS to mention but a few, will soon be names to contend with in the record business, the world over. The record industry in Canada is finding its feet, and is beginning to flex its muscles.

Canada Duties

The austerity program embarked upon by the Canadian Government will affect the record industry in this Country directly. The minimum value placed on imported masters by the Canadian Customs is seven dollars. There is an import duty of twenty percent, and with the most recent developments in the realm of import duties, a surcharge of ten percent has been added. There is also a sales tax of eleven percent charged on the imported item.

Sesac On The Move In European And World Markets....

The intensive move by SESAC INC. —one of the oldest music licensing organizations in America—to promote its vast copyrighted repertory abroad was further advanced this Summer when SESAC representatives completed personal tours of the European continent visiting many publishers and performing rights societies recently signed to represent SESAC.

Activity in world-wide promotion and representation of the SESAC catalog has been concluded with many of the major performing and mechanical rights societies overseas. Already signed and representing SESAC's performing rights are: AKM (Austria), BUMA (the Netherlands), CAPAC (Canada), PRS (Great Britain), SACEM (France), SACM (Mexico), SUISA (Switzerland), TONO (Norway), STIM Sweden), and KODA (Denmark). Representing both SESAC's performing and mechanical rights are: D. Davis & Co. Pty. Ltd. (Australia), GEMA (Germany), JASRAC (Japan), and SADAIC (Argentina), while MCPS in London and BIEM in Paris are handling SESAC's mechanical rights only. As this article goes to press agreements covering other territories are being concluded.

At the performing and mechanical rights societies, lengthy discussions were held with Dr. Eric Tarp of KODA, Copenhagen; Dr. F. K. Schiffmann, AKM, Vienna; Dr. Sven Wilson, STIM, Stockholm; H. F. Andrews of PRS, London; Miss M. D. Jarvis of MCPS, London; and Dr. Pecori and Dr. Alberto Gaiani of SIAE, Rome.

The SESAC representatives visited England, Italy, France, Sweden, Denmark and Austria, attending many noteworthy meetings and music conferences with the heads of the various performing rights organizations as well as the leading broadcasting operations such as Europe #1 in France, the B.B.C. in London, Sveriges Radio

Joey Frechette, lead singer with The Beau Marks, burned up the long distance wires the other eve, terribly excited over the fact that the group's current quality single is just about set for release in the U.S. The master has been leased to Laurie Records. However, some delay has developed at the Laurie end, and Quality in Toronto have subsequently had another good offer from Phillips for American distribution. According to Frechette, the American rights for "Tender Years" will go to Phillips if the Laurie people do not act soon to get the product on the American market. Meanwhile the group has been playing to S.R.O. crowds at the Brass Rail in London, Ontario. The Beau Marks hosted a spread for press and radio types in the Western Ontario City (7/28) to thank the scribes, deejays etc., for the excellent reception they—The Beau Marks—had received.

Lavern Baker opened at Joe Saxe's Gatineau Club near Hull, Quebec (7/27). Gilles Aubin, London Field Rep, was on the scene immediately with recent LP release by the thrush on the Atlantic label. Scoring some of her biggest record successes in the rock 'n roll, rhythm 'n blues field, Lavern pleasantly surprised the customers by wailing some top notch jazz performances, and belting out many of the pop standards in convincing fashion. She is featured on a new Atlantic set that spotlights the songs from "No Strings," along with Chris Connor and other Atlantic notables. The Atlantic set by Lavern that received most exposure on radio in the area during her P.A. was a set entitled "Saved," including some great readings on such standards as "Shake A Hand," "Wheel Of Fortune" and "Manana," all songs that the thrush included in her club act.

Good sources report that long time Montreal air personality, Jerry Herbert, with CFCF for several years is about to return from whence he came and take up new duties at Toronto's new fifty thousand watt, daytime, good music outlet, CHFI.

Another change in Canadian distributors noted recently as Tamla-Motown has exited the London family. Just who will pick up the currently hot American line is doubtful at the moment. Some sources believe the Compo Company may land the rights to Tamla-Motown products in Canada.

Amazing reaction to the Phillips single "Silver Threads And Golden Needles" occurring from coast to coast. "A year ago," says Quality's Clyde McGregor in Montreal, "this single would have been strictly a C&W record. Today it has broken wide open in the pop field in all markets in the country."

Wray Rutledge, Quality's man about albums, sent along a copy of the new Reo set by Winnipeg's Ted Rivers. The singer has a very ear-pleasing sound, and the songs contained in the new set seem packed with potential. The one factor that detracts from the overall presentation seems to be the fact that the background music at times drowns out the vocalist. If that one factor could be corrected the package will be a hot commercial item in short order.

Gilles Aubin about to take off on a cross country tour of London distribs, spent time with the Toronto area office, McKay Distributors, recently. Gilles reports that the Popeye craze is sweeping Toronto. The resulting sales of "Do The Popeye With The Markeys" are phenomenal. The twist has almost been forgotten in the Country's largest city as everybody does the "Popeye." Not only the record firms are cashing in on the craze. For example some of the leading clothes manufacturers, especially those that specialize in teen wear, are manufacturing the bell bottom trousers that are part and parcel of the Popeye fad by the car load lot. Gilles' trip will take him to Winnipeg, Calgary, Edmonton and Vancouver.

Apex recording stars The Champs, currently on top of the charts with "Limbo Rock" wound up an appearance at Toronto's Le Coq D'or, (7/28).

Boyd Clowater, spinner at Pembroke's CHOV, reports that Billy Martin and his group enjoyed a very successful stay at the Chez Charles in Demers Center, Quebec. The group smashed the house record at the Quebec night spot. The Martin group moved on to Toronto's Concord for a month's stay, opening (7/30).

Whitey Haines, Capitol's promotion boss, arranged for this reporter to see the Vic Damone-Henny Youngman show at Toronto's O'Keefe Center, (7/30). Whitey, in collaboration with Ed Shaunessy, manager of Toronto's Park Plaza, has just closed a deal that brings Capitol artist Jackie Davis to the Toronto Hotel's Plaza Room for an extended stay, opening (8/6). Although Davis' record activity is confined to playing the Hammond organ, his night club act will spotlight Jackie's singing talents as well.

Lakehead broadcaster, Jack Thomson, taking time out from his daily sports shows on CJLX to publish a bi-monthly sports sheet entitled, Sports World. Complete with excellent pictures and interesting editorial copy the publication makes entertaining and informative reading for fans.

Reg Ayres and Peter Jackson, Quality's Branch Manager and Winnipeg's popular deejay respectively, teamed up on a contest that proved to be a real success in the Western City recently. Deejay Peter asked his listeners this question: "Who will meet who, where, to do what?" Four of Reg's plug records supplied the clues for the contestants. Each one of the discs answered one phase of the deejay's question. Discs in question and the resulting answers were: "Speedy Gonzales" will meet "Ahab The Arab" behind "The Green Door" to twist to "Baby Elephant Walk." Two of Reg's men were rigged out as Speedy and Ahab and appeared on Jackson's TV Dance Party show to present the prizes to the winners.

The hot new single, "Come Outside" by Mike Sarne was assigned to Capitol Records of Canada for Canadian distribution. Capitol picked up the disc through their affiliation with E.M.I. in England. In the interim Quality records began to distribute the disc in this country through their affiliation with Cameo Records who had the rights in the U.S. Capitol's Paul White reports sales on the disc are soaring.

GERMANY — Last 12 Months

The last 12 months has seen many basic changes in the record business in Germany. It was the year that saw the small label strengthen it's position and gain a foothold into the market and in the shops as the small producer and distributor released hot material and produced special product for the ever stronger box operators who were also able to buy the indie product somewhat cheaper than the major label competition.

It was a year that saw the LP gain a foothold in sales and the first LP's began to move over 100,000 pieces to rack up enough dollar volume to warrant more LP production. Following the development in American business, the major labels picked up the brunt of the LP business.

As far as future trends are concerned, the next 12 months predictions from this reporter forsee more and more small labels entering the market, an increase in the singles price thus pushing the LP up front, a huge increase in album sales and steady sales on singles, more million selling singles and less middle selling ones, more flops, more music exported than in the past, less imported hits, better distribution facilities for small labels, increased publicity, major foreign labels opening their own operation here, and minor ones joining together for the same goal, and increased dollar volume in the record business.

We won't be able to judge our predictions until next year, but for a summary of events of the past year, let's look at the German record scene as it appeared in Cash Box.

AUGUST 1961

The 19th directory issue of Cash Box reported that Bert Kaempfert became the first European to be picked by the American D.J.'s as the most "Up and Coming Orchestra" of the year. American Gus Backus won the Radio Luxemburg "Golden Lion" award as the most requested male record star. Peter Lach left Peer Music to take over the helm of the re-activated Capriccio publishing firm with headquarters in Hamburg. Ralf Arnie also opened his new publishing outfit in the same town. The Berlin Radio-Phono-TV Fair opened with every top artist from this country and many international artists represented. 2 hours of nationwide TV were broadcast from the fair daily helping the sales of records in the normally slow season. Freddy released his first LP of sailor's songs and became the first pop artist to sell 100,000 of one LP in Germany. Connie Stevens joined the ranks of American artists recording in the German language. Her A&R man is Werner Muller who also waxed an LP for her and inked a Warner Bros. contract for his orchestra.

SEPTEMBER

To open the fall season, Electrola Records presented Alfons Bauer with a silver "Dog" for 1 million sales on his folk records around the world. Heino "Calcutta" Gaze started his second international hit on the way via the Billy Vaughn waxing of "Berlin Melody." Hans Roth, top D.J. from Radio Frankfurt left his post to accept the production and A&R chief position at Ariola Records. Radio Luxemburg started a late D.J. show from midnight to 3 A.M. and Camillo Felgen of the German broadcasting department took over as P.D. for the only pop program in this part of the world so late at night. Radio Luxemburg also presented it's Pop Music Festival for new compositions where Caterina Valente walked away with all 3 top prizes. Ilse Werner celebrated her 20th year as a record star.

OCTOBER

Vogue Records under the new name Deutsche Vogue moved their headquarters from Bremen to Frankfurt and celebrated it's first outing in the German top 10 with Hawe Schneider and The Spree City Stompers. "My Fair Lady" opened in Berlin in German and became the best visited musical to ever be presented in Germany. 2 LP's also were rushed out in German with the Original Cast Album and The German Original Cast album selling like hotcakes for Philips. Manufacturers evened out the price of mono and stereo LP's so that both would sell at the same price of 4.50 dollars. Bert Kaempfert turned out the first Twist record in Germany with Englishman Tony Sheridan.

NOVEMBER

Ariola Records took over the Reprise catalogue for Germany and announced that several of the artists with that label would be recorded in German by producer Nils Nobach. Singer-writer Udo Jurgens got a top hit in England with his Shirley Bassey recording of "Reach For The Stars." The Twist rage started in the press but the public never got the message on a grand scale, and it became just another dance in Germany. Only 3 Twist recordings made the top 10 in the last year.

DECEMBER

Bill Ramsey, American singer in Germany, took over a D.J. slot at Radio Luxemburg and announced that he will switch labels in July from Polydor to Electrola. Lale Anderson announced that her story "Lili Marlen" would be done in a Hollywood film and she will do the advisory work on it. Gerd Von Hassler left Radio Luxemburg and the German office of the station in Frankfurt closed. Bernhard Mikulski took over distribution of the Roulette line in Germany. Peter Schaeffers and Klaus Ogerman now living in New York formed a production firm together. Ralf Bendix returned from his engagement at the Las Vegas Flamingo Hotel to pick up his gold record for "Babysittin' Boogie."

JANUARY

Caterina Valente celebrated her 25th year in show business with a gala fete in Stuttgart including a nation wide radio show. Considering that Caterina is now only in her early thirties, that's some achievement. A young gal from Israel named Carmela Corren stormed the charts with her festival recording of "Eine Rose Aus Santa Monica." The International Music Instrument Fair took place in Frankfurt. German A&R men began to have difficulty getting American material as stars such as Helen Shapiro, Paul Anka, Connie Francis, Brian Hyland, Connie Stevens, James Darrin, Neil Sedaka and many others did German dates of their American hits. The "soft wave" sound hit Germany and the first million seller in this category was turned in by Gerhard Wendland with his "Dance With Me," a tango. The soft sound is still tops in Germany at present. Bert Kaempfert hit the U.S. charts with Afrikaan Beat, which he wrote. Electrola released a spoken word LP with former German president Theodore Heuss on his 78th birthday. Philips awarded a trip for two to Greece for the lucky buyer of the 500,000th copy of Nana Mouskouri's "White Rose Of Athens." A Berlin gal won the trip for her and her husband.

FEBRUARY

Cameo-Parkway records changed distribs from Electroda to Ariola in the middle of a hit and both firms racked up top sales with Chubby Checker's "The Twist" b/w "Let's Twist Again." Philips, who became the parent firm of "Mercury," picked up the line for distribution and moved fast on the Leroy Van Dyke recording of "Walk On By" which he also waxed in German. Sonet records started a special promotion campaign for Danish star Dario on the event of his first German recording. Ralf Bendix picked up the golden record for his "Baby-sitting Boogie" million seller at a press conference in Cologne. He was also awarded a golden diaper and nipple by Seith-Chappell music exec Harry Schultz-Bielefeldt. Two more foreign stars did their first German waxing. Sweden's Anita Lindbloom and France's Johnny Halliyday turned out platters for Philips. Les Chakachas returned to Germany to perform in Munich and push their "Twist-Twist" waxing which became a hit. Eartha Kitt came to Germany for a TV spectacular. The German Record Industry prime event took place in Baden-Baden with their Pop Music festival. First prize was won by Conny with her " 2 Kleine Italiener" which is still topping charts all over Europe and sold well over ½ million records here. In all, it was Germany's most successful festival as many of the end round songs entered the charts and well over a million singles were sold as a direct result of the TV exposure and publicity afforded the festival songs. Nana Mouskouri from Greece picked up a gold record for a million records sold of her first release, "White Roses From Athens" for Fontana Records, one of the Philips group. Manos "Never On Sunday" Hadjidakis wrote the song, and Peter Schaeffers published it. The award was made in Munich. Electrola A&R men Heinz Gietz and Gunter Ilgner traveled to Paris to record Gilbert Becaud, Jacquelin Boyer and Line Renaud in German.

MARCH

Paul Anka made his first trip to Germany along with manager Irvin Feld and A&R chief Bob Yorke where he waxed a German recording of "Love Me Warm And Tender" with Teldec A&R man Horst Fuchs. Paul also made press conferences in Hamburg and Frankfurt. RCA held an international meeting in Munich and Rome. Van Cliburn made a concert tour and press conferences in Germany. His Tschaikowsky Piano Concerto LP sold 100,000 in Germany. Paul Siegel's first Teldec production by the Oederland Orchestra was picked up for the states by Seeco Records and quickly made the N.Y. charts. Sales figures for Germany 1961 were released and although 750,-000 less singles were sold in 1961 than in 1960, EP sales increased by 50,000 and LP sales by 300,000 to make an overall increase in dollar volume for the year. In 1961 49.5 million records were sold in Germany. Import decreased by 250,000 pieces and export increased by 100,000. Karl Breuer of Sikorski Music made his first visit to the U.S. Paul Siegel celebrated his 3rd anniversary as a D.J. for Radio Berlin. Radio Luxemburg and the teen mag Bravo made their awards for the most popular recording artists. The radio Luxemburg contest was won by Freddy Quinn with the distaff honors going to Nana Mouskouri. Third place went to Peter Kraus. Bravo awarded their honors to Male singers Freddy Quinn, Gus Backus and Peter Kraus with females Connie Francis, Caterina Valente and Conny Froboess picking up awards as well. Ariola records recorded top sales with the first German waxing by Charles Aznovour and A&R man Helmut Jantsch of the firm tied the knot with a lovely Munich gal. The "Song For Europe" contest was held and Conny took 5th place with her "2 Kleine Italiener." Gerhard Wendland toured the U.S. and did his first American waxing under the A&R direction of Quincy Jones. Helen Shapiro visited Germany for her first German session for Electrola. Bert Kaempfert visited the U.S. and signed Brenda Lee for German recording dates.

With the summer season still in full swing, the strongest collection of singles that has ever been issued in this usually weak season has been released by the record firms here. Although no novelty such as "Ahab The Arab" in America has come on the market to bring buyers into the shops, the industry has answered by shooting their strongest guns and issuing strong records by artists usually reserved for better selling periods. Electrola opened the competition by releasing a new platter from Conny who was still riding on the wave of her hit "2 Kleine Italiener" which passed the ½ million mark months ago. Her new waxing, "Lady Sunshine & Mr. Moon" passed the 100,000 mark in a very short time after release. Polydor answered the competition with new waxings by top selling stars such as Gus Backus and Connie Francis, and Teldec rushed out a new platter by Gerd Boettcher, their strongest teenager and a strong waxing by Caterina Valente of two top American hits sung in German, "Roses Are Red" and "Johnny Get Angry." The firm also has the new Billy Vaughn recording of "Swinging Safari" which is selling here like hotcakes. The song was written by Germany's world star Bert Kaempfert. Philips is riding high with Gerhard Wendland and Nana Mouskouri who failed to cool off after each had a million seller on their last release. Although many of the names listed above are unknown internationally, they all mean top sales in Germany.

Ariola has also not been sleeping, and their recording of "El Rancho Grande" by Peter Hinnen can also be listed as a top summer seller. It's a fine summer sales wise and should open the door for a great fall and winter sales season.

Philips started pushing their new Interdisc jazz program by issuing 70 LP's of top material from Riverside, GTJ, Contemporary, Pacific Jazz, and Jazzland.

Electrola records has had many changes in their distribution set-up. As reported a few weeks ago in Cash Box, Wilfried Jung from Frankfurt has taken over the distribution chief's job in Cologne. A board of distributors has also been formed to advise the new chief and help fulfill this important position. The committee of 4 will be headed by the oldest regional distrib chief of the firm Hans Breunig from Munich. The former distribution assistant Heinz Villmann has also been promoted to first position under Mr. Jung. New regional distribution chiefs include the former Berlin chief Werner Wewiasinski who will now take over the Frankfurt bureau, Rolf Nietsche who is now in charge of Berlin, and Wolfgang Zimmerhansl who is now in charge of the Mannheim area.

Electrola which belongs to the world wide EMI group will also play a more important part in the classical international catalog of the label. The new "International Classical Repertoire Committee" for the firm has announced that Germany will deliver 3 complete operas, 2 large choir works and many other recordings. The new head of the German department for Electrola is Sigfrid Hoffman. In addition the production is being enlarged, and for this purpose, a new classical A&R team has been started in Munich with new equipment and studios there as an addition to the Berlin set-up for the firm. Hans Ritter who for years has produced for D.G.G. is joining the Electrola team as head of the artist production in the classical sector and Fritz Ganss is leaving the firm. The production head of the classical department remains under the leadership of Director Max Ittenbach in Cologne.

The summer classical season in Germany and Austria began late in July with the Bayreuth Festival of Wagner operas and followed with the Salzburg, Austria festival of operas and concerts with the works of Salzburg born Wolfgang Mozart featured. Both festivals were, as usual, sold out.

Polydor reports top action on new summer releases of "Speedy Gonzales" done in German by Lou Van Burg, "I Can't Stop Loving You" in German by Ivo Robic and U.S. discings of Brenda Lee's "Heart In Hand" and Sue Lyon's "Lolita Ya Ya" with the film running now in Germany to help sales along.

Heino "Calcutta" Gaze writes that Warner Bros. Records have recorded a new "Calcutta" LP with Raoul Meynard and that he's got two new songs entering the hit parade sweepstakes in the U.S. within the next few weeks.

Metronome Records is cashing in on the Italian vacation goers by releasing the top selling "St. Tropez Twist" by Peppino Di Capri in Italy. The record was tested in Munich radio and won 1st place 3 times in row.

That's it for this week in Germany.

Cash Box AUSTRALIA

Young local star Jay Justin has been on the road doing some fine promotion in connection with his new HMV label single, which has "Little Miss Tease" as the "A" side coupled with "Tomorrow Is Too Late."

All Australians are very pleased to see that "our" lad Frank Ifield is doing such knockout business in England with his single revival of "I Remember You." If such success continues it could be years before we see Frank back in Australia, but we all wish Frank Ifield loads of luck for the future.

Viking Records—which recently picked up the Australian rights to the Canadian-American catalog—just issued an album entitled "Hawaii" by Santo & Johnny.

Duane Eddy is getting good air action with his recent RCA single of "The Ballad Of Paladin." It's been quite a while since the famous twangy guitarist has had a big hit on our local charts but he could break the drought with the "Paladin" side.

Col Joye has a new Festival single which is generally believed to be one of the best quality disks ever produced here: "A" side is "Sweet Dreams Of You" composed by Don Gibson, who also wrote "I Can't Stop Loving You." On this new release Col Joye is backed by The Joy Boys with strings and chorus. This disk is getting a fantastic amount of radio exposure and should make its presence felt on local sales charts. Col will soon be setting out to do a long personal appearance tour of Queensland, his co-star on the show will be Frankie Davidson.

Festival Records collected the local licensing rights to "Hawaii Tattoo" by The Waikikis, which has been a strong hit in Europe and could well get off the ground in this territory.

New local singing discovery Jerry Wilder has made his disk debut for Festival Records with his own composition "Teresa Bella." Jerry has been extensively featured on national television sessions and is being solidly tipped for stardom.

English artists are again represented in our list of best sellers this week with Cliff Richards still at the head of affairs with his rocking revival of "Do You Want To Dance." An Englishman makes his chart debut in this issue in the person of Mike Sarne with his popular novelty piece "Come Outside."

EMI has made a rush release of three prominent American albums; they are "The Stripper And Other Fun Songs For The Family" by David Rose; "All Hits" by Bobby Rydell and "Bobby Vee Meets The Crickets." Ken East, record sales boss of EMI, is confident of best results with each of these packages and initial reaction indicates that his confidence is well placed.

W & G Records issued "Orange Blossom Special" by The Spotnicks, which has enjoyed success in Europe. W & G picked up the local rights from Oriole Records of England, which reports good sales. W & G also planning a new single release by Frankie Davidson which carries two of Frankie's own compositions.

A couple of weeks ago this column reported that disk-jockey Barry Ferber had joined the staff of Station 3DB in Melbourne as the station's number one jock. 3DB introduced Barry in a blaze of television, radio and press publicity such as has not been seen in a long while in relation to a disk-jockey.

Revue Australia (an offshoot of the huge American firm) will soon be launching it's replacement program for "Revue '62," which has now folded. New series, said to be devoted to Australian talent and its development, will be produced by Gil Rodin. Strongly tipped as compere of the new series is John Laws, one of Australia's most prominent disk-jockeys. John is with Station 2GB in Sydney.

in Sweden, Danmarks Radio in Denmark and R.A.I. in Italy.

At each of the broadcast facilities, SESAC RECORDING LP's, "repertory recordings" and assorted commercial label LP's and singles were auditioned. As a result, orders for SESAC RECORDINGS have already begun to arrive in New York and shipment was recently made to Danmarks Radio in Copenhagen for a sizable number of disks. Negotiations are also under way with the B.B.C. in London for a substantial LP shipment.

Taking an active part in overseas promotion, SESAC, on behalf of its publisher-affiliates, negotiates and makes direct agreements with sub-publishers all over the world to afford even greater exposure of the SESAC copyrighted repertory. Included on SESAC's current list of sub-publishers are such well-known music houses as Cromwell Music, Ltd., of London; Edition Rialto Hans Grieg K.G., Koeln, Germany; Editions Musicales Charles Bens, Brussels, Belgium; Edizioni Curci, Milan, Italy; Carl Gehrmans Musikforlag, Stockholm, Sweden; Goodman-Basart Musiek N.V., Amsterdam, Holland; Melody Music Pty. Ltd., South Africa; Shinko Music Publishing Co., Tokyo, Japan, and Woomera Music Pty., Ltd., Melbourne, Australia.

In addition to sub-publishers, many of the leading international recording artists are turning to SESAC as a source of new material for their various recording activities. Recent months have found top-selling singles by such well-known artists as Lolita and Margot Eskens, both on the Polydor label in Germany; Kevin Shegog on the W. & G. label in Australia; Harry Felbert, Sonet label, Sweden: the Alvin Roy Jazz Band on England's Decca label; and Ferruccio Tagliavini on RCA-Italiana, among others. Tapes of SESAC RECORDINGS LP's are also being made available to commercial recording companies the world over.

SESAC music is well known on the European continent and on the international scene. SESAC RECORDINGS LP's have long been a favorite at radio facilities all over the world and the current list of subscribers includes such areas as Trinidad, Venezuela, South Africa, the Philippines, Aruba, Peru, Singapore, Guam, Australia, Hong Kong, Copenhagen, Puerto Rico, Canada, etc. The United Nations, too, is a subscriber to the SESAC LP service and utilizes this recorded material in many of its daily broadcasts heard round-the-globe.

The heavy emphasis being placed on the promotion of the SESAC repertory in Europe and foreign markets everywhere is part of SESAC's continual program of expansion. For many years, SESAC has represented an important segment of foreign music including the rights of the entire Polish repertory, a broad segment of Israeli music and many outstanding continental publishing houses. In its international growth, catalogs of all its affiliated publishers will be given added exposure and impetus as well as world-wide representation wherever music is performed and heard.

SESAC's home office, in the Coliseum Tower, 10 Columbus Circle, is in one of Manhattan's most modern buildings located in the heart of the capitol of the music world, New York's Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts. SESAC extends a cordial invitation to its many friends to visit its offices and to meet its staff.

Cash Box ENGLAND

Frankie Vaughan, firmly established as a top cabaret artist in America via seasons at The Dunes Hotel, Las Vegas and The Copacabana, New York, this week opened his first major British date at Bernard Delfont's "Talk Of The Town." Philips A&R manager Johnny Franz plans to record the act 'live' for release in L.P. form later this year. Frankie's autumn plans include a tour of one-nighters, all proceeds of which will be devoted to the National Association of Boys Clubs. He also hopes to pay a flying visit to the States before starting rehearsals for his starring role in this year's London Palladium pantomime.

Scots singer Andy Stewart is still hoping to portray Sir Harry Lauder in a film of the singer's life. Shooting will start as soon as the Lauder family give the okay. Meanwhile Andy has a new British release on HMV "The Lads O' Bonnie Scotland" and in America Capitol has just released "Take Me Back." Visits to America, Canada, Australia and New Zealand are planned for 1963.

Negotiations are under way for Mr. Acker Bilk to visit New Zealand early next year. Brother and manager David Bilk also hopes to fix personal appearances in the United States where the jazzman's "Stranger On The Shore" descending from the No. 1 slot is about to pass his latest single release "Above The Stars" on its way up.

EMI A&R manager Wally Ridley has just completed a third "Black And White Minstrel Show" for October release. The first of this L.P. series issued in November 1960 entered the charts six weeks after release and has remained there ever since. It is likely that the disk will get Stateside release in the near future by ABC Paramount. The run of the stage show starring The George Mitchell Singers now at London's Victoria Palace has been extended until February 1963.

Connie Francis, absent from the British charts for quite some time, looks like she's making a come-back with her latest MGM release "Vacation." The British group, The Springfields, who have just entered the American Top 100 with "Silver Threads And Golden Needles" on Philips have a new release "Swahili Papa"—a folksy type number written by Tom Springfield. Another group on the Philips label with a new release, The Polka Dots, with "Yesterday" backed with "The Moment I Saw You There"—a couple of continental numbers with lyrics by Mike Hawker.

A classical bargain on the Philips label this week. Two low-priced L.P.'s of Verdi's "Requiem Mass." Russian soprana Galina Vishnevskaya is the leading soloist with the Moscow Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Igor Markevitch.

RCA European Records' sales manager, Arnold Klein, flew to Milan recently to act as escort to the label's star Neil Sedaka on his tour of Northern Italy.

Comedian-balladeer Ken Dodd, formerly with Decca, makes his debut with EMI on the Columbia label this week with "Come To Me." Like his first major hit "Love Is Like A Violin" the number is published by KPM.

Cyril Gee of Mills Music reports strong reaction to "Only Seventeen" by Barry Barnett on HMV.

During the past year July 1961-June 1962 the average amount of U.S. material included in BBC television programs was 16.98% July-September; 12.84% October-December; 13.62% January-March; and 12.28% April-June.

Stephen Stewart, Director General of the I.F.P.I. in London just back from Italy reports satisfactory progress in his efforts to negotiate a separate contract with a group of independent Italian publishers—non-members of BIEM (Sedrim in Italy). Among the companies involved are Southern Music, which has offices in most European territories, several young Italian publishers headed by C. A. Rossi and several English-based publishers. It is hoped that a contract will be finalized by September.

Latest recipient of a Silver Disk for British sales exceeding a quarter million sales is Ray Charles for his Anglo-American chart topper "I Can't Stop Loving You." A million seller in the States the disk has now sold well over 300,000 here.

While extending our grateful thanks to the British manufacturers, publishers, artists and all who have contributed to this Anniversary-Directory issue we would like to offer our own Top 20 Anniversary Congratulations:

1. To Cliff Richard—No. 1 Male Singer and Show Business Personality Of The Year.
2. To Helen Shapiro for fulfilling expectations.
3. To Decca for introducing Phase 4.
4. To all those concerned with the success of Frank Sinatra's charity concerts.
5. To the organizers of the G.R.R.A. 1962 Conference.
6. To Louis Benjamin, appointed General Manager of Pye Records.
7. To Kenny Ball for blazing the trad jazz trail.
8. To Mr. Acker Bilk for making "Stranger On The Shore" a transatlantic chart topper.

SCANDINAVIA

DENMARK

Kurt Hviid-Mikkelsen of Skandinavisk Grammophon A/S (EMI in Denmark) told Cash Box that "Lili Marlene" with Connie Francis singing in German is doing very well in Denmark at the moment. The EMI company trying hard to get Miss Francis to Denmark for pa's and TV shows in the near future. Bobby Rydell is coming to Denmark for a TV show in September, Mikkelsen said. Bobby Vee is doing very well after a TV program about the European Common Market, in which was seen a small part from the commercial radio station at Luxembourg. In this part, Vee was introduced and one of his records was played, and according to Mikkelsen, the sale in Denmark raised immediately.

Albert Kleinert of Imudico A/S told Cash Box that Lionel Bart's "Fing's Ain't What They Used To Be," now presented at the Aveny Theatre, is a hit. The translation into Danish has been done by Preben Kaas, and Imudico is the publisher. Imudico is also doing very well with the folio of Harry Belafonte songs, including, among others, "There's A Hole In The Bucket," which has been on the charts in a local recording. Kleinert was also very happy about the film "South Pacific," opening program at the new cinema Tre Falke in Copenhagen three years ago, and still a top runner at the same cinema. Imudico has released a folio of the songs from the musical.

Per Sörensen, head of publicity at Dansk Grammofonpladeforlag, very happy about the new group The Rookies. Their debut record with "My Blues Heaven" and "La Paloma" for Sonet in Denmark, seems to be a world-wide success. ABC-Paramount will release the record in North and South America, Sörensen said. Danish TV will present The Rookies in their own show in September.

Summer sales in Denmark this year seem to be better than other years, it was noted at many record companies in Copenhagen, when your Cash Box reporter visited them the other week.

Radio Merkur, the commercial Danish radio station operating from outside the territorial water, is closing after more than three years of successful operation. The ship has been sold to a concern of German and Swiss businessmen, who are planning to continue the operation as a commercial radio station. According to Danish law, no Dane living in Denmark can act as disk jockey, but if a Dane, who has emigrated and lives outside Denmark is doing so, there is nothing the Danish law can do about it. No Danish sponsors can use the station, but great international organizations and companies, as General Motors, Gillete, Shell, etc. are expected to be the new sponsors of the station. Record companies in Denmark have already been contacted by the new owners of the station, who want to continue the cooperation started by Radio Merkur.

Recorded music on tapes, mainly LP's on tapes, are sold by Danish EMI at the same prices as LP records, Cash Box was told. Those tapes used to be much more expensive, but after the reduction in the prices, the sale of tapes is expected to rise.

There will be a Scandinavian EMI meeting in Copenhagen Aug. 16 and 17, with among others Anders Holmstedt and Ivan Nordström from Stockholm and Rolf Syversen from Oslo as guests. On Aug. 28, Sir Joseph Lockwood is coming to Copenhagen on his European trip.

Elith Henriksen, general manager of Hede Nielsen's Fabrikker (RCA and Warner Bros.) told Cash Box that the firm has just released "Al Di La" with Emilio Pericoli and "Johnny Get Angry" with Joanie Sommers on WB, both records looking like good sellers in Denmark. On RCA the most recent releases include "Breaking Up Is Hard To Do" with Neil Sedaka, "The Ballad Of Paladin" with Duane Eddy and "La Bomba" with The Tokens.

NORWAY

"I'm Looking Out The Window" is being published in Norway by Musikk-Huset A/S, reports Arne Damsgard, publicity head at Musikk-Huset. The record with Cliff Richard is doing very well in Norway at the moment; this week its sixth on the charts.

Ariola recording artists Jan and Kjeld from Denmark have been booked for their first pa's in Norway, where they have been contracted to a Fair at Bodö, north of the Arctic Circle.

The Key Brothers, popular Triola recording artists, have been contracted for a tour in Sweden in the beginning of August. The teenage orchestra The Quivers will also be touring Sweden. The latter is planning an LP for release in the United States, reports Egil Monn Iversen A/S in Oslo.

SWEDEN

When Franklin Boyd of Aberbach (London) Ltd. visited Stockholm in the middle of July it was to investigate the possibilities of contracting Swedish record artists for musical film to be produced by Columbia Pictures in England this autumn, Ake Gerhard-Larsson of Belinda (Scandinavia) AB told Cash Box. "We had some successful discussions with Siv Malmquist (Metronome), Gunnar Wiklund (Pep), Little Gerhard (Karusell), Norwegian singer Jan Höiland (Columbia and Finland's Laila Kinnunen (Scandia). No contracts have been written so far, but it would be very surprising if those mentioned did not appear in the film," Gerhard-Larson said.

Ake Gerhard-Larsson and Belinda (Scandinavia) AB are also very busy arranging the Northern Twist Championship, taking place at the Gröna Lund-Tivoli, the outdoor amusement park in Stockholm, on August 12. There are local twist competitions taking place all over Sweden at the moment, and the winners will represent Sweden. Danish daily paper Berlingske Tidene in Copenhagen will choose the Danish competitors and send them to Stockholm. In Norway, Kjell Karlsen of Viking Music has promised to find the Norwegian twist dancers for the competition.

Felix Stahl of Stockholms Musikproduktion reports that he has started a new publishing house, Modern Music AB. Stahl left for Hamburg and Berlin for biz talks with German composers.

Bernt Baune of Gehrmans told Cash Box that they are now rushing out the sheet music of "Roses Are Red," now on the top of the Cash Box charts in the U.S. "Johnny Get Angry," another song riding high on the Cash Box charts, is also published by Gehrmans in Sweden, Baune said. So is "But Not For Me" and "Baby Elephant Walk."

New sheet music from Stockholms Musikproduktion includes "Min Ballong" (Toy Balloons) and "Lycklig Och Kär" (Misty).

Skandinavisk Grammophon AB (EMI in Sweden) has rushed out "Gimme A Little Kiss"/"Be Patient With Me" with Michael Landon on Columbia, as Landon is now touring Sweden. He is also very popular as Little Joe in the "Bonanza" TV serial. The tour of Mike Landon has been a success, but, unfortunately, it has created a war between Stockholm's two evening papers, a war which by now has turned out to become a political question. When arriving in Sweden together with Bobby Miles, Expressen asked him to write a daily column during his tour. Landon agreed. Aftonbladet, the other evening paper, immediately asked Miles to write a column for them, but he refused, pointing out that he did not consider it fair. According to Landon's column the other day, the representative for Aftonbladet told him that "if you refuse we will see that you get the worst press you have ever seen." The paper evidently kept its word, and, owned by the Labor Organization in Sweden, which in few words is the same as being owned by the Social Democratic Party (any worker in Sweden has to be a member of the LO, and membership in LO automatically means membership in the Social Democratic Party, whether they like it or not). Aftonbladet has plenty of power. The Mike Landon-Bobby Miles act includes a wild west fight, and Aftonbladet has now raised the question of whether showing teenagers how their idols fight and use knifes and guns is a good example for the kids. The other day, the police had to arrange the transport of Mike Landon and Co. between the two spots where they were appearing (as there is a general 54 miles an hour limit all over Sweden during July, police cars excepted), and Aftonbladet immediately asked the government to investigate if the busy police in Sweden have any duty to help performers get richer by doing such jobs. A small accident, in which one of the wheels of Mike Landon's car touched the toes of a teenage girl, resulted in a question in Aftonbladet to the Swedish immigration people if it was not time to deport Landon, as his stay in Sweden, the paper declares means putting the lives of Swedish citizens in danger, However, the tour continues and the distasteful war between the papers, too.

Putte Wickman and His Orchestra, recording for Joker-Karusell, will open in Moscow on Sept. 17, it is reported. They are members of a Swedish troup of artists, including soloists from Royal Opera in Stockholm and others, making a one month tour in the USSR.

JAPAN

On July 20, Columbia released its initial "film record" products on the local market here marking the firm's entrance into a "new" business field. First outing covered two albums (edited to a few paged folio with some 6 to 8 tunes); "Chiyochan-no" Album (Album by Chiyoko Shimakura) and "Hideo Murata's Smashes." Each album contained the artists' best-sold tunes, "Konoyo-no Hana" (by Shimakura) and "Ohsho" (by Murata) priced at Y380 ($1.06) respectively. Columbia, by the way, is the 3rd diskery in this business since Toshiba and Victor.

Vet songstress Yoshiko Ishii, was married to the news-reporter Michio Doi recently. Ishii, exclusively with King Records for years, is also managing her own talent buying office in Tokyo.

Songstress Teruko Akatsuki, 41, died last week (20) of heart failure at her home in Tokyo. Her early post-war era's smashes included "Tokyo Shoeshine Boy," and "Minesota-no Tamago Uri" (Egg Vender In Minnesota)" among many others on Victor with which she'd been exclusively pacted until today (since 1958).

Columbia this month is pushing the current coast-to-coast top selling version, "Roses Are Red" b/w "You And I" by Bobby Vinton as a possible chart rider here in Japan .The firm is also preparing for local disk with singer Yasushi Suzuki a little later.

Victor will release the following tunes Sept. 5 as its regular "top" series singles rosters. They are "Hitoribotchi-no Uta (I'm Alone)" by Frank Nagai, "Hoshi Akari (Star's Shinin')" by Akira Matsushima, "Muteki-no Machi-yo Sayonara (Leavin' The Foggy Port)" by Koichi Miura, "Yunomachi Koi-Akari (Town Light)" by Tokiko Kagurazaka, "Tokyo Flamenco" by Mari Shimada, "Mura-no Chiisana Eki (At A Station In A Village)" by Hiroshi Wada & Mahina Stars featuring Yukiko Tama, "Tasogare-no Warutsu (The Twilight Waltz)," "Shigure-no Yado" by Chirika Taki and "Itako Mujoh" by Shiro Sone.

Tao Ongaku-sha, prexy Sansaku Megoro, last week circulated a notice announcing that the firm has secured all sub-publishing rights on catalogs of E. B. Marks and would start working immediately as its repertoire's exploiter in this territory.

Nitchiku Industrial Co., Ltd., of which substantial merger into Columbia's Record Division a few weeks ago (see: July 21, 1962-issue) will have Hiroshi Terajima as the firm's new representative starting Aug. 1 to succeed Hisao Adachi who's leaving the music industry.

Composer Tetsuo Suzuki was signed by Teichiku Records exclusively to write tunes to be recorded.

FRANCE — The Last 12 Months

Aside from the usual changes in personnel, contracts and artists, what have the 12 months just over had to offer of particular interest? One subject dominates all the rest, and that: the influence of the Common Market on the record industry within France and on French records in the Europe of the Common Market countries.

One such early effect is that prices seem to be leveling off within the countries involved as a result of lowered Customs duties. Such duties, which shall have entirely disappeared with the next three years, are already down to 12% from the 25% of not so long ago. This does not, however, in any way alter the domestic TVA French tax which is set at 33% of the wholesale price of records.

Meanwhile, the excellent exportation opportunities the Common Market is opening to France is especially noteworthy and thanks to this, French popular song will be able to enlarge its audience to include not only Belgium and Holland as in the past, but much of Switzerland as well.

Although the heavy taxes existing within France will oblige the French companies to be extremely cautious about establishing their export prices, because pressing costs in France are among the lowest in Europe, at least in so far as certain record categories are concerned. France is competitively very well situated. The popular low-priced releases will also find a very large outlet in these same Common Market territories.

The advent of the Common Market also partially explains the contracts passing back and forth between the large international firms. Such contracts will undoubtedly bring about a rational exploitation of the European record market, and when this occurs, despite Germany maybe continuing to hold on to its present top position for "heavy" music, French songs and popular melodies can nonetheless hope to carve out an excellent niche for themselves.

An even stronger position could be permitted France if the National French Financial authorities would agree to consider records as educational tools rather than as luxury items. Such a revision in identity would reduce taxes by half. But for the moment it still seems as though the government fears not recuperating on an export level the taxes thus lost on a domestic level and the tax situation therefore remains unchanged.

BIEM meanwhile continues to receive its usual 8%. This percentage, because included in the minimum royalty clause of every BIEM contract also prevents any real reduction from occuring in record price levels. Apparently, in England, the BIEM royalty is lower than that of the European countries. When establishing prices, England can therefore profit from this lower royalty rate.

To conclude this round-robin look at the French market over the past twelves months, it might be noted in passing that despite the signing of Johnny Hallyday by Phillips and the signing of Jacques Brel by Barclay having given rise to complicated law suits, the change to these companies by said artists continues to persist. Marcel Aumont has again signed with Polydor. Finally, it does not seem at the moment as though Columbia has as yet renewed with Phillips.

Cash Box FRANCE

Both Warner and Reprise record companies have given their representation over to Vogue.

Les Compagnons de la Chanson have signed with Polydor. A simple question of supply and demand, with no additional comment called for. A hard blow for Pathe, however—all along the line and any way you look at it.

A company which now seems to be breaking out of its shell is Festival. Already a label of considerable local interest, Festival is gaining in importance outside of the local circuit with the literary repertoires of Vec Verchuren, Marie Jose, J. P. Mauric, etc., and has now decided to also try its hand with foreign catalogs. Festival is therefore hiring new personnel specialized in this latter branch of activity, and none doubt but that the end result will be excellent.

Meanwhile, it can be said that Eddie Barclay has beyond any doubt created one of the best pop catalogs in France. To such a point that it is most difficult to see how Barclay can hope to improve further in this particular category. Mention must also be made of the principal position Pathe Marconi now holds in the song field, thanks to Richard Anthony, despite the departure of Les Compagnons de la Chanson and the temporary absence of Edith Piaf and the effect this will have on Pathe's pop catalog. . . . Phillips, with Johnny Hallyday, who has become Johnny "National," certainly holds the biggest star to appear during these last years. That Paris Match, the big weekly magazine dedicated its cover and a long inside article to Hallyday is in itself a good measure of Hallyday's standing, it being the Life magazine of France.

Very little news from Decca and RCA, where everything seems to be moving along smoothly, although their need to create a local repertoire of value is being felt. With such artists as the Machucambos, Sylvia Vartan, Alain Barriere, Jean Ferrat, and above all, Franckie Jordan, the elements required to meet this need are all present.

An artist deserving a special mention is Petula Clark, who left England to realize a magnificent career in France.

Nothing to say about Vega; but Odeon, after long specializing in a low priced series of releases, has just found a future star in Billy Bridge.

When all is said and done, the final balance sheet is fairly encouraging. While waiting for the storm which will surely follow the tensions accompanying the transfers of stars from one company to another, it may be said that give a little, take a little, the record industry seems to be enjoying good health and prosperity.

Odeon has undertaken on a special promotion campaign to launch thrush Barbara, who authors her own lyrics and composes her own songs. She has just mothered four new & original songs "Le Temps Du Lilas," "Le Verger En Lorraine," "Tu Ne Te Souviendras Pas," "Dis, Quand Reviendras-Tu?," waxed by Odeon for release in the fall to coincide with her appearance at the Bobino Music Hall. French publishers are eagerly watching for success of this young songstress for possible exclusive tie-ups for her songs.

American ace guitarist and arranger Mickey Baker is now definitely residing in Paris. He has recently signed up with Versailles and his first record is scheduled for release in the fall.

ITALY

On July 27th, Frankie Avalon came to Milan with Bob Marcucci and attended a cocktail party given by Bluebell, the Italian diskery which distributes Frankie's records. The party was held at Terraza Martini, where Frankie met Milan's journalists. Mr. Casetta, director of Bluebell, was host at a dinner party which your Cash Box representative attended. The affair was attended by Walter Hofer who had double cause to celebrate his 33rd birthday, and the winning of a litigation in London concerning a plagiarism charge against the writer of the tune, "Why." While in Milan, Avalon cut a few sides for Bluebell. The young singer continued on to Venice and Rome.

Neil Sedaka spent one day in Milan, appearing at the dance hall Punta Dell 'Est. He was greeted by a large crowd of admirers. After the engagement, Sedaka went on to Rome.

"Cuando Calienta El Sol" is now number three in Italy. The tune has an interesting background. The music for the tune was sent to Southern Music of Italy more than a year ago along with the music for several others. It was not identified as anything special and was soon forgotten. Last spring, RCA Italiano, released the tune by Los Hermanos Rigual, at which time Southern Music realized it had the copyright to a potential hit. Rifi, the diskery connected with Southern, immediately released the tune. Piero Scussel of Durium, heard the song and recorded it with Los Marcellos Ferial. Other diskeries rapidly took up the tune and released it. Although "Cuando Calienta El Sol" has not broken any sales records, it is played constantly by the spinners and on the juke boxes. The song is being released by diskeries throughout Europe and seems to be on its way.

From July 28 through August 15th, the "Twist International Festival" will be held in Italy, appearing in eleven cities. Gene Vincent, known in Italy for "Be Bop A Lula," will host the festival.

Decca has announced that every release by The Champs on Challenge has done well on the market. "Cantina, Sombrero, Limbo Rock" and "Tequila Twist" have done well this year, but "Operazione Terrore" (from Experiment in Terror) coupled with "La Cucaracha" promises to be the big one of the year. Decca also announced a September LP release by the Champs called "Great Dance Hits."

Mina, our exciting vedette who did so well in German with "Heisser Sand," is currently high in Italy with "Renato," and has started selling "Chihuahua" backed with "Vola Da Me (Fly To Me)."

Connie Francis, who last year sold a lot of records in Italy, is still selling well in our country. Currently she is high with "Paloma" and "La Valle Senza Eco (Valley Without Echo)."

The current number one disk, "Tower Of Strength (Stai Lontana Da Me)" by Celentano is sold also for one of the songs on the back, "Sei Rimasta Sola (You Was Left Alone)," which is copyrighted by Franz Leonardi, but Alberto Carisch, Italian rep of Southern Music, states that the record is sold also for the third song, "Amami E Baciame (Love And Kiss Me)," a Southern copyright. "Tower Of Strength" is selling good via the Gene McDaniel version, too.

From a talk with Alberto Carisch, Italian rep of Southern Music and director of Rifi Records, we had the impression that something big is expected to happen at Rifi before the end of the year, but we were not able to find out anything more on this interesting matter.

Melodicon, Italian Philips, selling "Retiens La Nuit" by Johnny Hallyday and "Addio Palcoscenico (Farewell, Stage)," the Italian evergreen, by Arturo Testa.

Why are we advertising our 5-year-old phonograph when new 1962 SEEBURG DIRECTIONAL STEREO is making all the news? Because this 5-year-old Seeburg is still in great demand. Its rate of depreciation is the lowest in the industry. Its re-sale price is the highest among comparable models. Steady operator demand makes it hard to come by. These are some of the reasons—and really solid ones—why every operator's investment in Seeburg keeps on paying off.

August 11, 1962

Dear Friends:

In achieving its 20th birthday, Cash Box is proud to celebrate this most happy occasion with the largest, most comprehensive issue it has ever published.

This issue, Cash Box annual directory edition, which over the years has become the foremost reference guide and an integral part of every firm in the industry, both as to editorial content and advertisements, is acknowledged as the most important single issue published during the year for the industry the world over.

That Cash Box has been able to attain the distinction as the World's Leading Publication in our industry is due only thru the fact that it serves the requirements of the trade . . . honest, fearless, progressive service, with understanding and awareness of the problems of its readers and advertisers.

We thank all of our many friends thruout the world for making it possible to reach this milestone, and we assure them we shall continue in the years ahead to serve them to our utmost.

All Quiet On British Coin Front

LONDON — Compared with the months of active preparation which preceded the introduction of the New Betting and Gaming Act in January 1961 and the ensuing period of adjustment, the last twelve months in the coin machine industry have been relatively quiet and almost uneventful. As far as amusement games on permanent sites are concerned, operators have welcomed the new conditions which are working out satisfactorily. There have been occasional differences of opinion between operators and the law but nothing drastic. On the whole, trade this year has been a little down partly due to inclement weather which dogged the early part of the season. However, the balance may yet be restored if the vagaries of the English climate can compensate with an Indian summer.

The most noticeable feature of recent months has been the boom in fruit machines. The apprehension and skepticism which followed the advent of the Bill as far as fruit machines were concerned has vanished. Manufacturers, who a year ago had machines a-plenty on their hands are now faced with a demand fast exceeding the supply. In the case of 1d play machines, arcade owners who started off warily with two or three machines, now have banks of them—the results encouraging even their most cautious competitors to follow suit. In clubs, where the law permits a maximum of two machines, the demand is just as great.

Although following a celebrated test case there has been a considerable amount of uncertainty concerning the correct interpretation of "private gain" as it relates to the application of profits. However, in order to clarify the position another short Amending Bill, already approved by the House of Commons, is now going through the House of Lords to define explicitly the meaning of "private gain." When passed it will undoubtedly endorse the Government's original intention that profits shared among all members and used for the benefit of club activities generally do not constitute "private gain" and are, therefore, legal.

For the coinmen looking into the future two major events loom large on the horizon. Firstly Britain's probable entry into the European Common Market. Although, at this stage, it is not possible to foresee what effects such a move would have on the industry it might well lead to an appreciable reduction in the price of amusement equipment imported from other Common Market countries, and whet competitive appetites generally.

Secondly, Britain's probable changeover to decimal coinage, a move which the Government has already agreed in principle. Again the effect on the industry cannot be accurately gauged. However, if the actual size of the coin is changed as well as the value it is expected that the Government would meet the cost of conversions necessary for amusement games, vending machines etc. If, as seems likely, the penny—our most commonly used coin in automatic machines—is replaced by a new coin of higher value, the industry can look forward to a substantial increase in turnover.

Another focal point for the future is the 1963 Annual Amusement Trade Exhibition. The venue will, once again, be the New Royal Horticultural Hall, Westminster and the dates January 29th, 30th and 31st. The organisers of this major European event look forward to welcoming both exhibitors and visitors not only from the U. K. but overseas.

Phono Sales Continue To Expand In UK

LONDON—Messrs. Ruffler & Walker report that the trend of expansion in phonograph sales manifested at this year's A.T.E. continues. The comprehensive Rock-Ola range and, in particular, the three models featuring the 100 selection mechanism, have opened the doors to many sites where space is at a minimum and where multi-selection machines are required.

The new Empress 200 and 120 consoles have also been enthusiastically received. As well as the improvement in phonographs there is an exceptional demand for the latest and best in gaming machines. The Keeney Triple Up, successor for the latest and best in gaming machines. The Keeney Triple Up, successor to the Double Up is currently one of the best selling machines in the country in conjunction with the Jennings Governer where the volume of sales has outstripped delivery.

There is every indication that 1962 will be a record business year for the Ruffler & Walker group of companies reflecting the healthy state of the industry generally.

Symplay Designs 100-Sel. Machines

Has Wall Box, Wall Phono Expects To Release Hideaway

LONDON — Although comparative newcomers to the field of coin operated entertainment, Symplay Limited, sole United Kingdom importers and distributors of equipment manufactured by Th. Bergmann & Co. of Hamburg, have been associated with the amusement machine business for more than half a century.

With a policy based on stability, reliability and super after sales service, they distribute and operate the well proven Symphonie Juke Boxes, of which the Symphonie S.80 and S.200 have proven their worth in sites throughout the world. During the past twelve months the Symphonie 200 D has proved to be equally, if not more reliable. Completely trouble free in operation, with faultless reproduction, this is a top location box.

To meet the ever changing demands of the industry Symplay announce the release of two new and revolutionary juke boxes—the Symphonie S.100 Wall Box, and the S.100 Console model. All the well proven Symphonie features are maintained but with a completely new design and mechanism. Symplay will shortly be showing another Bergmann built Symphonie, "The Symphonie Hideaway Unit," now undergoing full scale testing at the Hamburg laboratory. They are also distributors of the Atlanticus Pin Table and the whole range of Bergmann wall pay-outs. The latest are the Joker 1d. play unit, which was manufactured to Symplay's specific requirements for the British market and which is proving a money spinner in arcade and cafe locations; and the Monaco due for release during August.

Symplay are now distributing the Australian built Jubilee range of fruit machines.

'Jubilee' Fruits Shipped From Down Under To UK

LONDON — Jubilee Products Ltd. the U.K. branch of the Australian fruit machine manufacturer, New Century Novelty Company of Sydney. Jubilee Products opened up in this country in 1960 preparatory to the New Betting and Gaming Act legalising the use of fruit machines.

Business has reached a new high and machines are being airlifted from 'down under' to meet the demands. Particularly popular are the Jubilee and Silver Jubilee 1d and 6d plays with token drop and the latest visible dropping jackpot.

The parent company, founded in 1936, exports from Australia to the continent, The Far East and Europe.

Sincerest Congratulations on your 20th Anniversary

P.S.

When talking about Music and Vending, we proudly associate our name with ROCK-OLA for whom we have established undisputed leadership in coin-operated phonographs in Europe.

Referring to Amusement, we surely are proud to distribute GOTTLIEB games, which we so successfully introduced in Western Germany.

ANALYSIS OF 1961 COIN MACHINE EXPORT VOLUME REPORT

GENERAL ANALYSIS

The export business witnessed a record-breaking volume during 1961, the likes of which hasn't been seen before. With $28 1/2 million hitting the scales, almost 100,000 machines were shipped to foreign ports. The increase represented a one-third improvement over 1960 and the statistics which appear in this section would make any annual report look just fine. The gains were spread evenly across the board with phonos, amusements, and vending getting a good share of the increase. Phonos picked up $2 million, games $2 1/2 million, and vending $2 1/2 million—and those are nice round figures. The annual volumes in dollars have moved from $20 million in '58 to the present '61 figures of $28.5. Place those dollars on a bar-graph and the export business looks better than those healthy television numbers they've been flashing around of late. The prime reason for the increase is the growing number of markets taking coin machines. Twenty-one countries took phonos that didn't receive any in '60. Fourteen nations received amusement machines not on record during '60 and twenty-two importers who weren't using vending equipment the previous year were cause enough for the total figure in this area to almost double—just missed $6 million. Argentina and Asia imported large quantities of vendors during '61. With a goose egg for '60, Argentina received more than a quarter-million dollars in vendors from January thru December. The current political situation there could knock this gain for a loop however, and many fingers are crossed. Japan made a name for itself in the vending category, and scored heavily in the games slot as well. A rise of seven times the previous figure verifies earlier forecasts of good business from this nation. The biggest individual gain in any one category was made in Europe in the amusement machine field. Posting a healthy $5.6 million in '60, the Continent scored a resounding $8.1 in 1961, without the aid of the slot machine, a unit that undoubtedly helped the '60 figures. Inside Europe, France made the biggest jump posting almost $2 million of the gain alone. Belgium increase $1 million, and the U.K., land of the slot machine, fell off by $1 million due to the earlier influx of gambling machines. In all, coin machines in general enjoyed its best year yet.

PHONOS

As long as the world continues to appreciate late model and new American juke boxes the export business will continue to thrive. 1961 saw the volume increase by 20% reaching $12.4 million. The biggest gains were made inside Europe where Belgium, France and Switzerland registered big increases. Asia, no slouch these days, went from a previous $388 thousand to $868 thousand, more than double the previous year's volumes. Japan romped to a $160 thousand after a near-nothing in '60. The Nansei Islands, a main receiving port, posted imports on phonos of more than half-a-million dollars and with smaller Asian ports taking in proportionate shares of the imports, the overall figure just naturally reached a new high.

When there are gains, there are almost always losses and for the record here are a list of some of the losers: Mexico, Honduras, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Venezuela, Norway, Denmark, U.K., Portugal, Iran, the Philippines and Australia. Each one registered a drop in phono volume during the record-breaking year.

GAMES

The increase in amusement machines from '60 to '61 was eye-opening. A total of $10 million was spent in the purchase of coin-operated games from the USA by approximately seventy nations doing business with American coinmen. The rise was accounted for mostly in Europe, naturally, where the Continental coinmen increased their games volume from $5.6 million to an $8.1 million mark, never before attained. Biggest receivers inside Europe as far as games were concerned were Belgium (up $1 million) France (up a walloping $2 million), and Italy, where much is expected in the future in the way of gains in games imports. Africa posted gains too, and much of the increase was in the area of arcade machines. Although reports do not single out arcade machines as such, it can be reported from reliable sources that much of the equipment going into Africa is for the arcade locations. The continent doubled its intake during '61. Asia managed to come up with a good showing in games, running from an early $430 thousand to the new figure of $543 thousand. Judging from the increase in dollar volume and the decrease in numbers of units, it can be assumed that the quality of the equipment is being traded up while the price, which has been most competitive, remains proportionately the same.

VENDING

The vending export market doesn't enjoy near the broad field of countries as does the phono-game business but it certainly makes up for it in dollar volume and machines. In 1960 the vendors accounted for about $3 1/2 million in overall volume. This past year that figure was increased to close to $6 million. Some gain! 31,278 vendors were shipped to foreign countries and Europe, leader in every category, doubled its intake. Asia tripled earlier figures. Africa dropped out of the running and Australia remained about the status quo.

Biggest gain in Europe was made in Western Germany where the Germans bought more than $1 million worth of vendors during the 12-month period. Last year this figure didn't make the 1/2-million slot. Switzerland was up $100 thousand, Britain doubled its volume, the Netherlands became a major entity, Belgium reached a healthy figure, France continued along its phono-games intake policy and bought more than $100 thousand in machines, and Italy scored with close to $100 thousand.

In South America the picture was about the same, as far as increases go. The early figure of $35 thousand looked for an increase but never expected the $302 thousand that was posted. Main reason for the big jump was Argentina (and they have to try to overthrow the Government!). The dangers of doing business in the Latin-American countries are many, but as indicated in Cuba, the Dominican Republic, and even Colombia, the risks are great but the volume is there for those who care to gamble. In the case of Argentina, money outstanding is in jeopardy. Look for vending to grow at a faster clip than usual.

Venders Still Haven't Replaced The Tea Break!

LONDON — For Britain, still several years behind the U.S. in the vending field, the past twelve months have been of consolidation rather than growth. However, the enormous vending potential allied with the changing economic conditions—shorter working hours, rising costs in labour, etc.—becomes increasingly apparent. To date the industry has been largely concerned with the supplementary feeding of staffs i.e. hot drinks, cold snacks, confectionery, cigarettes, etc. with the emphasis on retail vending in shops, forecourts and other outside locations. Although there is still very little full line vending to be found in industrial sites in theU.K. there are definite signs of a growing awareness by the catering industry of the importance of vending, particularly in providing meals for night shift workers etc. It cannot yet be claimed that vending machines have superseded the tea break but they are rapidly gaining popularity as early fears by office managers that staff would spend too much time at the machines have proved unfounded. Resistance to vending shown by office and factory management has been responsible for the industry not progressing as quickly as had been anticipated.

Other retarding factors have been the need for improved manufacturer and distributor service and shortage of professional operators. The early faults of the industry have now largely been ironed out and many of the older companies have established themselves whilst several new firms including Automatic Canteen of America and Seeburg (Gt. Britain) Ltd. have entered a healthy and promising market.

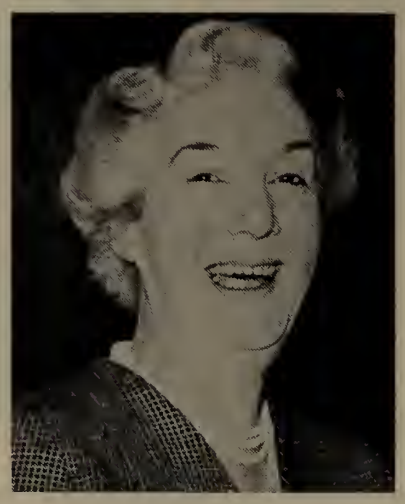
Mrs. Shaw Views The British Coin Scene

Once again we are privileged to publish an article specially written for Cash Box 20th Anniversary Issue by Mrs. Lilian Shaw, Honorary Secretary of The Phonograph Operators Association Ltd. in which she reviews the first six months of 1962 in Great Britain.



LILIAN SHAW
HONORARY SECRETARY P.O.A.

"A feature of Britain's phonograph industry during the first six months of 1962 has been a growing interest in the leasing of equipment. This method of finance is nothing new to America but only in recent weeks has it really gone forward in these Islands. Two leading operators are Equipment Leasing and Mercantile Leasing: the first name is associated with Lease Plan International of New York and the second works in conjunction with U.S. Leasing Corporation. So far there has been no high-voltage switch over though responsible quarters consider that once leasing is popularised it will boost equipment turnover very considerably, and unfold an improved market for both new and re-built phonographs.

The system has a major advantage in that rentals can be wholly offset against tax. To date, it has the disadvantage that no agreement on rates has been achieved. A temporary formula now in use is the proviso that finance charges shall be reviewed each year. If the average of the National Rate over the year has been above the interest rate used when the lease began, no extra charge is made. If the National Rate is lower, the customer gets a rebate. Fixing the actual amount of the rentals is another issue to be stabilised before the amber permanently turns to green. It is not easy, particularly in the case of juke boxes, to fit the original cost of equipment, plus finance charges, within the terms of a reasonably long lease. Obviously, the rate is controlled by the estimated economic life of machines. In the United States, with a speedier obsolescence movement, it is, no doubt, comparatively easy to get coast-to-coast agreed estimates, but in Britain, where Victorian barrel-organs still pick up the old penny, it has so far been impossible to get within actuarial agreement. The aim is to spread cost over as long a period as practical without the user having to continue paying for a machine which has become uneconomic to run. Various formulae are under trial for taking care of the possibility of improved equipment being marketed, which would render leased machines out of date. There is, of course, always the trade-ins, but the slower pace of business currents over here presents difficulties which only experience can solve.

A notable trade change since January has occurred in the country's night clubs. Suddenly, they became much livelier, definite efforts were being made to attract the young instead of the old and tired. The plush of Edwardian period is being replaced by panelling; plain wooden floors are ousting thick pile carpets. Seats are more comfortable and dancing is continuous for eight hours nightly. Bars are open for a similar period and, perhaps more important still, admission fees and drinks are lower. The air is of movement rather than death; of young, active life instead of jaded "expense-sheeters" and the jukebox is benefitting from increased attendances. With big business coming into the motel trade, phonograph turnover has risen in this section, and prospects here may be considered bright. The catering industry, upon which a large proportion of jukebox turnover depends, has not made the progress hoped for. Fourth largest employer of labour in the country, it had the fastest rate of growth in profits of any industry in 1961 but has since failed to maintain this lead. The industry is beset by archaic production practices, though with some fifty new hotels coming out of the ground later this year, it may be moving into a buyer's market where successful personal management, backed by modern amenities, will hold the key to success.

Finding profitable phonograph sites has been extremely difficult. In the past post-war period the tendency has been for stores and offices to absorb residential areas in our towns. People have moved out, creating surburban sprawls. Now, it seems, the process is being reversed. Many towns are renewing their centres. Strenuous efforts are being made to prevent the situation, so often seen today, where bustling activity is replaced by silent, deserted streets after business hours. Developers with large available funds are knocking on the doors of local authorities for powers to erect new centres that will give the widest possible range to trade, including taverns, restaurants, cafes, bowling alleys, dance halls, casinos and other entertainment amenities. American operators will appreciate that these moves make location problems very fluid. Relations between the phonograph industry and disk manufacturers have not been working too well. The latter failed to pass on tax reductions and have shown a persistent eagerness to seize every opportunity of raising their own prices to the detriment of their customers. In fairness, however, it should be recorded that record makers have given substantial co-operation in joint proposals for improvement of programmes.

Speaking generally, juke turnover has remained fairly constant over the six months. It can be reasonably asserted that the industry is settling down nicely, becoming more 'respectable,' more 'normal.' Over the years the trade association (P.O.A.) has had to fight the conservatism and prejudice which seep through the social strata of these Islands, but with the legalisation of gambling casinos, bingo halls and fruits, the phonograph has arisen in status to become the most innocent and desirable of all coin-operated amusement equipment. Last week, for instance, when opening a new youth centre, Wilfred Noyce, Everest climber, author and former Charterhouse master said "The new centre, with its coffee bar and jukebox is a sociological challenge, aimed at bringing the hitherto 'unclubbable' onto its circle of activities." Two years ago, for a distinguished speaker to recognise and classify a jukebox in this manner would have been positively unthinkable. It is too early to evaluate the effect, if any, on phonograph takings in sites where casinos have been or are being opened. First splash from the new luxury bingo halls lowered 'takes' within limited areas, but reports now coming in from operators affirm resumption to normal. Two momentous decisions are awaited by the trade with some measure of trepidation—Common Market and Decimal Coinage. With these two major problems in the balance, it would be risky to forecast the rest of the year. There remains a steady, though increasingly selective market over here, which merits serious attention by phonograph manufacturers and distributors. The best cliche heard so far this year—"Business is primarily the function of finding out what a customer wants and seeing that he gets it."

Nogar Of Mar-Matic Sees Sales Increase

LONDON—Mr. Nogar of Mar-Matic Sales Ltd. reports a record year with greatly expanded sales capacity necessitating an increase in factory production and frequent air lifting of equipment to meet the urgent demands. As far as Jennings machines are concerned the heavily chromed Governor with its recently added engineering features has proved an immediate success. A contributory factor to the present boom is the recent but universal acceptance, by working men's clubs, of this proven breadwinner. Generous hire purchase terms offered by all distributors have also stimulated Jennings sales.

Another aspect of the trend in business is the increasing popularity of the Keeney Triple Up, the all-electric trouble-free fruit machine. Mar-Matic will shortly be introducing two new Keeney machines—The Rainbow, a bingo type ball machine giving instantaneous and responsive scoring; and the two-player Roll-a-Line featuring a kicker bar for positive ball control.

A self contained electronic "screeching" alarm is being installed by Mar-Matic into all machines. Activated simply by the motion of the machine results have been sufficiently rewarding to justify Insurance Writers lowering the rates of insurance on fruit machines.

AINSWORTH GETTING ITS SHARE OF MKT.

LONDON — Ainsworth Consolidated (Great Britain) Ltd. whose claims include the introduction of front opening for fruit machines, nylon star wheels and the spring loaded stopping action, continue to improve their models to satisfy all markets. The company are taking a very fair share of the current boom enjoyed by established and reputable fruit machine manufacturers.

General Manager Hal Eldridge reports that the Arcadian 1d play has met with considerable success in arcades where it is absolutely essential that machines be used continuously in view of the short season at most British seaside resorts. The full range of Aristocrat machines are concentrated around the 'Sheerline' design although the Company is still producing the Clubmaster.

The London company has been responsible for the marketing of Aristocrat range of machines throughout the European and Mediterranean countries, whilst the manufacturing company in Australia has representatives actively operating throughout the world.

Seeburg Fares Well After UK Premiere

LONDON—Seeburg (Great Britain) Ltd. has now been operating in this country for eight weeks and is the latest affiliated company of Seeburg, Chicago to be set up in Europe through their holding company Serose Ltd. of Switzerland. The purpose of the company is to market the complete range of Seeburg equipment which includes phonographs, background music and complete range of automatic vending machines. On the music systems side a very close association will be continued with the Ditchburn Organisation who, until now have held exclusive distribution rights in the U. K.

Plans for the immediate future include the introduction of the Seeburg range of vending machines all of which are entirely new to this country. A coffee vendor, the Bally, which brews freshly ground coffee a cup at a time—already a proven leader in this kind of equipment in the United States; Choice-Vend range of bottle and can vending machines offering selections from 72-250 bottles or 390 cans; a solo cigarette machine and a sweets and snack vendor, both of which incorporate some very outstanding features.

Second Blackpool Show To Be Held In Dec.

BLACKPOOL—The second Northern Amusement Equipment and Coin Operated Machine Exhibition will be held at the Olympia Winter Gardens, Blackpool, from December 4th to 6th 1962. Organisers, Jack D. Rose (Exhibitions) Ltd. report that due to the success of last year's inaugural show and, at the request of exhibitors, it is proposed to make the exhibition an annual event.

Already a number of last year's exhibitors have booked space and in some cases larger sites have been taken. However, with the whole of the Winter Gardens at their disposal, the Organisers can easily accommodate all applicants. It is hoped that the three-day event will once again provide an excellent opportunity for manufacturers, agents, distributors of amusement equipment, automatic machines, vending machines etc. to display and sell their products to the vast number of potential buyers in the North of England, Scotland, The Isle of Man and Ireland.

Phono. Equip. Acquires New Factory

LONDON — Phongraphic Equipment Ltd. main distributors of Bally, Sega, Williams and Wurlitzer, report fantastic sales on all fronts. An insatiable demand for Sega fruits, both 1d and 6d play, confirms the current boom in this type of equipment. Williams pin tables are in demand and shipments of the Wurlitzer 2600 phonograph are now coming in regularly.

After nine years in business, Phonographic Equipment, have recently acquired a new factory which should be completed by the end of the year. The building covers an area of 14,000 square feet and will contain automatic hoist lifts, spray shop, offices, canteen and elaborate ground floor showrooms—all air conditioned. Their present home will be retained for storage purposes.

Canteen Uses 14 Europe Distribs

LONDON—Automatic Canteen Company (Great Britain) Ltd., U.K. subsidiary of the Automatic Canteen Company of America, are successfully marketing AMI phonograph equipment through a team of 14 distributors. Each distributor besides operating many hundreds of machines, offers new AMI equipment, reconditioned Bal Ami juke boxes, spare parts and service.

The Automatic Canteen Company Ltd. also produces the hot drink machine which is being installed in industrial locations all over the world.

When was the last time you celebrated your Twentieth Anniversary? Was it many years ago . . . or is it still in the future. Cash Box is enjoying the experience of celebrating its 20th year this week and it is indeed a pleasurable experience. Joe Orleck is the only member of the original Cash Box staff remaining to this day, although joined by his brother Norman—who is v.p. today—several years after the coin machine trade publication was founded. Many faces have come and gone since that eventful day twenty years ago and many happy days can be found among the 20 years which have passed. The coin machine people who founded the business, the industry as it is known today, are still around in many instances. Too many have passed on and because of them legend continues founded on their exploits and progress. The seemingly silly machine ideas which evolved into the substantial income-earners for thousands today—the depression years of moving as many machines onto locations as one could afford—the lean years of the 25¢ and 50¢ in the pockets of the "small man" as he was referred to, who was really the foundation of support for the phonographs and pingames which found their way into the cider joints and the beer parlors. Entertainment was in demand and anyone could buy it—for only 5¢ per tune or a nickel a game. Some fun! And thank goodness for the coin machines!

Tenth Avenue here in New York has undergone a face-lifting that would probably reflect the changing of the times. The string of coin machine outlets are now covered with stainless steel and aluminum fronts, many of the offices inside boasting paneled walls and ceilings. The ever growing motel and hotel business has pushed northward almost enveloping the coin machine wholesale houses, and in the case of the east side of the street, have completely pushed them off the sidewalks. But the mainstays have remained and will continue to sell coin machines, as many now own their own buildings and have no intentions of going anywhere (unless its to the mountains for the weekend).

Mike Munves, one of the originals who came in from Brooklyn, still houses probably the most selective variety of arcade equipment to be found under one roof, in the country. And Mike has something else he started with many years ago . . . his smile and feeling for people. He certainly doesn't have that first dollar he made. Probably gave it away that same day if today's indications are anything. Brother Joe Munves, now across the street, another oldtimer, and now in the manufacturing-wholesaling-contract manufacturing business, still walking as fast as ever and covering maybe twice as much ground. Joe is in business with Frank Mencuri, who can remember the good old days as well as the next veteran.

Irving Holzman, who today is the largest United games distributor in the nation, was once a small operator, having conducted a business with former colleague Joe Green and the memories from those days would hold your ear for quite a while. Irving today has retained the memories of the days gone by and enjoys the success he has today after passing through what could be termed the apprenticeship of the business . . . the hustling for locations and operations which make up the routes . . . the lifeline of the industry. .. ....

Al Simon, another veteran who can relate the history of the business, having manufactured, distributed and operated vast numbers of machines at one time, and even today a top-ranking distributor of major music and games lines.

Barney Sugerman, one of the best-known coinmen, who started so many years ago as a bandleader (he played saxaphone or didn't you know), then into the operating business and the tavern business and today the coin machine business has won out as Shugy continues to grow with great foresight, now joined by his sons Myron and Nate, as the Runyon firm moves in several weeks, into a larger plant in Springfield, N.J. and the beginning of another era in the long history of the company.

Dave Stern, a New Yorker for many years on Tenth Avenue, relates from his Elizabeth offices a story that has Dave and his family sailing by another yacht on Newport Bay just last weekend and who would you think would own it? JFK of course. And these things happened to Dave Stern and have been a part of his existence for so many years. Dave has given many of us laffs, and more laffs as he pursued his quests for machine sales and operations over the years. Not stopping there, we read in the NY Times only three weeks ago where a group called the Compass Troupe, a group of actors, are setting Washington D.C. and now Newport on their collective ears with a parody on the present administration. Leading lady of the group is a Suzanne Shepherd, the daughter of Dave Stern! And while Dave sails by the Presidential Yacht, his daughter entertains the Presidential Family, and this is in keeping with Dave Stern, a man of many stories, that go back more than our twenty years of publishing Cash Box.

Perry Wachtel, another vet, though not near as experienced as the 30 and 40 year men, (he's really a youngtimer) picks up the NY papers last Wednesday to read that his daughter Stephanie (Winters) has been signed to do the West Coast production of West Side Story, before leaving for NYC and rehearsals to go into "Stop The World I Want To Get Off," as reported here several months ago. Twenty years ago Perry was hustling used equipment ads from the Tenth Avenue showrooms and today his ad agency boasts among its accounts the largest coin machine and vending firms in the business, and with a "leading lady" heading for Broadway, this is another pleasurable moment for a coinrow vet.

Harry Berger, who started some 20-odd years back, and went to school with Perry Wachtel, and Abe Lipsky, who is still on Tenth Aveune operating out of his own firm now, continues to wholesale vending and coin equipment, while operating in the metropolitan area.

Meyer Parkoff, who was the accountant for the Harry Rosen firm many years ago, today after about twenty years in the business, is the number one man at Atlantic-Seeburg here and his brother Oscar continues to supervise the Jersey end of the firm. Another familiar face, though no longer a New Yorker, is that of Jack Gordon, who at that time, years back, probably was setting up record distributorships for the major labels and then into the juke box business and now today executive vice-president of Seeburg itself. And that's progress.

Many names, the operators, too numerous to mention, but printed here many times over the years, continue to make up the larger part of the populace as the industry remains pretty much in the hands of the men who started it with some exceptions, of course. The business has changed and so has the equipment. The marketing methods have certainly been revised not only here in New York but across the country, and now we deal with a world of coinmen. And we can hope here that all of us can enjoy at least 20 more years of the same friendships.

Chicago Chatter

At so auspicious an occasion as this when we arrive at our 20th anniversary, we can't help but look back over the past 12 month period and muse over the many good things—and, of course, the unfortunate incidents such as the unhappy passing of some of our dear friends in coinbiz. We can only say at this time that we hope that all of the good things in life will be yours—and yours —and yours during the next 12 month cycle in coinbiz. This is a sincere Cash Box greeting from all of us to all of you!

A perpetually tireless Dave Gottlieb, prexy of D. Gottlieb & Co. guided Vince (Dr. Ben Casey) Edwards, of TV fame, and his sponsor Leonard Lavin, Prexy of Alberto-Culver Co. on a "Cook's Tour" of Dave's pride and joy—Gottlieb Memorial Hospital in suburban Melrose Park, last Thursday, July 26. Dave chuckled heartily, when he quipped: "We don't think we ought to let 'Dr. Casey' operate until he gets a little more experience!" Also on hand were Nate Gottlieb, Alvin Gottlieb and Judd Weinberg.

The "golf bugs" among our local coinmen are excitedly buzzing over the upcoming "World Series of Golf," produced by Walt Schwimmer, in which Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player will compete shortly. Most coinmen would like to see Sam Snead, golfdom's elder statesman, perform as well to make it a thrilling foursome.

Summertime is just another season of heavy sales and deliveries to operators at Atlas Music Co., according to Nate Feinstein. Nate, Eddie Ginsburg, Harold Schwartz and Irv Ovitz extended their warmest greetings to everyone at Cash Box on the occasion of our 20th anniversary.

Things settled down in Bill O'Donnell's office at Bally, since the tragic death of Bill's brother, Jack O'Donnell. Business continues good at Bally, according to Herb Jones and Don Moloney. . . . We're glad to see Fred Skor back from his vacation and in his office at World Wide Distribs. We take it that prexy Joel Stern and Howie Freer are equally happy to see Fred back, business is so rushed these days. Fred had nasty weather during his vacation in Wisconsin, but he rested (he sez).

Happy Cash Box greetings were extended from Rock-Ola Mfg. by such worthies as Ed Doris, Don Rockola, a vacationing Ralph Wyckoff, Les Rieck, Jack Barabash, Art Ehlert and Art Janousek. (Glad to have you aboard, fellows!) . . . Everything is "A-OK" at Williams Electronic Mfg., according to vice prexy Art Weinand, since Williams' "Friendship 7" pingame is rocketing to sensational sales figures and excellent acceptance everywhere it is distributed (in this country and abroad). Glad tidings from prexy Sam Stern and Art to all Cashboxers everywhere.

"Best wishes to our friends at Cash Box," was hailed to us by Gil Kitt, Joe Robbins, Jack (Bottles) Burns, Bill Herbord and Dusty Hohbein of Empire Coin Machine Exchange. (And that goes for all Cash Box people all over the world, said Joe!)

ChiCoin's Mort Secore was fairly ecstatic when he info'd last week that Chicago Coin's "World's Fair" rifle target gallery is enjoying fantastic sales everywhere. Production at Chicago Dynamic Industries is at peak on the gun game, and "Variety Roll Down Bowler." Herb Bidenkap took off on a hectic nationwide tour calling on ChiCoin's distribs. . . . Greetings to all of us from Joel Kleiman, Prexy of Pioneer Sales in Milwaukee.

It's business (steady) as usual at First Coin Machine Exchange, according to Joe Kline and Sam Kolber despite the warm weather. "First," Joe sez, "is as usual headquarters for local operators, who like to come in and 'bat the breeze' with us." . . . We're delighted to acknowledge sincere best wishes from good friends Ted Rubey and Estelle Bye, of Marvel Mfg. Co.

They're all smiles at United Mfg. thanks to the fine acceptance of the "Action" shuffle alley bowler and "Sahara" big ball bowling alley. Greetings happily received from Prez Lyn Durout, Herb Oettinger, Bill DeSelm, Leroy Kraehmer, Glenn Johnson, Ray Riehl, Art Rapacz, Johnny Casola, Al Thoelke, and "Big Bob" Jonesi (thanks, fellas!).

Another acknowledgement from the executive staff at Rowe AC Services: John Hale, Jack Harper, Tom Sams, Jack Dunwoody, Don Lunday, Jim Newlander and Phil Glover. And, lest we forget (and we certainly can't!) Patrick L. O'Malley, genial, very gracious chief executive officer and president of Automatic Canteen Co.

Our greeters at Seeburg include Delbert Coleman, Frank O'Brien, Jack C. Gordon, Tom Herrick, Leonard Gross. Stanley Jarocki and Bob Dunlap. . . . While the J. H. Keeney & Co. plant is shuttered and due to reopen next Monday Paul Huebsch (who remained at the controls during the vacation shuttering), is busy as blazes taking care of those "small" rush shipments to Keeney's distribs.

Despite the summer doldrums Bill Weikel, sales director of Fischer Sales & Mfg. Co., is enjoying excellent sales of Fischer's "Crown Imperial" series of pool tables. Also the "Coronet" and "Crown Fiesta" tables are moving fast these days. . . . Ronald Wolff, prexy of Interstate Vending Co., and his staff are more than merely excited over the pending opening of a coin-operated Brass Rail restaurant in the lower level of the Wrigley Bldg. on Chicago's "Magnificent Mile," along 'Boul Mich' (Michigan Avenue to the squares—of which we have none of in coinbiz!) The restaurant will be opened to the public sometime in the Fall.

We'd like to acknowledge congratulations from the following coinmen: Hymie and Eddie Zorinsky, H. Z. Vending & Sales in Omaha. . . . Howard Ellis, Music Guild of Nebraska. . . . Charles (Jimmy) Johnson and his gal Friday, Corinne, of Globe Distributing Co. . . . Chet Gore, Exhibit Supply Co. . . . Hank Ross, Ralph Sheffield and Marcine (Iggy) Wolverton, Midway Mfg. . . . National Kiddie Ride Association Offers Insurance

Following is a prepared statement by officials of the National Kiddie Ride Association, a newly organized trade association located in California.

The National Kiddie Ride Association is the culmination of a year's research, planning and discussion with the manufacturer, distributor and operator of kiddie ride equipment and the problems connected with the industry.

From the data compiled, the greater percentage requested some assistance in their insurance programs; therefore, this was the first undertaking of the Association. In order to accomplish this and other needs, the National Kiddie Ride Association became a legally constituted California corporation in 1961, and immediately began negotiations through a duly licensed insurance brokerage office to supply this need through domestic carriers. We are happy to report that such a plan is now in operation nationwide for its members.

At this time, the Association is preparing inquiries to its members regarding safety measures and other subjects peculiar to the industry, and in the future plans to conduct surveys on subjects that may prove useful to those who wish to use the information compiled.

Originally, our program was to serve principally the kiddie ride industry; however, we are pleased to announce that we are prepared to extend to other fields of coin-operated equipment such as cigarette machines, phonographs, games, gum and candy machines, and vending equipment for food and beverage.

The motto of the Association is, "Devoted to the best interests of the Kiddie Ride Industry." With the extension of our services into other branches of coin-operated equipment, we feel that the best interests of all concerned can be accomplished through membership participation in the exchange of ideas, experiences, and other data forwarded to this office where it may be reviewed and passed on from time to time in bulletin form to the membership for its true worth. The National Kiddie Ride Association welcomes the opportunity to serve as a clearing house so to speak for its members and to be of genuine service whenever and wherever possible.

The annual dues of the Association are $25.00. The present officers of the Association have donated all time without charge. Membership funds are on deposit in a local bank in an Association trust account and are used only to help defray operating expenses of the organization. Legal advisor for the Association is Mr. Milton J. Davidson, attorney, 22014 Ventura Boulevard, Woodland Hills, California. And the accountant is Mr. Donald M. Smith. 23032 Mariano Street, Woodland Hills, California.

Since 1936 Bowling Has Helped Mold Team Effort At Seeburg

24 Company Sponsored Teams Roll Into 27th Consecutive Year, Come September

by Bruce R. Jagor

(Director, Senior Consultant and former Vice-Chairman, The Seeburg Corp.)

Back in 1936, when we formed a company bowling league at Seeburg, we discovered the best and quickest way to break down barriers between employees and management was through a company sponsored recreation program.

Although we now enjoy a diversified recreation program, our bowling league, now in its 27th year, is still the most popular competition.

The camaraderie that exists among our bowlers—employees and executives carries over into their jobs. Our productivity has increased tremendously, and I know that it is the result of our wonderful employee-management relationship.

I helped organize our bowling league. I bowled in it for years myself and enjoyed every minute of it.

As vice-chairman of the board of Seeburg, I bowled as a member of an employee team from 1936 through 1952. I quit then, at the age of 61, because of a back injury sustained working around the house. But I still cherish the memories and friendships I made in this company recreation activity.

One of the major shortcomings in employee-management relations in large corporations is that not enough of the "company brass" are willing to take part in company recreation programs. Too many executives do not understand that by improving employee morale they are working toward improving their products.

I still occasionally admonish one or two of the executives at Seeburg for their reluctance to actively participate in our recreational programs. And for a number of reasons.

Bowling, for example, breaks down barriers like no other sport. It creates enthusiastic interplay between employees and management personnel faster than any other sport. And the rewards are tremendous.

When one of our executives asked me: "Why should I waste my time in the bowling league or the camera club?", I had an answer ready for him.

Morale Improved

I told him that the spirit of our employees is unique in industry and it just didn't develop because our employees joined our firm. It was cultivated, sincerely and through the years.

Our employee-management relations improved steadily from 1936, from the beginning of our company bowling league. When employees bowled with their bosses, strained relations between the two dissipated.

The rewards were tremendous from the beginning. Employee morale improved, and with it individual employee productivity. This had to happen because of the greater teamwork developed in the bowling center, and carried over into working hours. Thus, there was and still is greater efficiency among all levels of Seeburg personnel.

There are other rewards, too. A good recreation program makes our recruitment program much more efficient. Prospective employees hear about the wonderful working conditions at Seeburg, and for the most part, come to us unsolicited.

Our fine employee recreation program also results in lower turnover.

O'Brien Praises Team Effort

"It heightens team concept which is so important to our business activity. It provides an opportunity for various management levels in our organization to function as a team. Each employee is very important to the company's success and the personal interplay that is essential for people to function effectively together, is cultivated through the relaxed atmosphere of our sports program, in which our bowling league is one of many employee-management sponsored activities."

I am singling out our bowling league as an example of what other firms can do to strengthen their employee-management relations. Two main reasons are:

1. Right from the start, a bowling league breaks down barriers in the way of efficient communication between employee and supervisors.

2. It keeps everyone who participates physically fit. This means less days away from work. You'll note quickly a big drop in absenteeism.

3. The cost of operating a bowling league is minimal. At Seeburg we have two leagues, one for men, the other for women. Besides this, twice a year, in special fun competition, management executives and supervisors compete against the other personnel in the regular bowling leagues.

We pay the bowlers' entry fees, supply each player with a bowling shirt, and put up $4 a year for the "kitty" of each of the teams. We have 16 men's teams and 8 women's teams. Each team member contributes $1 apiece, which goes for beautiful trophies awarded to the league's top bowlers at the annual season-ending banquet.

4. The most attractive factor in organizing a bowling league, is that it needs only casual supervision from management. The employees run their own leagues through their own elected officers.

Amazing Response

The response to the Seeburg bowling leagues still amazes me, even after having seen it in operation since 1936. Peter Salvato, our personnel director, tells me he's constantly bombarded with requests from men and women employees eager to join in the competition. Age is no barrier. Our youngest bowler is 17, our oldest 64.

Our league kicks off this year on September 4. It will run for 33 weeks at the Humboldt Bowl in Chicago. It's a modern, air-conditioned bowling center, which has just completed the installation of the latest model bowling equipment, 20 new AMF Magic Circle lanes and underground ball returns.

Vincent Infante, 52, a Seeburg tool and die man, who is president of our employee bowling league, told me:

"The men just love to bowl. It's the best form of relaxation we know. The league gives us a chance to meet different people, exercise, have a few drinks together, and let off some

Director and Senior Consultant of The Seeburg Corporation, Bruce R. Jagor, demonstrates his bowling form to President, Frank B. O'Brien and to Die repairman, Vincent Infante, who has an unbroken record of twenty-five consecutive years with the Seeburg Bowling League.

steam. I've been bowling for 25 years in the Seeburg league, and I don't intend to ever quit."

Infante's remarks are typical of the men in the Seeburg bowling league. In short, they love it.

Why is bowling the best sport for helping management and supervisors get to know their employees better, and vice versa?

During many years of experience in the Seeburg league, I found that when you're out bowling with friends, it's just like being out at a picnic. Everyone lets his hair down—even the biggest big shots—and gets into the spirit of the occasion.

To me there's nothing more thrilling than watching my teammate run up eight successive strikes. It is, in short, an electrifying experience.

When that happens, everyone in the bowling center stops rolling, and joins in watching the "hot" bowler until he flubs or scores a real high game. Then everyone goes up, slaps the bowler on the back, and gives him a lift that he gets from no other work or sport activity. That's what bowling means to those who compete. It gives them a lift, builds an individual and team spirit uncommon in any other sport.

We have three plants in the Chicago area, the main one at 1500 N. Dayton St. In our plants are a total of 1900 employees, and the greater majority participate in one or more of our recreational programs.

Encourage Participation

If there is any one reason why Seeburg is the top firm in the coin-operated phonograph field, it is because we enjoy excellent employee-management relations, due in great measure to our effective recreation programs.

We encourage our executives to break down the communications barriers between themselves and employees which too commonly exist in companies. We ask our brass not only to roll up their sleeves at work, but to join in recreation programs as well.

Those of us who have, have seen rewards in company productivity and success we never dreamed of.

Since 1958, when Seeburg entered the vending industry, our company has broadened its line of vending equipment with cold drink cup venders, cold drink bottle and can venders, coffee venders, candy and pastry venders, milk venders, and cigarette vending machines.

Our employees are extremely proud to be associated with a champion, and we're equally proud of their accomplishments that have made us No. 1 in our field.

Work or Play—Win

Our bowling league typifies our employee-management attitude at work and at play. Everyone at Seeburg constantly seeks to improve himself and our products.

Whether at work or at play, we at Seeburg like to win. But, at the same time, we get considerable enjoyment out of just participating. You don't get such spirit in a large corporation without "company brass" willing to pitch in and make it work.

It wasn't like it is now when I first arrived here in the winter of 1936, a little thinner, less gray, and full of wild dreams. But it certainly is bubbling today. I find myself surrounded by close friends—our employees—and they, too, consider me a real friend.

That, I guess, is the Seeburg secret. We're one big, happy family.

And our bowling league has helped measurably to instill that spirit which is the envy of many another corporation.

We successfully broke down the barriers at Seeburg. I advise other company officials to do likewise. It doesn't take much. Just a little sincere effort on the part of company management, and a phone call to the local bowling proprietor.

You'll find in a short while, that employee and executive morale will improve 100 per cent.

Start a bowling league. We did, and it's still the backbone of our many-faceted recreation program.

New Sun-Glo Plastic Weights

BELLEVILLE, NEW JERSEY—Carmine Decepoli, President of Sun-Glo Shuffleboard Supply Corporation, this city, has announced the release of an all new plastic shuffleboard weight which has been designed and produced for the amusement machine industry. The weight is specially manufactured for the shuffle alley-bowling machine operator and is expected to replace, in part, the all-metal disks which are now used.

The actual weight of the puck is almost as heavy as the steel disk but is more economical, according to Decepoli. Colors are available to coincide with a particular demand and the crest is topped in a gold plate. The jumbo size measures 2⅞" in diameter, the regular size 2¼". In addition to the economical benefits, Decepoli sees the new puck as eliminating the hazard of an all-steel weight in the hands of those seeking amusement. The weights are expected to cost about one-half the price of the all-steel.

Sun-Glo will continue to market the all-steel weights and in addition is shipping a new powder and wax which is reported to be in wide use after a short introductory period.

Sun-Glo's volume has increased 20% over last year with the addition of new and improved products (CB July 28). The firm markets four powders, six types of shuffle weights, a manually operated scoreboard, paste, wax and cleaners for amusement machines.

German Trade Leader Hits At Legislation

"Leave It Up To The Player To Decide On Machines"

BRAUNSCHWEIG, GERMANY — Automaten Markt, German coin machine trade journal, in reporting on legislation written to prohibit the operation of certain types of amusement machine equipment over the years, commented on the remarks made in conjunction with a report on this legislation, by Dr. Paul Lob.

Lob, who has been in charge of the gambling laboratory of PTB (Germany) for twenty-seven years, quotes this interesting observation, after a discussion of gambling and legislation had taken place previous to the report:

"The coin machine industry, for reasons of competition, should be allowed to develop as many unobjectionable gambling machines as it likes, for in the end it is the player who will decide whether he likes the machine or not. Naturally, it is also up to him to choose whether he wants to stake his money in machines offering minor winnings, but also inflicting minor losses, or whether he wants to spend his money at the Lotto, or football."

Royal Party In Columbus Aug. 12

COLUMBUS—August 12 has been set for the grand opening of the new Royal Distributing quarters in Columbus, Ohio. The Cincinnati coin machine firm recently purchased Century Music Company here and has renovated the showrooms in a style in keeping with a radical interior decorator design which last year turned the firm's Cincy headquarters into a veritable showplace for coin machine equipment.

The party will begin at 2:00 PM and operators throughout the area have been invited. It will be an Open House occasion.

Harold Hoffman and Clint Shockey, sales execs of the firm, have supervised the planning and have advised that prizes will be awarded to many lucky visitors throughout the day-long party.

There will be a drawing every hour on the hour and prizes will consist of appliances, lamps, equipment and luxury goods.

Capitol Cites 3 Singles For Juke Box Programming

Label Launches Drive Among 500 Ops in N.Y.

NEW YORK—Juke box operators continued to grow in importance as a major singles market for record manufacturers last week when Capitol Records launched a local promotion to 500 juke box operators in the NY-NJ-Westchester areas here.

National Singles Sales and Promotion Manager Vito Samela advised Cash Box last week that samples of three "strong-selling" Capitol singles were sent to the 500 operators suggesting that they listen to them, program them, and order in quantities for machines on location. "These records are currently on the Cash Box Top 100 Chart," reads the Capitol letter which also lists five other singles reportedly selling nationwide on the Capitol label.

The three disks which lead off the Capitol promotion are: "Stop Playing That Song"—Ruth McFadden; "Big Daddy"—Louis Prima; and "Last Call For Alcohol"—Julia Lee. "These records have been receiving excellent reaction from juke box operators in various parts of the country," stated Samela.

The five singles listed as suggestions for programming, based on the fact that they are selling in hit proportions are: "Ramblin' Rose"—Nat King Cole; "Route 66" b/w "Lolita"—Nelson Riddle; "Beach Party"—King Curtis; "Worried Mind"—Ray Anthony; and "Surfin' Safari"—Beach Boys.

Capitol intends to promote the firm's singles to a nationwide market of juke box operators after several local campaigns have been launched similar to the one outlined above. Samples of the disks are enclosed in packages mailed complete with lists, promotion material and other programming information.

Judge Keogh Sentenced To Two Years For Moore Bribe

BROOKLYN—J. Vincent Keogh, former U.S. Supreme Court Justice, was sentenced to two years in prison last week for attempting to fix a federal court sentence in Brooklyn when he was a judge. The sentence was the culmination of a trial which began last year when Sandy Moore, former juke box distributor and operator in the New York area, admitted he had bribed the Judge, and U.S. Asst. Attorney Elliott Kahaner, in a plan carried out by a Doctor Robert Erdman, a friend of Keogh, with money allegedly raised by Anthony (Tony Ducks) Corallo, a labor racketeer. Kahaner and Corallo received two-year sentences along with Keogh. Moore had previously had a two-year sentence for violation of the National Bankruptcy Act reduced for cooperating with the Government in the case against Keogh. Lawyers for the three convicted men stated they would appeal the sentences which were imposed by Judge Edward Weinfeldon Thursday, August 2.

Wolff Tells West Coast Finance Group Interstate Will Gross $61 Million

Cites Hospitals, Gas Stations, As Targets

CHICAGO—A $61 million dollar 1962 consolidated sales volume for the Interstate Vending Company, was predicted by President Ronald Wolff in a speech before the Los Angeles Society of Financial Analysts last week. In addition, another $9 million dollars in sales volume was represented by companies 50% owned by Interstate.

While final figures are not yet available, Wolff said, Interstate's 1962 earnings will be about $1.00 a share.

He stated that the recent market action of stock has had little effect on the company's long-range plans.

He stated that one of the company's most significant areas of growth in the future would be automatic food services for industry, offices and institutions.

"This prospect opens up for us industrial plants and institutions with 250 to 800 people. We now have the management techniques and facilities available to operate profitably in areas that in the past were too remote for our organization."

In regard to this, he cited the recent developmental program Interstate has undertaken jointly with the Mobile Oil Company, which will provide for complete automated food services in a number of Mobil service stations throughout the country. He stated that Interstate will open a number of these operations in California beginning the first of next year. About the same time, service station vending operations will also be launched in the East and Midwest.

Another area in which Wolff foresees opportunity for growth is in providing food service for hospitals.

Wolff stated that Interstate has the combined, integrated capabilities to take advantage of all these opportunities. The company's objective, he stated, is a sustained annual growth rate of 15%.

Interstate Vending Company is one of the three largest operators of vending equipment in the country, with over 70 vending and food service divisions and more than 3,000 employees in 29 states.

Shortly after it was founded 7 years ago, Interstate gained national recognition for introducing the first vending equipment to brew and dispense fresh coffee.

The company's services fall into two broad categories—automatic vending and manual food services. Automatic vending services include The Brass Rail Automatic Restaurant, full-line vending, automatic cigarette services and the Perk-O-Fresh coffee service.

The manual food services include The Brass Rail public restaurants, food and refreshment services in recreational areas, contract food management services for industry, hospitals and schools and in-flight catering.

The company went public in November, 1960. Interstate stock is currently being traded Over-the-Counter.

Cole Says His Cig Machine Is Doing Big Location Biz

CHICAGO—Dick Cole, vice-president, Cole vending Industries, stated last week "that when one cuts through the haze and smoke-screens of claims and counter-claims about cigarette vending machine business, one fact stands out with glaring clarity—the Cole Cigarette Machine is doing big business in every location. An integral and welcome part of Cole's Complete 'Matched Line' of vending equipment, the cigarette machine, despite relatively recent appearance, is delivering king-size volume and profits."

Cole stated that the vendor has 20 selections and handily vends either regular, filter or king-size cigarettes from any column. An optional business stimulator, the "Gum and Mint Add-Cessory" is available with the Cigarette Machine. It features a straight 5¢-4 column operation taking 5¢ Dentyne and candy coated gums. Columns taking regular mints and gums are interchangeable. If mints are not used, 142 items can be conveniently handled by the machine, if mints are used it will take 130 items.

The statement was made following a company sales push on the cigarette unit.

Continental Buys Five Operating Firms For $6 Million

Expects Acquisition To Add $10 Million Annually

NEW YORK—Continental Vending Machine Corporation has acquired a group of five vending operations for more than $6-million, it was announced last week by Harold Roth, President of Continental. The Company paid all cash above assumption of liabilities and no stock was involved in the transaction.

According to Roth, the new acquisitions have an approximate combined annual sales volume of $10-million. The operations are Coast to Coast Vending Corp. and Coast Automatic Vending Corp.

Coast to Coast Vending has operations in Orange County, Calif.; San Francisco, Calif.; Buffalo, N.Y. and Miami, Fla. Coast Automatic operates in Los Angeles.

"These acquisitions are consistent with our often-stated policy of gaining properties which supplement our growth program," Roth said.

Continental Vending, listed on the American Stock Exchange, is a leading operator and manufacturer in the fast-growing vending industry.

"Our many firsts have made us the world's largest manufacturer to the vending machine operator," Roth said. "At the same time, the Company is a major in-plant feeder utilizing fully automatic cafeterias which have been installed in such leading industrial facilities as Ford Motor Company, Chrysler Motors, Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., Parke, Davis & Co., Revlon, Inc., E. I. DuPont de Nemours & Co. and National Lead Company.

Cleveland Coin's Gold Increases Vending Sales

CLEVELAND—One of the prime reasons for Cleveland Coin Machine Exchange's increased volume in business, one-third of which is attributed by prexy Morris Gisser to vending, is the work of vending sales chief Ronald Gold, pictured below. The Dartmouth grad has had five years experience in the business and Gisser claims he's "an expert already." An attorney, an officer of the Good-Will Loan Corp. and a stockholder in the Coin Machine Leasing Corp., Gold "represents the type of individual our industry has badly needed—this youthful outlook will add much to our industry's future growth" according to Gisser.

Weiner Sole Smokeshop Factory Rep In NY

NEW YORK—Bill Weiner, Eastern Sales Representative for Automatic Products Company, in charge of Smokeshop Cigarette Vendor sales in metropolitan New York, New Jersey and Philadelphia, (as reported in Cash Box last week) will use the facilities of the Lipsky Distributing Company offices as an operating point, but will serve as direct factory representative with Lipsky and other distributors in the sales territory handling the line through Weiner. There is no connection between Weiner and the Lipsky firm, other than the fact that Weiner will conduct his business from the Lipsky address, sharing office facilities. The story which appeared in this space last week erroneously reported that Weiner would work in conjunction with Lipsky on the cigarette line. Art Brier, sales manager of Automatic Products Company, returned last week from a vacation, and conferred with Weiner by telephone regarding sales plans for the fall.

Rowe-AC Conducts Vending School At Jones-Seattle

SEATTLE—Ralph Cragan, Manager of the Seattle Branch of the R. F. Jones Company, reported an attendance in excess of thirty-five for the first in a series of schools conducted on the Rowe Vending line.

The school was held at the R. F. Jones Co. office; 309 Ninth Avenue North; Seattle, Washington; on Thursday July 19th, with Ralph Phipps for Rowe AC Services Field Engineer in charge.

Among those in attendance were: Merle Warehime, Ray Bisterfelt, Robert Stagg, Ken Wilde, Harvey Hillin, Warren Miller, George Costa, Ray Arkills, Bill Acree, James Brown, Bill Bailey, Andy Brojavid, Forrest Thompson, Jim Neil, Gene Mellett, Edwin Gibson, Rudy Petersen, Stan C. Foster, Dale Fisher, Ed Weidman, Julian A. Richardson, Dale Farver, Lela Farver, Erwin Rodgers, Bobby Gene Pierce, Douglas Night, and Ray Larson.

On hand on the Jones Staff to welcome operators and servicemen were Miss Judy Thompson, Bryant Feveryear, Len Galley, and Ralph Perin. Coffee and Donuts were served at the mid point of the session.

The next school is scheduled for Thursday, August 23rd, with another to follow in September.

RALPH PHIPPS, Rowe-AC's field engineer conducts, demonstrates and personally explains the Rowe line to operators during R. F. Jones Seattle school last week.

5 REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD BE A GIEPEN DISTRIBUTOR:

1. NO SERVICE—The Giepen Machines are 100% Guaranteed —tested and proven for two years.
2. LOW SELLING PRICE—Operators pay only $345 for a coffee vender that looks like a large fresh-brew machine costing $1500. You have a good margin of profit and yet operators can afford your new machine.
3. REPEAT BUSINESS—The steady sale of vending supplies—name brand products like Maxwell House Coffee and Soups, Johnson Chocolate, Romanoff Soups—is steady income, yet there's no spoilage, no sanitation problems, no inventory losses. Everything is instant.
4. BIG PROFIT POTENTIAL FOR OPERATORS—Operators can now do business with the "poor" locations because the small-traffic areas pay big profits. No big investment, no maintenance cost, no high priced servicemen. It's like operating cigarettes, but more profitable.
5. VERSATILE—The Giepen machine is adaptable to coffee, hot chocolate, soup, tea, the new Cinch Instant-Shine—schools, offices, wherever people congregate are good locations.

The Search Goes On For Fish And Chips

President Of Britain's "N.A.M.A." Surveys 33 Years On The Vending Scene

It is an honour to be a member of the Automatic Vending Machine Association. Its officers are keen experienced people dedicated to a career of tremendous variety and excitement. It has been the experience of those who come into Automatic Vending to be stimulated by the rapid changes and developments on all sides of the industry. There appears to be no limit to the inventiveness of designers and manufacturers. New ideas constantly come from the drawing boards and prototypes roll from the factory with enthusiasm. Alas, not all survive the experience of life. Some flop at once, some linger and fade, and many more are superseded by immediate improvements. Gimmicks and Gadgets abound. Numerous are those who have rushed in with something 'new' only to retire from the arena where only the prudent remain. 'Prudence and Adventure' could well be the motto of our industry. Nevertheless, those who have come and gone are richer in experience if poorer in pocket. Any slight contact with our activities gives a stimulus to thought (and hopes!) that is unique in the world of commerce. The fascination of the potential of this trade is absorbing. Just one example will suffice; large rewards are offered for the introduction of a 'Fish and Chips' automatic machine. Many thousands of pounds have been spent on this one project alone. Designs and machines have been demonstrated, as stimulating and as delicate as the 'Delicacy' to be vended. The skill, energy and imagination of our craftsmen assures success for this truly British venture.

Our contribution to 'gracious living' is of great importance. Foods and liquids are stored to ensure perfect condition when automatically vended and consumed. Wide varieties of articles automatically vended, save on labour costs, leave more time for leisure. Smokeless fuels automatically vended, help keep the air clean and assist the Health Authorities in 'Smokeless Zones.' The dirt and untidyness of coal handling have been eliminated by automatic vending.

Cigars or Nuts—all are available in automatic vending. In the field of education we offer books and magazines. By continual campaigns we are teaching the new generation of the population that it is 'not done' to kick the 'daylights' out of a machine, biting the hand that feeds more and more Britons each year.

We urge that the services of vending machines be used and not abused and that the term "slot machine" be dropped in favour of the more dignified and correct nomenclature. Vandalism is on the wane. New citizens demand the advantages of automatic vending, buy from them and appreciate the service.

The European Common Market is a common topic. Million more will benefit from the skill and integrity of British manufacture. Easy and positive introduction of British goods will be made from skillfully sited automatic vendors. Pasta, Schnitzel, Smorrebrod, Viands and Saurkraut will be new and bewildering names in the minds of the members of the Association in the forward march to conquer fresh fields.

The automatic Vending Machine Association—the United Kingdom version of the N.A.M.A. has been in existence since 1929. In all thirty three years it has sought to protect the public and the trade from misrepresentation and plain fraud. Its code of ethics sets a high standard of integrity among its members. A voluntary code of hygiene far and away exceeds the maximum requirements of Public Health Authorities. It is a proud and jealous association. It has supported its members through the Law Courts by voluntary contribution to the costs. It has demonstrated its solidarity on Government Commissions and Enquiry Boards. Right now it is advising the committee reporting on a change to decimal coinage. Meetings are fully attended. Hot issues, such as lung cancer are freely discussed at its deliberations. It is one of the liveliest trade associations in Great Britain. Its future plans will be to widen the door to Associate-membership. Small operators will be taken under its protective wing and an eagle eye kept open for any 'Blue Sky' activities. Its strength and power are ever on the upgrade.

Gloster Intros Cold Drink Machine, Vends Toys From Pastry Units

LONDON—Gloster Equipment Ltd. (member of the Hawker-Siddeley Group) have just introduced a new refrigerated automatic vending machine to cater for the current demand for an 'ice-cold cup' beverage vendor —the Gloster VM 43. The machine is similar in construction to the VM 36 'hot beverage' vendor except that the heater has been replaced by a ¼ h.p. Prestcold refrigeration unit. The VM 43 has a capacity for 300 6-7 oz. cups. The machine, which offers four selections, has been designed to fit into the comprehensive range of Gloster 'Show-case' machines or stand individually in any environment.

Another new machine is the Gloster carton vendor VM 35/47—a two-selection machine designed for both indoor and outdoor sites. It holds a total of 120 half-pint cartons; 60 cartons per selected drink.

Both these machines will be on show at the International Factory Equipment Exhibition to be held at Manchester from September 19th-28th.

Proving a great success at seaside resorts this summer is the Automatic Gift Shop. Basically, this is a Gloster BM 25 five-selection pastry and snack vendor, which has been redesigned as a gift vendor for children, compartments taking such commodities as dolls, model cars, compasses etc. The machine has the advantage of a clear shopping window which shows the gifts to the best advantage; the vendor can be loaded very quickly and the compartments can be quickly adjusted to vend at either 6d or 1/-.

Distributors and One-Stops seen along Pico Blvd. this week, were saddened by the news that Frank Lamb, well known operator in Montebello, passed away 7/24. . . . A carload of new phonographs arrived at the Wurlitzer Factory Branch and John Scavarda informed that most of the used equipment moved, the past week. Cliff Nugent returned from Fontana & Santa Barbara calling on OP's, and Clayton Ballard is covering the Orange County area.

Henry Leyser of Associated Coin, Oakland and Bob Timm of Gaming Supplies, Las Vegas, both were in town & visited Simon Distributing Co. Sonny Lomberg returned from a successful business trip to the mountains. . . . At American Coin Machine the shop has been actively employed this week with repairs on games and phonographs.

George Sharkiris paid a visit to the California Music Co. promoting his new Capitol L.P., "George Shakiris." Business continues to be very good with record sales on an increase. . . . At Duarte International Sales Co. the shop has been working overtime to prepare export orders for shipment to Hong Kong & Penang. Joe Duarte was happy to receive a visit from Harry Rooklyn of Sydney, Australia, and Leo Jensen from Copenhagen, Denmark.

Hank Tronick of C. A. Robinson & Co. reports that the recent introduction of many new games has provided the operator with a great deal of flexibility, in covering the various types of locations, and has also held sales at a steady pace. . . . At Paul Laymon Inc. Don Peters returned from a fishing trip on the Colorado River, and Mrs. Paul Laymon is planning a 10-day trip to Hawaii.

Dave Block of Mercury Record Distr. brought Tom Bonetti, reg. sales mgr., to the Leuenhagen "Record Bar," while showing Tom the town & visiting other one-stops. Janet Devaney of Dot Records also stopped by with a new release, "My Blue Heaven" by the String-A-Longs. . . . Bill Weikel, sales mgr. of Fischer Mfg. Co., was in town visiting with Bill Happel at the Badger Sales Co. C. S. Britain field eng. for Seeburg, conducted a successful service school in San Diego, with most of the operators in the area in attendance. Marshall Ames just recently relinquished the lead in the golf tournament to Leo Simone, who is playing probably the hottest rounds of golf since the competition started, according to Marshall.

WURLITZER PHONOGRAPHS

WURLITZER PRODUCTION AVERAGES 20,000 PHONOGRAPHS A YEAR OVER 28 YEARS

In 1933 Wurlitzer produced its first coin-operated phonograph. Designated the P-10, it offered ten selections for a nickel a tune. Thus began the popularity of a mode of entertainment which has reached global proportions. Now in mid-1962 Wurlitzer has built its half-millionth phonograph and acknowledges proudly that it has the confidence of music operators which has made possible this continuing success.

Today's Model 2600 offers 200 selections, produces high fidelity stereophonic music, accepts all coins, and features, not a tune for a nickel, but half-dollar play with the Wurlitzer exclusive — 10 TOP TUNES FOR A 50c COIN AT A PRESS OF A SINGLE BUTTON.
